War Makes New York World's Richest City; And the Money's Being Spent on Its Women

BY IDAH McGLONE GIBSON
NEW YORK, April 14.—Feminine beauty is the one thing New York worships more than money!
Feminine beauty is the thing New York spends the most for! That gorgeous woman who neither toils nor spins, getting out of her limousine in front of Sherry's, has made countless men toil and numberless women spin to bring her appearance up to the perfection you are beholding.
Is she worth the price?
NEW YORK THINKS SO!
New York women buy a million dollars' worth of powders and creams every year," I was told by a wholesale druggist.

600 VISIT BATH DAILY
"We have as many as 600 women a day as patrons," said the manager of the largest Turkish bath in the city, where you can spend all the way from $2.50 to $50 at each visit.
"I can't tell how many customers we have in our beauty parlors," remarked a Fifth ave. hair dresser, "but we average 50 heads a day for the permanent hair wave."
This permanent wave costs from $25 to $50, and, instead of being permanent, must be renewed every six months.

EYEBROWS EXPENSIVE
"The mere keeping of beauties' eyelashes and eyebrows in perfect shape," the beauty expert continued, "costs at least $50 a year for each woman."
Beauties' shoes have become an enormous drain on the pocket-book of the man-who-must-pay.
One actress, the wife of a popular manager, showed me one side of her closet—or "costume room" as she calls it—lined with shelves, on which I counted 200 pairs of shoes and slippers costing from $12.50 to $100 a pair.
She also showed me a chest of drawers containing 300 pairs of Where New York women preen: Turkish bath palaces in marble are springing up all over Manhattan and in their appointments are of Babylonian luxury. Here a bath "with beauty extras" may cost as high as $50.

INDIANOLA BEACH
The Gem of Puget Sound

What's a Summer Home Without a Bathing Beach?

The things that lure you out of town during the hot months can be summed up in two short words—Woods and Water. Indianola Beach offers you both.

Indianola Beach is so called because fronting this choice property stretches the very finest Bathing Beach on all Puget Sound. The new wharf is 991 feet in length and along this entire distance it spans a beach that is all hard, clean, blue-gray sand, unmarred by pebbles, rocks or seaweed. This beach alone is an asset, the value of which cannot be overestimated.

wooded country as you can find in the Northwest. Indianola Beach property slopes gently, bowl shaped, toward stream and Sound, the stream cutting the tract in twain. The land is covered with stately cedars and firs and spreading maples and madroenas. Then there is a wealth of smaller growth—wild cherry, alder and huckleberry. Mingled with it all are thousands of trillium lilies, wild currant bloom, choice ferns and many others, almost without end.

Large Home Tracts
$40
$5 Cash
$2 Monthly
The first passenger boat to land at Indianola Beach wharf was the Steamer Athlon—time, last Sunday. The Athlon is no speed marvel, so it required almost 50 minutes to make the run from Pier 4 (Captain's statement).

Indianola Beach is new—so new that there are no inhabitants aside from three families, the heads of which are members of the crews we employ in clearing streets, building bridges, erecting a dam, laying a water system and making ready for the coming population.
And the population is coming. The first week's selling convinces us that Indianola Beach will be Seattle's favorite breathing spot before the summer is very old. With the advent of continued good weather, charming little bungalows and rustic homes will spring up in plenty. We make this statement advisedly, for early buyers are already placing orders for lumber—getting an early start for the joys of summer.
WE WANT YOU TO INSPECT OTHER OFFERINGS BEFORE YOU BUY AT INDIANOLA BEACH. See Indianola Beach first or see it last, but once you do see it is where you will pitch your summer camp. We are sure of it. Early buyers at other points have recognized the vast superiority of Indianola

Beach and have joined our list of enthusiastic home-site owners regardless of their previous purchases. You will fall in love with it, too.
All tracts are large, none less than 40 feet frontage. Prices as low as $40.00, on terms as easy as $5.00 cash and $2.00 monthly. We'll build for you, too, on equally easy terms. Arrange to see the property Sunday. Bring your family and your picnic basket. You'll enjoy the outing whether or not you decide to buy. But be sure to see Indianola Beach. If you do make a selection you have two full months in which to prepare your tract for the reception of your family before the school vacation.
There is daily boat service to Indianola Beach leaving Lillooet Landing, between Madison and Spring sts., weekdays at 9 a. m., Sunday 8:45. Weekdays, leave Indianola Beach 3 p. m.; Sundays, 4 p. m. In addition to this, arrangements have been perfected for morning and evening service to accommodate Indianola Beach residents who work in Seattle, beginning May 1.

Confessions of a Wife

"OUT OF THE SILENCE FROM ACROSS THE DISTANCE"
My foreign letter began very formally:
"My Dear Mrs. Waverly:
"A friend in _____ has written me of your accident and I am going to think you will not call me presumptuous" in writing to tell how sorry I am.
"As I sit here on the deck of the Undine, I seem to see you as I saw you last in that pale green gown, and your face, with its smiling mouth, above the pearl and emerald embroidery on the low-cut bodice, alight with pleasure of the dance. You reminded me of the mythical maiden for whom my yacht is named, but I soon found you had a soul, that hid itself behind the veil of your burnished brown eyes.
"Please do not think I am writing this in any vein of flattery or extravagant compliment. How your soul must write! I simply cannot bear to think of it."
"Perhaps, my dear Mrs. Waverly, I am overstepping the bounds of convention in writing you in this way, and I surely would have never done so had you not had this terrible thing happen to you; but I have often wondered if it would not be better all around if sometimes we did say what we think to those who seem in unison with us.
"Anyway, I am way out here on the Indian ocean where convention seems to mean very little. I have been thinking that perhaps the little jade god I sent you for good luck had brought you bad luck instead. For my peace of mind I put into a town the other day and asked a 'wise man' about it.
"I confessed to him that I also bought one for myself, and that one night, in a fit of loneliness, I threw it into the sea.
"That is it," said the fakir solemnly. "The little jade god that the woman-over-the-water has is wreaking vengeance for the insult you paid to his brother."
"A shudder passed over me and I had a silly feeling that perhaps it was true.
"What shall I do?" I asked, to counteract this direful state of affairs?
"You must tell the woman-across-the-sea that she must also throw her little jade god away in running water. In the course of a million years they will find each other."
"Do you mean to tell me that she will not be happy for a million years?"
"That lies on the laps of the gods," he answered.
"I am sending you another lucky piece.
"I do not know when I shall come home. How queer that word sounds to me. I have never had anything the least like home, except this yacht.
"I am not going to tell you where I shall be at any time, for I do not know myself. But some time, from across the distance of the earth, I shall perhaps write you a word.
"Surely you cannot object to that, but I am so afraid you might do so that I am foregoing the joy of a letter from you, even if that

Cocoon Oil Fine for Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.
Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain multified cocoon oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.
Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.
You can get multified cocoon oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advertisement.
