GILL RAPPED IN ERICKSON LETTER

Rival Candidate Puts S. E. Co. Brand on Mayor and Cites Ballard Case; Ridicules Gill's Talk About Low Taxes

Declaring that Mayor Gill is hand-in-glove with the Puget Sound Traction Co., the Chamber of Commerce and the subsidized press in the fight against municipal ownership, Councilman Oliver T. Erickson addressed an open letter to the public Friday.

He said that Gill's opposition to the extension of the municipal railway to Ballard, where it could be put on a paying basis, is not new. It is the same old thing, Erickson declared.

Some of our neighbors in the Duwamish valley have been persecuted by the Puget Sound Traction company for years. They came to us and asked for permission to petition our city light plant.

During my term in the council I have seen the progress of this company and its securities. There exists a kilowatt-hour rate of $10.00 a year. But that is not all, for the private company furnishes street lighting from 8 1/2 cents a kilowatt-hour to 10 cents.

What saving in indirect taxes has this company made? There exists a kilowatt-hour rate of $10.00 a year. But that is not all, for the private company furnishes street lighting from 8 1/2 cents a kilowatt-hour to 10 cents.

Some as Ballard Lighting But when that was voted down, to quote the mayor's exact language, "No good end is attained by rush-hour service which simply takes the business of the street car lines."

IT IS THE SAME SPIRIT AND TACTICS MANIFESTED WHEN HE WAS MAYOR BEFORE AND LIGHTING THE EXTENSION OF THE LIGHTING SYSTEM INTO BALLARD.

Seattle's water supply was pronounced safe for the time being by the water department Friday. Water reached the city thru the repaired pipe at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

But it will take 13 days to fill the reservoirs with the pipe line pouring a continuous stream into the city.
