BRYAN OPENS CRUSADE FOR PEACE; MAKES STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Former Secretary of State Bryan today declared he would "rest his case" with a statement to be addressed to German-Americans until a special occasion arises. This is understood to mean that Bryan will wait until Germany replies to President Wilson's rejoinder before taking further steps in his peace campaign and explaining the reasons for his resignation.

If Germany should reject the demands made by this government, the former secretary will then endeavor to have arbitration substituted for the drastic steps President Wilson may consider necessary.

Bryan last night gave out the following statement to the newspapers in his campaign for his peace policies:

"To the American people: You now have before you the text of the note to Germany—the note which it would have been my official duty to sign had I remained secretary of state. I ask you to sit in judgment upon my decision to resign rather than to share responsibility for it. I am sure you will credit me with honorable motives, but that is not enough. Good intentions could not atone for a mistake at such a time, on such a subject and under such circumstances. If your verdict is against me, I ask no mercy; I desire none. If I have acted unwisely, a man in public life must act accordingly to his conscience, but however conscientiously he acts, he must be prepared to accept without complaint any condemnation which his own errors may bring upon him; he must be willing to bear any deserved punishment from ostracism to execution. But hear me before you pass sentence.

"The president and I agree in purpose; we desire a peaceful solution of the dispute which has arisen between the United States and Germany. We not only desire it, but with equal fervor we pray for it, but we differ irreconcilably as to the means of securing it. If it were merely a personal difference of opinion, it would be a matter of no moment, for all the presumptions are on his side—the presumptions that go with power and authority. He is your president, I am a private citizen, without office or title, but one of the hundred million of inhabitants.

"But the real issue is not between persons; it is between systems, and I rely for vindication wholly upon the strength of the position taken.

"Among the influences which governments employ in dealing with each other, there are two which are pre-eminent and antagonistic—force and persuasion. Force speaks with firmness and acts through the ultimatum; persuasion employs argument, courts investigation and depends upon negotiation.

"Force represents the old system—the system that must pass away; persuasion represents the new system—the system that has been growing, all too slowly, it is true, but growing for 1,900 years. In the old system, war is the chief cornerstone—war, which at its best is a little better than war at its worst; the new system contemplates a universal brotherhood, established through the uplifting power of example.

"If I correctly interpret the note to Germany, it conforms to the standards of the old system rather than to the rules of the new, and I cheerfully admit that it is abundantly supported by precedent—precedents written in characters of blood upon almost every page of human history. Austria furnishes the most precedent; it was Austria's firmness that dictated the ultimatum against Serbia, which set the world at war. Every ruler now participating in this unparalleled conflict has proclaimed his desire for peace and denied responsibility for the war, and it is only charitable that we should credit all of them with good faith.

"They desire peace, but they sought it according to the rules of the old system. They followed the firmness which would give the best assurance of the maintenance of peace, and, faithfully following precedent, they went so near the fire that they were, one after another, sucked into the contest. Never before have the frightful follies of this fatal system been so clearly revealed as now. The most civilized and enlightened—aye, the most Christian, of the nations of Europe are grappling with each other as if in a death struggle.

"They are sacrificing the best and bravest of their sons on the battlefield; they are converting their gardens into cemeteries and their homes into houses of mourning; they are taxing the wealth of today and laying a burden of debt on the toll of the future; they have filled the air with thunderbolts more deadly than those of Jove and they have multiplied the perils of the deep.

"Adding fresh fuel to the flame of hate, they have daily devised new horrors, until one side is endeavoring to destroy noncombatant men, women and children at sea; while the other side seeks to starve noncombatant men, women and children on land. And they are so

OFFICIALS WILL PICK QUARTERS

Some day within the next 10, at the outside, the city council and the county commissioners must get together and bare their hearts to one another as to just which rooms each wishes for the new quarters in the big municipal-county building at Third and James.

The Puget Sound Bridge and Dredging Co., contractors have insisted that the officials of both city and county reach an agreement at once, as the work of interior finishing has progressed so far that to know which room is which and for whom is imperative.

absorbed in alternate retallations and in competitive cruelties that they seem, for the time being, blind to the right of neutrals and deaf to the appeals of humanity. A tree is known by its fruit. The war in Europe is the ripened fruit of the old system.

"This is what firmness, supported by force, has done in the old world. Shall we invite it to cross the Atlantic? Already the jingoes of our own country have caught

'SEATTLE STAR' MARCH TO BE PLAYED SUNDAY

"The Seattle Star," a new march composed and dedicated to this newspaper by E. O. Cavanaugh, in appreciation for its fight for band music in the public parks, will be the introductory number of Cavanaugh's band concert at Madison park Sunday afternoon.

The concert will continue from 2:30 until 5 o'clock, when the band will repair immediately to Leschi park to hold another concert from 5:30 to 8 o'clock.

In both these parks the concerts are due to business men who "chipped in" to pay the expense, after having been refused the cooperation of the Seattle park board.

the rabies from the dogs of war. Shall the opponents of organized slaughter be silent while the disease spreads?

"As a humble follower of the Prince of Peace; as a devoted believer in the prophecy that they that take the sword shall perish by the sword; I beg to be counted among those who earnestly urge the adoption of a course in this matter, which will leave no doubt of our government's willingness to continue negotiations with Germany until an amicable understanding is reached, or at least until the stress of war is over, when we can appeal from Philip drunk with carnage to Philip sobered by the memories of a historic friendship and by a recollection of the innumerable ties of kinship that bind the Fatherland to the United States.

"Some nation must lead the world out of the black night of war into that day when 'swords shall be beaten into plowshares.' Why not make that honor ours? Some day—why not now?—the nations will learn that enduring peace cannot be built upon fear; that good will does not grow upon the stalk of violence. Some day the nations will place their trust in love, the weapon for which there is no shield; in love, that suffereth long and is kind; in love, that is not easily provoked, that beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things; in love, which, the despised as weaklings by worshippers of Mars, abideth when all else fails.

QUEEN OF ITALY REAL CAUSE OF NATION AT WAR?

BY ALICE ROHE
United Press Staff Correspondent
ROME, May 27.—(By Mail to New York).—Behind the diplomatic plots and counter-plots which have placed Italy in the most precarious position of its recent history, a struggle has been going on which was not chronicled in the nation's green book. It was a struggle between a man and a woman.

The man was Giolitti, former premier, who at the "thirteenth hour" plunged Italy into a surging sea of neutralism, a coup d'etat culminating his work of nine long months.

The woman was Queen Helena herself—the Queen of Italy, the Princess of Montenegro, who has been using all of her influence over the king to counteract the machinations of Giolitti, the neutralist.

"To the king of Italy, the dearest thing in all the world is this beautiful Montenegrin princess, the daughter of King Nicholas. This same queen and princess of Montenegro has, from the first hour of the nation's indecision, longed and prayed for the moment when Italy would join the forces of the allies.

take up arms against her father's country, to aid the destroyer of Belgium, the would-be destroyer of Serbia, has been a tragedy hanging over the head of the lovely queen. To just what extent the pleadings of the queen have influenced Victor Emmanuel in the hours when the German-Austro-Italian accord seemed imminent, no one knows.

Victor Emmanuel could wound her whom he adores most in all the world. While diplomats were working for the fall, or the reforming of the cabinet, according to their desires, the woman's honest and direct influence was at work in the Villa Savoy.

Love of a woman has decided the fate of nations many a time, and the Italians who realize the perfect love existing between the king and queen of Italy do not believe that

VINDICATED BY THE COURT

Medical Board Ordered to Restore License to Dr. J. Eugene Jordan After Evidence of Remarkable Cures Was Produced in Court

On January 7th, of this year, Doctor J. Eugene Jordan was arraigned before the State Medical Board and his license to practice medicine revoked, the contention of the board being that the advertisement reproduced, which had been running in the local newspapers, was untrue, that Doctor Jordan could not cure the diseases mentioned therein.

Doctor Jordan appealed to the courts in the matter and the trial of the case which followed, in the Superior Court, produced evidence of a character that caused Judge Walter M. French to award a decision to Doctor Jordan, restoring to him his license.

Judge French stated in his decision: The court cannot find in this case that any credulous or ignorant persons have been deceived. On the other hand, the witnesses who have been produced on behalf of Doctor Jordan are among the best people in the city. Professional people, people of standing in the community, people who are known to the Court personally and people who are known to the citizens of this city generally as being among the best people in the city. And I don't think that it can be contended that they were either credulous or ignorant except as the laity generally is somewhat ignorant of medical matters.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE CURED

Another Case of the So-Called Incurable Disease Completely Cured. This Did Not Happen in Central Africa, But Right Here in Seattle. Do You Know of Any Other Physician Who Can Do It?

September 24, 1913. I was taken down with acute Bright's Disease last February and was not expected to recover. I became so dropsical that I could hardly move in bed. My condition became so desperate that the doctors in attendance held out no hope. Doctor J. Eugene Jordan was suggested as a last resort and as I had nothing to lose and everything to gain, I started to use his Glandular Remedies. I began to mend at once and in three months not a particle of albumen could be found where before it had loomed with me. I gained back the thirteen pounds that I had lost and my kidneys are as good as they were before. (Signed) AD. GOINGS, 8016 Twelfth Avenue Northwest.

The above testimonial, like the many others which have appeared in this journal, demonstrate the thoroughness and permanency of Doctor J. Eugene Jordan's cures of Tuberculosis, Asthma, Anemia, Blindness, Bright's Disease, Ulceration of the Bones, Chronic Catarrh, Chronic Inflammation of the Bladder, Deafness from paralysis of the Auditory Nerve, Diabetes, Prolapsus Uteri, Dropsy, Chronic Dyspepsia, Epilepsy, Epithelioma (skin cancers), Chronic Erysipelas, Chronic Gastralgia, Hard Lumps in Breast, Heart Disease (including Heart Leakage), Hip Disease, Infantile Paralysis, Insanity, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Meningitis, Chronic Neuralgia, Paralysis, Locomotor Ataxia, Sclerotic, Senile Gangrene, Spinal Curvature, Strabismus, St. Vitus' Dance, Ulceration of Stomach or Bowels and most other so-called incurable diseases.

Doctor J. Eugene Jordan is a fully accredited physician under the laws of the State of Washington and is an ex-professor of Chemistry and Toxicology of the Hahnemann College and Hospital of Chicago, Ill. He has practiced in Seattle continuously for the past 25 years.

There being a number of Doctors Jordan in Seattle, it is well to bear in mind the full name and address of Doctor J. Eugene Jordan, 419 1/2 First Avenue, Seattle. Office hours, 9 a. m. to 8 p. m.; Sundays from 2 p. m. to 6 p. m. Consultation free. Watch each Wednesday Star for remarkable cures.

(Advertisement on which charge of Medical Board was based.)

To involve moral turpitude on the part of Doctor Jordan and judgment will, therefore, be for Doctor Jordan.

GREATER VINDICATION COULD NOT BE DESIRED

The Medical Board claimed that these diseases were incurable, meaning, of course, that they could not cure them. Doctor Jordan not only claimed to cure them, but produced in court scores of actually cured patients as witnesses for his case. The stories of their remarkable cures have been stated under oath.

Doctor Jordan has caused this statement to be published in order to acquaint the public and his many friends with the proven facts in the case.
