FIRST VIOLENCE OCCURS IN ALASKA RAILROAD STRIKE

By Cable to The Star. ANCHORAGE, Alaska, April 25.—The first violence in the strike of employees of the government railroad occurred this morning, when George Baker, a member of the strike committee, was attacked by a carpenter, whom he had asked to leave his work, with a saw. The tendons of his right wrist were severed. Deputy Marshal Anderson arrested Baker. A warrant for his assault was issued later. Considerable disquiet has resulted from the news that Company A of the 14th infantry has been ordered here from Valdez to keep order. The troops are due to leave Valdez Wednesday for Seward. The work of the Alaska railroad commission seems to be practically tied up by the strike. Longshoremen have agreed to handle all express and mail free, but will touch no freight until the strike is settled. The Admiral Farragut is due here today. Agents of the railroad commission are offering the union scale, and double the regular wage, for men to discharge her cargo. They announce they will handle the freight if Lieut. Frederick Mears himself has to push a truck. Mears is chairman of the railroad commission. The union organized recently by railroad workers reports all men are out, together with surveyors on the main line to the south, all laborers, cooks and waiters. The mess house, closed Sunday, was reopened today with women cooks. Only part of the engineers, switchmen, carpenters and mechanics are working. Some of these say they have no reason to strike, as their pay has been raised.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. Don't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and fool-proof. It is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Advertisement.

GIRLS AND SEA LIONS IN PANTAGES TANK

Five sea lions and two pretty diving girls who do hazardous stunts in a big glass tank filled with water are the hit of a good bill this week at Pantages theatre. "The Prune Center Cut-Ups," Dan Roach and James McCurdy, lead the comedy department in an uproarious burlesque, songs and conversation. Clinton and Rooney, a man and girl, give a clever singing and dancing skit. Popular and classical music is ably sung by the Six Serenaders, four pretty girls and two men. Richard Wally and company have a unique act—juggling and fancy billiards.

BILLINGSLEY AGAIN

Fred Billingsley, one of the proprietors of the Stewart Street pharmacy, 109 Stewart st., and Varo Marit are under arrest Tuesday, charged with violating the dry law. An auto in which they were riding was stopped by Patrolman Peterson and found to contain a demijohn of whisky Monday night.

MOVIES!

Wm. Farnum Tells How He Keeps Himself Physically Fit for His Rough Life as a Screen Actor.

PROGRAMS STRAND—"The Bondman," Fox film feature, with Wm. Farnum. REX—Charlie Chaplin in burlesque on "Carmen." LIBERTY—"Civilization's Child," Triangle drama; "A Bathhouse Blunder," Keystone comedy. COLISEUM—"The Eternal Grind," with Mary Pickford, a comedy; the Paramount telegraph. ALHAMBRA—"The Bruiser," five-part drama, with Wm. J. Russell. CLEMENS—"Sunday in the Park with George," comedy. MISSION—"Excuse Me," comedy. CLASS A—Leah Hadley in a Vitagraph comedy-drama; "Ham and Bud," comedy; "A Record Run," feature drama. COLONIAL—"The Net," Mutual Masterpiece.

Manager Hamrick of the Rex has gone on a business trip to San Francisco, but Charlie Chaplin and Edna Purviance continue to pack the folks in this week with their burlesque on "Carmen," despite John's absence.

One wonders how William Farnum, starring in "The Bondman," the wonderful Fox drama at the Strand, keeps himself fit for the strenuous parts in which he is invariably cast.

An interviewer who had seen the wrestling scene from "The Bondman," "made" in the studio and who knew that Farnum had actually bested a professional wrestler in the bout once asked him about this. "Getting up at 5 a. m., taking a cold plunge, eating carefully, keeping early hours, and, above all, by hard work," was the actor's reply.

Mary Pickford, the half-million dollar star, who makes as much in two or three months as President Wilson does in a year, holds Coliseum audiences this week in the hollow of her small and shapely hand. Her vehicle is "The Eternal Grind." It shows how Mary progresses from a sweatshop girl to a matron of Fifth ave., and lets the sunlight into the lives of a lot of toilers, too. The picture stays thru Saturday.

The fast-spreading theory that criminals may be redeemed by proper environment, while incarcerated, and uplifted by better surroundings once their term has expired, has been made, in a measure, the topic of a photoplay at the Oak theatre, Second and Seneca. "The Great Problem" is the title. Violet Mersereau is the star.

"Excuse Me," comedy of berths and mirths, in five sections, by Rupert Hughes, has played to bigger houses than any picture that the Mission has presented since the opening.

On approaching the box office, one is immediately transferred into a Pullman sleeping car. The atmosphere of the theatre in every respect is in keeping with the comedy itself. The cashier is dressed in a porter's uniform. The film closes Wednesday night.

William F. Russell ("Big Bill"), star of "The Bruiser," which is now playing at the Alhambra, is one of the most proficient of prize fighting boys he easily could have been one of the leading pugilists had he chosen a ring career instead of the silent drama.

The most realistic fistie encounter ever seen in a film production takes place in this feature between Russell and Al Kauffman.

"A Bathhouse Blunder," with an all-star cast of Keystoneers, is getting lots of laughs at the Liberty.

"Madame X" will soon be presented in Seattle. Miss Donnelly's magnificent interpretation on the stage of the woman who drifted in search of love has been duplicated on the screen.

Cynthia Grey's LETTERS

Q—I am a girl 12 years old, living in the country with my parents. I have not gone to school this winter, because it was too far to walk. I have to wash dishes and do part of the sweeping and other work. I am not allowed any spending money. If any one gives me any, it is put away. What shall I do? I can't stand it much longer. VERA.

A—You should be glad you can learn housework under such favorable circumstances. Undoubtedly another year your parents will send you to school. As for the money, probably they think best to save it for you. Any way, a girl who does not walk to school would have very little opportunity to spend money.

Q—For how long may a boy or girl be committed to an institution by the juvenile court? B. M.

A—When any child under the age of 18 comes under the custody of the court, he continues for all purposes of discipline and correction a ward of the court until he is 21. At that age, the sentence automatically ends.

Q—Can you enlighten me as to what is best to use in the case of a scrawny neck? A. B. C.

A—Cold cream liberally rubbed it at night will build up and soften your neck. Try bending head forward, backward and sideways as far as possible, and roll the head in a semi-circle. Practice the exercise 10 minutes night and morning. Do not experiment if there is any tendency to gotter.

Q—Please publish the peace strength of the armies of Germany and Russia. A.—Germany, 880,600; Russia, 1,384,000.

Q—Why is it that Easter comes on different Sundays of different dates when it is said the Lord arose on one day? CURIOSUS.

Ricoro Cigars are the Pride of the Famous Cigar Makers of Porto Rico

Nowhere in the world—not even in Havana—is more skillful work done on cigars than in the Ricoro factory at San Juan. Senor Luis Toro, President of the Company, himself a master of the art, picks the native Spaniards for the work as a great hotel picks its cooks.

The RICORO Cigar (Invincible Size) 7 cts. each or by the box of 50, $3.50 is an example of what these wonderfully gifted cigar makers can accomplish working with Porto Rican tobacco, planted, cultivated, ripened and cured in fields where every condition prevails that favors tobacco growing on any island of the West Indies.

The RICORO Cigar is imported FREE OF DUTY.

The one difference between Porto Rican and Cuban tobacco is the delicate mildness of the former, due to its cultivation on high altitudes, under shade (as shown in the illustration above.)

TODAY'S BEAUTY HELP

You can keep your hair at its very best by washing it with this simple, inexpensive shampoo, which cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all the dandruff and dirt and leaves a clean, wholesome feeling. Just use a teaspoonful of canthox dissolved in a cup of hot water, afterwards rinsing thoroughly with clean water. One finds even, is unstreaked, bright, soft and fluffy, so fluffy in fact that it looks more abundant than it is, and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure. All scalp irritation will disappear and the hair will be brighter than ever before.—Advertisement.
