Mrs. Porter's Puddings
Real Thanksgiving Treat

Delicious New Products—The Crowning Dainty for the Home Feast Tomorrow, and for Every Day in the Year

If you want a really, truly delicious dessert for tomorrow's dinner—one that will please the entire family from the youngest to the oldest—be sure to serve Mrs. Porter's new Puddings, which are proving the great success of the year all over the Pacific Coast, from Alaska to San Diego.

Mrs. Porter's phenomenal progress as a woman manufacturer of Purity products had already made her name famous far and wide, so the new Puddings—Mrs. Porter's Fruit Pudding, Mrs. Porter's Fig Pudding and Mrs. Porter's Plum Pudding—are but adding to her reputation as a purveyor of delectable dainties.

Mrs. Porter's Salad Dressing (Without Oil) and Mrs. Porter's Mayonnaise (With Oil) were the first of her products to meet a most favorable reception from the public, and the San Francisco Exposition not long ago honored this Seattle woman with gold medals for the purity, excellence and flavor of all her products.

The Puddings are light, tasty desserts, good for Thanksgiving, and good for every day in the year; put up in convenient sized cans for the table, and ready at a moment's notice for the hurried meal, the unexpected guest and for the delight of the whole family.

Mrs. Porter's Fruit and Mrs. Porter's Fig Puddings are only 15 cents a can, two cans for 25 cents; large sized cans 25 cents each. The Plum Puddings are a little more expensive—but worth twice their cost. They are awaiting you at any grocer's. Be sure to order them!

Great Preparations at Butler Cafe
 Thanksgiving Dinner at Famous Hotel Will Be a Masterpiece in the Culinary Art

YOU who are seeking a truly delicious Thanksgiving dinner will be interested in the preparations at the Hotel Butler Cafe for a Thanksgiving dinner just a little bit more appetizing, satisfying and altogether gratifying than any dinner the famous chefs of the Butler ever prepared before.

Of course, there are many good cafes in Seattle, but there is something so distinctively good about the Butler's cookery, combined with exceptional service, that it is just the place for you and your family, your brother, your sister, your sweetheart to enjoy a Thanksgiving dinner fit for kings, without any of the home aftermath.

Turkeys destined for the Butler's Thanksgiving dinner are corn-fed birds, fattened to just the right turn, and will be browned to that perfection which is beyond the power of cold type to describe. The Thanksgiving menu, in fact, will be made up entirely of special dishes not to be found on ordinary bills of fare. One of these will be the cranberry sauce—such cranberry sauce as will be a revelation.

The hours for the Butler's special Thanksgiving dinner are from 5:15 to 9:15 Thursday evening, and after that will follow a menu of sea food dishes such as the Butler has made famous. Right at the head of the list will be broiled lobster that has come direct from Maine at the special order of Manager A. Chesbra Mitchell of the Butler.

And the beauty about the Butler's dinners is that they are so economical. An entire family may have at the Butler the finest Thanksgiving dinner in the land, and the outlay will probably not approach the cost of the home-cooked dinner, with all its extras and the labor it entails.

Enjoy the Butler's Thanksgiving dinner and make this Thanksgiving one long to be remembered.
