

WE WILL FIGHT TO THE LAST, IS BRITISH REPLY

BY ED L. KEEN
LONDON, Aug. 10.—The allies will fight to the finish, and will make peace only on their own terms.

This was the tone of angry comments expressed today upon the message of Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg to the United Press yesterday as to the terms upon which the kaiser would consent to peace negotiations.

The statement of the German chancellor, expressing the hope that would hasten the end of the war, and declaring that Germany is fighting for absolute security for herself and her allies, and freedom of the seas to all people, was published in full throughout England.

It was prominently displayed, some papers subordinating the war reports and making the Bethmann-Hollweg statement the important news of the day.

Call it impudent

A majority of the London papers commented upon the statement in scathing editorials, expressing indignation at the "impudence" of the proposals.

The Telegraph, in a column editorial, said in part:

"Bethmann-Hollweg's formula in the message to the United Press is notionally so conceived as to cover anything from the lowest terms Germany considers she could make without owning herself defeated to the limits of extortion. This will scarcely commend itself to neutral influences seeking a basis for pacificatory action in the future and just terms."

Bethmann-Hollweg's difficulty is indeed, hopeless. He knows neutral opinion is generally immovable on

FEARS U. S. WILL BE ATTACKED BY ONE OF POWERS

No matter which nation is victorious in the European war, that country will attack the United States, because by then this nation will have most of the world's wealth within its vaults, says Former Assistant Secretary of the Navy Herbert L. Satterlee, who is in Seattle, with his wife and daughters, touring the Pacific Coast.

"The warring nations will look to the United States and the Western hemisphere as an easy way of paying war debts," says Satterlee. "We are absolutely helpless, a second China, and the we are the richest nation on earth, we are, with China, its most helpless."

"We have been getting along on a bluff with our Monroe doctrine, our Panama canal, our great responsibilities in Alaska, the Philippines and Hawaiian Islands, but we will see our bluff called at the close of this war, and it behooves us to be ready."

"The argument is often raised that the European nations will be so exhausted by this war that they will not seek further trouble. All history disproves this contention, and the history of our own country is a notable case in point."

"At the close of our civil war we were on our toes looking for trouble, and we had an enormous army, fully equipped. We told France to get out of Mexico, and we were ready to back it up if she had failed to do so. France got out."

DENTAL MONKEYS

A monkey is the greatest animal helper of the human race except the Dental Monkey. It is a most striking and wonderful fact that some Dental Monkeys are serving the monkey family in the practice of dentistry.

When you read some Dentists' advertisements, you will recognize my style of cuts imitated, and the name, which I originated, "The Dental War Is On," imitated, my style of ad writing imitated, and my expression somewhat imitated by these Dental monkeys.

When you walk down Cherry st. or 1st ave., you will see my signs imitated and an effort made to imitate my name, and if you would get into the den and ask if this is Dr. E. J. Brown's office, they will say, "Yes, this is Dr. Brown's office."

DOLLARS ROLLING IN

The dollars are still pouring in for the widowed mother and five little children at 1225 Sixth ave. Tuesday The Star received a crinkly new one dollar bill from "A Wife," and a check for $2 from "One Who Wants to Help."

The little mother is grateful for the help and sympathy extended to her by the public and wishes us to thank all of those who made her burden lighter in her recent bereavement.

NOW THE ALASKA RAG

Alec M. Mallin, a Seattle concert pianist and instructor, 6641 Sixth ave. N. W., has had published a piano selection, "The Alaska Rag." The Echo Music Publishing Co. has put out the piece in artistic manner. On the front-piece two polar bears are ragging.

AIN'T IT THE TRUTH!

The good old days, when engravers engraved for the art of their calling, not because of the living in it, are being wished back by Matthew Wold, of Chicago, head of the International Photo-Engravers' union, who is stopping over here en route to the international convention at San Francisco.
