Winter Sports On; Why Not Soccer?

SOCCER IS THE GAME OF THE PROLETARIATE IN ENGLAND.

By JOHN P. BRADY
Forward on Gait Canadian Champions, 1905
The game which is bound to be popular in any country is the game which the poor boy can play with out great expense. One of these is baseball, another is soccer. Both require about the same qualities, viz. speed, brains and skill.

GILMORE MUST HAVE MEANT WHAT HE SAID

By Hal Sheridan
NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—President James A. Gilmore of the Federal league recently voiced several threats in connection with the war on organized baseball, and he has already made good on one of them. And the way he has started out has made Ban Johnson and his cohorts sit up and take notice.

Complete Report of Market Today

Fresh ranch eggs took another tumble Monday, despite the gradually increasing receipts. The shipment of fresh California eggs to the Seattle market at 40 1/2 cents is mainly responsible for the drop. Farmers are now setting 42 cents. Poultry is lower than last week. More stock is coming to Western avenue than there are calls for. A bigger drop may follow in consequence.

AMERICAN INVENTED GERMAN SIEGE GUNS

The mighty siege guns which the Germans have employed with such deadly effect against the Belgian and French fortresses were first constructed in Chicago and tested by the United States government at Sandy Hook.

BILLIARDS

Charley Hulen put the skids under Ray Cumber, former city ball-line billiard champion, Saturday night in two 100-point games, defeating Cumber about two to one. Hulen's high run was 67 in an 18.2-inch ball line game. Some shooting, Shawles.

Three billiard tournaments are on at the Seattle Athletic club, Plummer leading in the straight billiards contest with a perfect score, although he has played but one game, while Moon has a score of 666, winning two and losing one. In the three-cushion game Moon leads with a perfect score of 12 straight games. Fox, Cummings and Terrell are tied for first place with perfect scores in the pocket billiards contest. Fox with eight games to his credit, Cummings with three and Terrell with one.

SPORTING FLASHES

Leo Sizer, star on the Queen Anne eleven for three years, has been elected 1915 captain of the team to succeed Fred "Irish" Richardson.

Ted Meredith, Pennsy sprinter, beat Homer Baker of the New York Athletic club in a half-mile race at Boston. Time—3 minutes, 3.5 seconds.

Jimmy Fitzgerald of Australia made Jimmy Quesal, trainer of the Yale cross-country team, extend himself in a ten-mile run, but was nosed out by five yards in a sprinting finish. Time 54 minutes, 39.35 seconds. Yep, it's the Jimmy Fitz who used to run around Seattle.

More interest is attached to the four-round bout between Johnny O'Leary and Chet Neff at the Pacific Athletic club rooms Tuesday night than to any local scrap this season. The two boys are expected to tangle like a couple of strange wild cats.

Frank Ish and Cal Ewing have sold the San Francisco ball club to Hen Berry, former owner of the Los Angeles team. Now if some one will just buy Berry out of the league the Seals may stand a chance.

It's the same old Jim Corbett who is at Pantages this week, but the press agent admits not the same old stories.

The amateur boxing show at the S. A. C. next Friday night promises to be the biggest event of its kind this season, as the Spokane Athletic club is sending the best it has in the house to meet the Seattle boys.

The Chicago White Sox sign Lal Tin, a Chinese player, for the 1915 season. Probably preparing to blame the loss of the 1915 pennant to a "streak of yellow."

Varsity Is Bunked on 1915 Grid Schedule

Baseball and football schedules one game to be played in Seattle and the other to be played at the home of the college in the east. This plan was pushed through by an alleged combination of the eastern colleges against the Dobleites, and is anything but satisfactory to the latter.

Eight baseball games have been scheduled with Washington for other colleges, half of which will be played on the Seattle diamond. The teams in the eastern portion of the state are left off the schedule, which arranges for the following games: University of Washington—April 16 and 17—Oregon at Seattle. April 23 and 24—O. A. C. at Seattle. May 12 and 13—Oregon at Eugene. May 14 and 15—O. A. C. at Corvallis.

GREAT GOSH! GET THIS! THAM IS GOING TO DRAW THE COLOR LINE

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 7.—Sam Langford is going to draw the color line. His battle on Thanksgiving day with Harry Willis in Los Angeles was his last fight with a black man.

He is going to turn his attention exclusively to the elimination of white boys—that is, providing he doesn't get a crack at Jack Johnson, the famous heavyweight at present supposed to be cleaning up all comers in England.

could whip Jack Johnson, Langford replied: "I never makes no predictions. He's a big, tough fellow, and no mistake. Just say, though, that

Sam Langford, the Boston Tar Baby
"These colored scrappers are tough as pig iron," commented Langford. "The white hopes, they fall much easier. Two colored scrappers don't draw no money, either." When asked if he thought he

WATSON AND MOY IN FINAL SCRAP

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—Promoter James Coffroth announced today he has signed Red Watson and Eddie Moy, lightweights, for the last 25-round bout to be staged here. The date will be either Dec. 16 or 18, probably the latter, as boxing comes to a close in California on that night.

WANT CORBETT TO REFEREE THE BOUT

Billy Wright, the Seattle lightweight, will go against Eddie Loran, a rising event at the Austin & Salt boxing show at the Pacific Athletic club rooms Tuesday evening, completing a five-event card. Chet Neff and Johnny O'Leary will clash in the main event, and the winner will be regarded as the best boy of the weight in the Pacific Northwest, although Pat Scott says the winner will have to settle that matter with him, before there is anything to it. Dan Salt is dicker with Jim Corbett, who is appearing at Pantages this week, to referee the main event.

Phil Ball, vice president of the St. Louis Feds, says "Homernut" Baker is seeking a job with the "outlaw" league. Looks as if that is where he will have to go if he wants to stay in fast company.

At Tacoma Sunday the Seattle Celtics and Tacoma Nationals battled to a two-goal tie in an interesting and speedy contest, which ended up in a rough-house exhibition which resulted in Medlock of the Celtics and McGregor of the Nationals being ordered from the game.

Alex Rose refereed the struggle. The teams lined up: Nationals—Goal, Stewart; backs, Allen, Simpson; half backs, Murdoch, McGilivray and Proctor; forwards, Jopson, McGilivray, Harshaw, Harlow and Stewart. Carbonado—Goal, Banks; backs, Shearer, Downing; half backs, McDonald, McLean, Atkinson; forwards, Hayton, Reese, Lomas, Hanus and Harlin.

Champs Drop One to Nats

Playing circles around the champion Carbonado soccer team, the Seattle National team sprung a soccer surprise at Bugdale's park Sunday afternoon, shutting out the Carbonado champs by a one-goal to nothing score. Barlow put across the winning play for the Nationals within ten minutes of the time when he placed a center which Jopson grabbed on the bound and easily evaded the Coal Diggers' goal keeper. Both teams were playing on their toes every minute and the game was one of the fastest of the season and received frequent hands from the gallery.

FOUND OUT BY HER HUSBAND; SHOOTS SELF

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Mrs. Minnie J. Grant, a young brunette, is in St. Vincent's hospital with a pistol shot wound in her right temple. Her death is expected.

They were married at Hudson, N. Y., and lived happily together. Last June Grant got a job at Hillsdale, Pa. His wife stayed in New York.

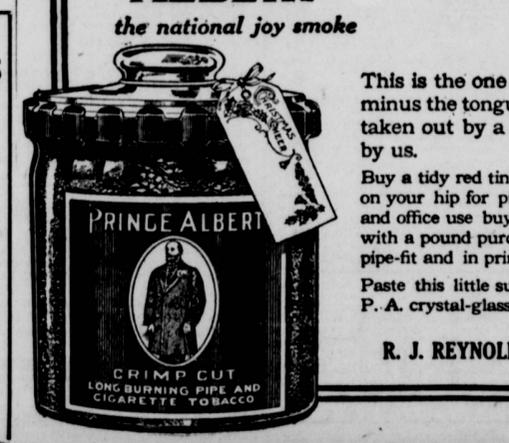

"Yesterday I got a letter from her that scared me," she wrote that she was going away. I was so frightened I took the night train for New York. I hurried to the flat and rang the bell. "She opened the door. "A man came out of the bedroom. "He said it was all a mistake and asked me to take a walk with him and talk it over, and I did. "I went back to the flat and rang, but I got no answer. "I climbed in the window. "There lay my wife with the pistol in her hand. "Police believe Grant's story.

AMERICAN INVENTED GERMAN SIEGE GUNS

The mighty siege guns which the Germans have employed with such deadly effect against the Belgian and French fortresses were first constructed in Chicago and tested by the United States government at Sandy Hook.

Louis Gathmann, at employment connected with the Northwestern university, is the inventor of what is known as the Gathmann gun and shell.

When the United States tested these shells it was found that there was great danger that the gun, after it had been used a dozen times, would explode because of its terrific power.

The shells are about four feet long and 18 inches in diameter, carrying nearly a barrel of gun cotton or nitro-glycerine.
