"OLD BILL" LOSING OUT Sales Show Which Songs Are Favorite

Old Bill Bailey, known for some distance from his native Honolulu town, won a lot of fame from playing the ukulele around these parts, but his days of popularity are numbered. The sad news was current in Seattle music stores today. For weeks he has had the ladies, men and children nutty about him. This was proven by the sheet music and graphophone record sales. "When Old Bill Bailey Plays the Ukulele" has had to get out of the way for two new popular songs, "M-O-T-I-E-R" and "America, I Love You." That doesn't mean that he is down and out.

They still fall for Bill pretty strong. Both the new ones are ballads. Popular taste is fickle, tho. The music dealers say the ballads cut in ahead of the raggy music for a few weeks, and then a contagious synopation comes along that makes everybody forget the tender stuff. There is one true love that apparently doesn't have to worry. The public has been true to John McCormack's way of singing "I Hear You Calling Me" for a couple of years. And the love for Tchaikovsky's "Nut Cracker Suite" is getting bigger every day among the record collectors who enjoy charm and novelty in instrumentation. Last year Al Jolson introduced "When I Leave the World Behind," and its sales topped the list for many months. Now "A Little Bit of Heaven" is diluting the demand for the Jolson favorite.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"Pape's Diapiesin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour rising, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors. Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

GERMAN EDITORS ARE INDIGNANT

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 21.—Reports that the United States will not submit to the Teutonic decree of warfare upon armed merchantmen has caused indignation in Germany, according to advices today. The Cologne Gazette, a paper close to the German government, declared the Teutons will not curtail their right to sink armed ships because reckless neutrals insist upon traveling on belligerent vessels. Other papers were astonished at the Washington advices.

AGED COWBELL IS KEPT AS A RELIC

CONYERS, Ga., Feb. 21.—H. C. Penn has in his possession a cow bell found by him in Ben Carr bottom in the year 1856. The bell is of brass and, unlike most small bells now, is made of one solid piece of metal.

PEAGER'S IN TOWN

Miss Grace De Graff, Ford peace delegate from Portland, gave an address on "The Peace Ship" at a meeting of the College Women's club at the Washington Annex at luncheon Saturday.

Germany and U.S. in Deadlock

"Showdown" Must Come This Week on Warfare Tactics

SENATE TO GET BUSY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—A deadlock between Germany and America on the question of submarine warfare approached today.

Administration circles believed the issue over the Teutonic decree for unwarmed attacks on armed merchantmen will be outlined clearly this week.

State department officials privately admitted that an impasse will be reached if advices from United States Staff Correspondent Ackerman giving advance information of Germany's probable attitude are borne out.

These advices were that Germany had said her last word on the Lusitania case, and does not care to be too closely quizzed as to how she plans to carry out her armed merchantman decree. Senators Stone and Williams and several republicans plan to discuss the decree in the senate. Indications are that Berlin will see congress vigorously backing up the administration's opposition to the decree.

Officials think it will be several days before Von Bernstorff could receive Berlin's reply to Gerard's informal outline of America's opposition.

Secretary Lansing and Bernstorff's next meeting is expected to develop sharp discussion of Lansing's irritation over the embassy's improper "propaganda of recent negotiations."

LONDON NERVOUS OVER ENEMY ORDER

BOMBARD STEAMERS BERLIN, Feb. 21.—German aeroplanes in yesterday's raid against England bombarded two British tank steamers, the admiralty announced today.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—With Germany's proclamation of her intention to attack armed merchantmen without warning operative only nine days hence, newspapers today demanded that prompt steps be taken to combat this new campaign of "rightfulness."

Simultaneously they issued a warning that another air raid may follow that of yesterday against the east and southeast coasts, when three persons were killed and one wounded.

Paris reports of an attempted attack by a raider against the French liner Chicago increased the belief here that the Germans are planning spectacular demonstrations on the sea and in the air.

The raider involved in the Chicago incident may have been the same that captured the Appam. The Chicago escaped her near the Bay of Biscay.

'BATTLE CRY OF PEACE' AT REX

Preparedness Picture Packs Playhouse

Scene From "Hop, or, The Devil's Brew," at the American.

"The Battle Cry of Peace," now at the Rex theatre, J. Stuart Blackton's tremendous photoplay, depicting the horrors of war as it would be waged by an unscrupulous foe against the United States in its present defenseless condition, has received more editorial comment than any photoplay ever produced. Coming, as it does, right at the height of the preparedness agitation—by some it is even charged that the powder trust has inspired the play—it naturally evokes the greatest praise, as well as criticism.

TAKEN FOR A PRINCE

Combining romantic melodrama and some real comedy, John Barrymore does himself proud in "Nearly a King," at the Coliseum. He plays a dual role, that of a young Balkan prince and that of an adventurous young American who is mistaken for the prince. The Coliseum orchestra furnishes the music.

WAR AS IT MAY BE

War as it may be in 1921 is the theme of "The Flying Torpedo," at the Liberty theatre. An invasion of the United States is threatened. An old inventor perfects an aerial torpedo. Outlaws steal the plans, but enter detective, and terrific climax ensues.

LEARNS WHO'S WHO

Love's young dream was almost knocked out when Jack Nash and Ethel Wilson were informed that they had the same father. But that would be too cruel. So when Jack is 21, he reads the letter left him by his mother, and he learns he isn't Ethel's brother at all. Wedding then. It's the story of "From Out of the Past," at the Class A.

FIGHTING PREACHER

Lem Hardy (William Farnum) is sent to prison for another's theft. There he studies Bible. Out of prison, he takes up preaching. A fighter and a son of a long list of fighters, Lem makes good, even when it's necessary for the preacher to hit the town bully. He has been cheated out of the love he rightfully owned, but in the end he forgives. This is the story of "Fighting Blood," at the Clemmer.

SAVES HER SISTER

To avenge the death of a young brother, a victim of cocaine, and to save her sister, Lillian (Grace Elliott) seeks out Horace Ely's apartments. A struggle ensues. Ely is killed accidentally. Her hair is arrested. There are high spots in the play. He has been cheated out of the love he rightfully owned, but in the end he forgives. This is the story of "Fighting Blood," at the Clemmer.

CYCLE OF SOULS

Theron, Greek senator, an old man, is passionately in love with young Naida. She, however, loves Lucian. Theron, in revenge, has them both thrown into a crater. Centuries later, Theron, having sold his soul, is transformed into a lion. Naida is reincarnated as a daughter of an American millionaire. Lucian is a broker, her lover. An enemy conspires to kill Lucian with the lion. Naida's control over the animal saves Lucian and the lion devours the conspirator instead. Thus Theron's soul is again free for reincarnation as a human being. This is the story of "The Soul's Cycle," at the Colonial.

REAL MELODRAMA

In the old days, the gallery would have eaten it up alive, for the "Sons of Satan," at the Mission theatre, is truly a melodrama among melodramas. Secret walls, murder, arrest of innocent girl, secret panels, detaciffs, etc., etc., abound in the play.

FATTY AS JANITOR

Vandeville and Keystone comedy, entitled "Fatty and the Broadway Stars," comprise the bill at the Alhambra theatre. Fatty plays the role of a janitor, and what he doesn't do to some of Broadway's comedians isn't worth mentioning.

SHOWS COIN CROWD

Moving pictures of the crowd which jammed Cherry st., between Second and Third aves., to catch some of the coins in the $50 purse which Eugene Levy, owner of the Hippodrome, threw away Saturday afternoon, will be shown at that theatre until Tuesday night. There are about 6,000 people in the scene.

CALL IT POLICE PLOT

Local anarchists charge the Chicago police with making the poison soup banquet plot appear as an anarchist move. In a meeting here, they scoffed at the idea of a national anti-clerical and anti-social conspiracy.

THIS IS A NEW IDEA

TOLEDO, O., Feb. 21.—Asked if she had a motive for attempting to commit suicide with poison, Irene Lane, 29, told the doctor: "No, I took it for the exercise."

WANT SHORT SKIRTS

SANDUSKY, O., Feb. 21.—Girls in candy stores, restaurants and post card shops threaten to strike unless permitted to wear shorter skirts.

ELEPHANT GOES ON A JOY PARTY

MILLBRAE, Cal., Feb. 21.—Millbrae had not quite returned to its normal quietude today, after the wildest Sabbath in its career. It was not that Millbrae wanted to be wild, but "Texas," an ancient circus elephant, so decreed it.

Tiring of the humdrum existence of being a trick animal with a small circus, "Texas" went on a rampage, and, among other things, did the following stunts:

Shook up and badly scared Frank Adams, Jr., son of the circus proprietor.

Blocked trolley traffic by planting his frayed carcass in the middle of the track—and refusing to be budged.

Left the trenches for a drive against watching autoists.

Charged Miss Frances Doubleday and her brother George.

Calmly helped himself to vegetables in several gardens.

Amble peacefully back to circus headquarters.

RUSSIANS SPLIT TURKISH FRONT

PETROGRAD, Feb. 21.—The Turkish front has been cut in two places, and three corps have been separated by the rapid Russian drive westward, following the Erzerum victory.

One corps, forming the left wing, is returning on Trebizond. The 11th corps, trying to reach Erzingen, is harassed and floundering in the snows west of Erzerum.

The third corps, forming the right wing, has been isolated. It is in disorderly retreat.

This Invention for Rupture Sent On 60 Days Trial

Won't Cost You a Cent if the Two Months' Test Doesn't Prove All Our Claims

Why With Worthless Trusses Like These

You can make a thorough prove-it-to-you test of this guaranteed rupture holder without having to risk a single cent. We'll send it to you for 60 days' trial—practically lend it to you that long—just to let you see for yourself how it takes all the misery out of being ruptured.

If it doesn't keep your rupture from coming out or bothering you in any way—in spite of any work you do or any other strains—then it won't cost you a penny.

The Only Thing Good Enough To Stand Such A Test

A mere truss—like at a drug store—can't possibly prove whether a truss or anything else for rupture is going to do any good.

Neither is just a few days' trial a safe test. A truss may seem all right the first week or so, and then prove utterly worthless.

as a broken bone can't "knit" unless constantly held together.

And that is the curse of wearing elastic or spring trusses—not one in twenty ever holds successfully—they sooner or later make operation absolutely necessary instead of preventing it.

But remember, the Clute is guaranteed to hold—and it won't cost you a cent if it doesn't. And in addition, it provides the only way discovered for overcoming the weakness which is the real cause of rupture.

It does that entirely automatically—without any attention whatever from you. And has thus brought complete recovery in thousands of cases that seemed almost hopeless, and has saved thousands of people from having to risk their life under the surgeon's knife.
