BOSTON, Oct. 11.—Grover Cleveland Alexander lost the toughest game of his career this afternoon before the biggest crowd that ever saw a professional baseball game in the United States. Boston beat out the big Philly star in a desperate ninth inning finish that sent more than 40,000 people into a frenzy.

For eight innings Alexander had struggled along, holding the Sox to four hits, while his teammates were unable to get more than one run off Leonard.

In the ninth, Hooper, who heretofore had gone hitless, led off with a low liner over second base.

Scott, weakest on the Boston attack, sent him to second with a sacrifice, and then came Speaker.

Tris already had got two hits and scored Boston's only run. Alexander was afraid to take a chance and passed the Texan. Hobbitzell died on an easy infield chance. Then Duffy slammed the first ball pitched for a screaming liner over short and Hooper came home with the run that put the immense stands on its feet.

Lewis was mobbed as he threw down his bat and hugged Hooper as the latter crossed the plate. Thousands of Bostonians clambered out of the grand stand and crowded around the Californian, while his team mates fought desperately to get to him.

Manager Carrigan threw his arms around Duffy's neck and almost sobbed for joy.

FIRST INNING

Philadelphia—Stock doubled to center. Speaker lost the ball in the sun and official scorer gave Stock a hit. Bancroft out, Gardner to Hobbitzell, Stock taking third. Paskert fouled out to center. Cravath fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Boston—Hooper flew to Cravath. Scott fanned. Speaker flew to Paskert. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING

Philadelphia—Luderus fanned. Whitted popped to Hobbitzell. Niehoff popped to Scott. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Leonard was going great. He had a world of speed and put the ball over the corners like a rifle shot.

Boston—Hobbitzell out. Alexander unassisted. Lewis singled down left field foul line. Lewis out stealing. Burns to Bancroft. Gardner flew to Whitted. No runs, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING

Philadelphia—Burns singled to center. Alexander safe when Hobbitzell dropped the ball. Burns safe at second. Stock sacrificed. Gardner to Hobbitzell, both runners advancing. Bancroft singled, scoring Burns. Paskert flew to Barry. Alexander was held at third. Barry made a wonderful catch with his back to the ball. Cravath flew out to Lewis. One run, two hits, one error.

Seemingly superhuman support was all that prevented the Phillies making three runs. Barry ran into center and took Paskert's high one and a moment later Lewis raced to left field wall and in one final convulsive leap, speared what appeared to be a triple off Cravath's bat.

Boston—Barry flew to Paskert. Carrigan walked. Leonard fouled. Whitted tried hard for a long foul from Leonard but missed. Leonard fanned. Hooper popped to Stock. No runs, no hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING

Philadelphia—Luderus fanned. Whitted flew to Hooper. Niehoff popped to Scott. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Scott flew to Paskert. Speaker tripled down right field foul line. The ball missed the roof. Hobbitzell flew to Paskert. Speaker scored after the catch. Lewis popped to Paskert. One run, one hit, no errors.

Speaker's hit was a low writhing grounder, which rolled straight down the right field line. Cravath was playing too far over to get it.

FIFTH INNING

Philadelphia—Burns out. Leonard to Hobbitzell. Alexander out. Leonard to Hobbitzell. Stock flew to Hooper. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Gardner flew to Paskert. Barry flew to Whitted. Carrigan flew to Paskert. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SIXTH INNING

Philadelphia—Bancroft popped to Carrigan. Bill ran nearly to first base to take the high one. Paskert out, Barry to Hobbitzell. Cravath out, Gardner to Hobbitzell. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Leonard fanned. Hooper out. Luderus to Alexander. Scott fouled to Burns. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Happy Wednesday

Judging from the results which the merchants got last Wednesday from the "Happy Wednesday" feature, a great many people must have been made happy, by getting good bargains. For this week the advertisers will fairly out-do themselves to make the "Happy Wednesday" feature attractive and profitable reading. Watch for it in Tuesday's Star.

OUT FOR HOBSON BILL

W. C. T. U. PROGRAM FOR TONIGHT AND TOMORROW

7:30 p. m.—Greetings from Chile, Mrs. Ida A. T. Aron, president W. C. T. U., Chile, South America. "Woman's Part in China's Temperance Awakening," Miss Jennie V. Hughes, Kinkaling, China. Address by Mrs. Mary Stone (Shi Ma Lei), president National W. C. T. U. of China. "We Must Win," Miss Frances Wang, Kiu-hiang, China. "Greetings from Japan," Mrs. Sarah Ellis, Tokyo.

10:30 a. m.—Addresses by eight state presidents.
11:00 a. m.—Addresses by W. C. T. U. members.
1:00 p. m.—Open parliament of 10-minute discussions.
2:30 p. m.—Consideration of constitutional amendments.
3:30 p. m.—"Which Shall It Be?" Mrs. Adah Wallace Tursh, Oregon. "The March of Prohibition," Mrs. Vera S. La Nance, Missouri. "Some Reasons Why the Liquor Traffic Must Die," Mrs. Florence E. Atkins, Tennessee.

Miss Anna A. Gordon of Evansville, Ind., in a stirring presidential address before the national convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union here Monday, sounded the reveille in a great campaign for nation-wide prohibition. The opening gun will be fired in Washington, D. C., before the approaching sixty-fourth session of congress, when, backed by an army of 500,000 white-ribboners and endorsed by countless citizens of the United States, the churches and men's, women's and children's organizations, the "Hobson Resolution" for the national abolishment of the liquor traffic will be presented.

700 Delegates Present
The national convention of the White-Ribboners is being held in Plymouth Congregational church, where 700 delegates, many from foreign lands, are gathered this week.

Miss Gordon recommended also that the W. C. T. U. continue its efforts in securing legislation to amend the federal constitution to forever abolish polygamy, and that the organization do all in its power to bring about the strict enforcement of the new federal anti-drug act.

Thanks Local Workers
She paused to extend glowing tribute to the work of "the staunch and true leaders of the white-ribbon hosts of West Washington—Margaret Platt and Margaret Munns, who, she said, "have with heroic self-sacrifice and consecration, given their time and earnest toll to the advancement of the temperance cause, and to plans for the success of the convention."

A rising vote of thanks was accorded the two local workers. Fully 1,500 persons attended the welcoming services held Sunday in Plymouth church. Mayor Gill, with characteristic humor, extended the hand of good fellowship to the visitors on behalf of the city.

"The governor of this state," he said, "has no more to do with enforcing the prohibition law than I have to do with the marriage of President Wilson. The governor or I can only enforce it as far as we can create public sentiment. I have stated, however, that the law will be enforced in this city—and have been properly roasted for the statement—and believe it will be enforced."

Other prominent speakers were: Mrs. Josephine Preston, state school superintendent; Rev. A. W. Leonard, pastor of First Methodist church, and Mrs. Margaret B. Platt, president of the West Washington W. C. T. U.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 11.—Lieut. W. R. Tallafero, U. S. naval corps, was killed here today when he lost control of his aeroplane while looping the loop over the bay. Tallafero was strapped to his seat, and drowned before divers from the U. S. San Diego could reach him. Tallafero was married, in April, to Miss Leicester Sehon, daughter of the late Capt. John L. Sehon, of the U. S. army.

leges her husband frequently threatened to commit suicide and also said he'd kill her. She asked for a divorce on the grounds of cruelty and non-support. In an affidavit she says he followed her one day so persistently, threatening to kill her, that she had to call a police officer. A restraining order had been granted by Judge Gilliam to keep McInroy from further molesting her.
Brooding over his differences with his wife, McInroy Monday evidently had started for the home, intent, the police think, on shooting his wife. But he met her unexpectedly on the street, and the shooting followed.
Residents who heard the shots summoned the police and the ambulance.
A later report from the hospital said McInroy could not recover, but his wife had an even chance.

5 MILLION COMING HERE

BY KENNETH W. PAYNE

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—More than 30 states of the Union are going to profit directly from the half-billion war loan made to the allies to the extent of many millions of dollars, while ultimately and indirectly the streams of gold will trickle into practically every corner of the country.

The state of Washington will get at least $5,000,000 of the money. Deposited in American banks, the huge sum of cash that makes up the Anglo-French loan will be paid out to American producers, subject to orders from London.

The commodities that it will be used to purchase have been divided roughly into ten great classes, and they come from every section of the nation.

Based upon last available export figures, the $500,000,000 of the loan would be divided up somewhat as follows, according to a famous statistician of Wall street:

Cotton $137,000,000
Wheat 105,000,000
Iron and steel 21,500,000
Meat and dairy 87,000,000
Copper 42,000,000
Automobiles 42,000,000
Horses 20,000,000
Leather 21,500,000
Tobacco 19,000,000
Wool 5,000,000

Total $500,000,000

These figures are admittedly untrustworthy AS TO PROPORTION, for iron and steel men are likely to get a great deal more of this half billion than the table gives, and an enormous portion of it also may be used to pay munitions makers.

IS 'WOODY' PLANNING TO ELOPE?

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Are President Wilson and his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, planning to surprise the nation?
Society believes they are, by having the wedding very soon.
Here is the evidence that strengthens this belief:
The president slipped away from the White House today and bought a big wardrobe trunk.
Secretary McAdoo and his wife, the president's daughter, scheduled to go West last Friday, have not gone yet.
Secretary Garrison and his wife are returning from Hot Springs this week, instead of next, as originally planned.
Mrs. Daniels, wife of the secretary of the navy, now visiting in the South, will hurry home immediately.
Margaret Wilson, not expected to return to Washington until Friday, is coming immediately.
All these things were regarded as more than coincidences, and society thought they pointed to a wedding this week of next.

BOY UNDER BED; MAN SHOTS HIM

John Cornelius, 14, is at the county hospital Monday, with bullet wounds in his right leg that may necessitate amputation. Louis Chappel, 24, of Swan Lake, is held at the county jail on an open charge.
Chappel shot the boy last night, at his home, suspecting him, he says, of being a burglar. He came home and found some one under his bed. Chappel says. He ordered the intruder to come out. When he failed to do so, Chappel alleges he fired at him, emptying his 44-caliber automatic revolver, containing nine shots.
The boy is a son of a guard at the county stockade.

SAYS IT'S FRAME-UP
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—Wm. L. Williamson, wealthy live stock dealer, charged with having plotted to set fire to 275 tons of hay on "Island No. 2," near Vallejo, for the insurance, today declared he is the victim of a "frame-up."
According to the story of Wm. H. Banta, whose wife, formerly Mrs. Marie Handbury, owns the island, Williamson hired Banta to set fire to the hay.

DON'T BE STUNG; BE SURE THAT NEWSIE GIVES YOU A STAR EXTRA

THOUSANDS of Seattle newspaper readers are realizing, since the opening of the world's series, how marvelously well equipped The Star is for chain-lightning service.

Friday, Saturday, and again today, The Star's baseball edition was on the street ahead of its newspaper competitor.

The Star extra publishes a complete account of the game, play by play, AND THE BOX SCORE. The other afternoon newspaper publishes only a partial account of the game, and no box score, only "flash" figures on the final score, chiseled in on the "plate" after it has been cast and made ready to lock on the press.

Don't be fooled, fans! Don't "fall for" the counter-feit. Buy The Star and get a real account and box score of the game—OUT EVERY DAY, ONE MINUTE AFTER THE LAST MAN IS DOWN IN THE NINTH.

PRETTIEST GIRL! NAME IS "GERT"

Gertrude Fischer's favorite photograph, autographed for Star readers.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 11.—The "prettiest girl in America"—and they call her "GERT!"
She's Gertrude Fischer, 19, just elected America's beauty by the nation's photographers in convention. And her beauty doesn't bother her.
"Beauty of line amounts to nothing after the first 10 minutes; the only beauty that lasts is beauty of soul," she said.

RECOMMENDS WHITE
WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Secretary Wilson today recommended to President Wilson Edward White for immigration commissioner at San Francisco.

TEUTONS PURSUE SERBS

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Serbian forces, following up the same lines they pursued successfully months since, are retiring today from the fallen city of Belgrade toward the mountains.

There it is regarded likely they will make a stand against the Teuton invaders, but whether they will be able to hurl them back is doubtful.

The Teutons are throwing heavy forces into the pursuit, and undoubtedly will profit from their other costly experience.

Rear guard actions are proceeding. A big engagement is not anticipated for some days. The allies continue to land forces for Serbia's aid, and are pushing them forward as rapidly as possible.

The city districts were wrecked entirely in the Austro-German capture of Belgrade. Six thousand shells were thrown into the city. From Belgrade the Teutons pushed steadily on, all reports indicate. Serbian claims of a victory on the Drina are denied by Germany.

100,000 SERBS ARE MASSES ON BORDER

PARIS, Oct. 11.—Fighting between Bulgarians and Serbians massed on their frontiers is momentarily expected. The allies continue to land troops as fast as possible at Salonika, and are pushing their way to Serbia.

A hundred thousand Serbians are concentrated on the Bulgarian frontier, including 20,000 along the Guegher-Strumitza railroad.

BIG LINER IS SET AFIRE

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 11.—Fire broke out aboard the C. P. R. steamer Montezuma at her dock here at an early hour this morning and called forth all of the available firemen of the city to combat the flames.

The fire is in the hold of the vessel, where a great amount of war supplies for Russia is stored, as well as cotton and a general cargo.

Seven firemen were overcome by smoke.
The cause of the fire is not known, but it is strongly hinted that a bomb explosion started it. This theory is discounted by the police officials, but they admit that it appears the same as similar fires which started aboard vessels in New York harbor.

BEGIN DREADNAUGHT

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Preparations for laying the keel of the giant super-dreadnaught California, which will be the greatest in the world, are under way today.

JIT DRIVER OUT ON BAIL

B. H. Deyoe, jitney driver, who ran down and killed Eleanor Brunner, 4, of 123 Eastlake ave., Friday, was released from county jail Saturday on $1,000 bail.

JAPAN SENDS ALL TEA HERE
Charles Potter, civil and construction engineer, of San Francisco, just back from the Orient, says 100 per cent of Japan's tea exports and 91 per cent of silk exports come to the United States.

BALLARD MAN SHOTS WIFE AND HIMSELF

Fred McInroy, 48, a locomotive engineer, shot his wife, Tillie, 37, thru the left breast at 6:30 a. m., Monday, when he met her on her way to work, as she was passing 1715 13th ave. N. W. He then turned the revolver on himself, firing a bullet thru his brain. Two are at the city hospital, both, perhaps, fatally wounded.
The shooting is ascribed by the police to family differences, precipitated by Mrs. McInroy's persistence in keeping a place and nephew at the McInroy home, 7025 23th ave., in opposition to the wishes of her husband.
McInroy left home, enraged, two months ago, and has been living elsewhere since. Mrs. McInroy was forced to see her own livelihood.
Mrs. McInroy brought divorce proceedings against her husband on September 1. In her complaint, on file in the superior court, she al-

LOW DEATH RATE

OLYMPIA, Oct. 11.—For the 12 months ending September 30, there have been 215 fatal industrial accidents in this state. This is a low rate making three runs. Barry ran into center and took Paskert's high one and a moment later Lewis raced to left field wall and in one final convulsive leap, speared what appeared to be a triple off Cravath's bat.

Boston—Barry flew to Paskert. Carrigan walked. Leonard fouled. Whitted tried hard for a long foul from Leonard but missed. Leonard fanned. Hooper popped to Stock. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Philadelphia—Luderus fanned. Whitted flew to Hooper. Niehoff popped to Scott. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Scott flew to Paskert. Speaker tripled down right field foul line. The ball missed the roof. Hobbitzell flew to Paskert. Speaker scored after the catch. Lewis popped to Paskert. One run, one hit, no errors.

Speaker's hit was a low writhing grounder, which rolled straight down the right field line. Cravath was playing too far over to get it.

Philadelphia—Burns out. Leonard to Hobbitzell. Alexander out. Leonard to Hobbitzell. Stock flew to Hooper. No runs, no hits, no errors.
