RADICALS WHO COME TO SAVE HILLSTROM ARE PUT IN THE CHAIN GANG

Police Meet the Incoming Trains and Order I. W. W.'s to "Move On!"—Latter Assert Leader's Activities in Soldier Strike Is Reason for Sentence to Death on Murder Charge.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 27. While the Swedish government is lending itself to a movement to save Joseph Hillstrom from the firing squad in Utah, the itinerant class, many of them members of the Industrial Workers of the World, is flocking to Salt Lake Mealtime in the road gang; friends of "Joe Hill" arrested in Utah and forced to work on the highways. Above is the poet, Joseph Hillstrom's, latest picture.

City. It, also, is bent on saving the life of Joseph Hillstrom.

It is that class that first came to Hillstrom's aid, starting a movement which was brought directly to the attention of the president of the United States.

Thru the efforts of the I. W. W., the Swedish minister was interested.

Again Sentenced to Die

That interest led to state department and national cognizance of a state execution.

President Wilson, 24 hours before the time set for the execution, requested a respite.

On Oct. 16 the Utah board of pardons again considered the case of Joseph Hillstrom, convicted of murder, denied him mercy, and set a new date for his execution.

Hillstrom, himself, sits back and stolidly declares he could free himself in a minute if he cared to explain how he came by a bullet wound in the chest.

But that, he says, would involve the honor of a woman.

Rather than do that he would go to his death.

That, Hillstrom contends, is "no body's business."

Wrote I. W. W. Songs

The condemned man is known to the I. W. W. forces as Joe Hill.

Under that name he wrote many songs, parodies on popular airs, sung at I. W. W. meetings.

When the I. W. W. threats were made police met incoming trains and ordered suspected arrivals to keep going.

The city was kept comparatively free of radicals.

Those who persisted in remaining in town were arrested on charges of vagrancy. They were given long terms on the city chain gang, constructing a new boulevard overlooking the city.
