

A Married Man's Troubles

By Allman

JUST BETWEEN OURSELVES

BY THE SPORTS EDITOR

IN THE first fourteen games last year, Tyrus Raymond (Cobb, of Detroit), hung up this record:

A. B.	R.	H.	S. B.	Average
46	17	18	8	.391

In fourteen games this spring, the Georgia phantom has accomplished the following:

A. B.	R.	H.	S. B.	Average

These figures may not mean much regarding Cobb's ability. They show at least that he is slower in reaching to form this spring than he was in 1915.

Cobb never looked better than he did at the start of last season's campaign. He set himself to the task of hanging up a new base-stealing record, and went out after it from the clasp of the first base. He fell just short of that mark, purloining 45.

The only Ty who reached the age of 35. He has undoubtedly decided to conserve his energy a bit for the years that lie before. Last season probably saw his last effort at setting base-stealing records. In such feats do more to hurt up a man's vitality than anything else.

Cobb's slow start this spring does not mean that he is slipping. It means merely that he has decided on a policy of conservation of energy.

The great pitcher had just shut out the hardest hitting team in his league. "He's the poetry of motion," shouted an excited fan. "Yes," said his friend, "sort of blank verse."

Baseball is threatened by a reign of divine right umpires. The car of all the Russias does not possess the dictatorial powers assumed by the knights of the whiplash and indicator on Northwestern league diamonds of late.

It is necessary that the umpire have the power to fine and send out of the game or to the bench. He should use a little judgment in the exercise of his authority, however.

A ball player should be allowed a little leeway on questioning decisions. So long as he is always ready to be dealt with harshly.

A rule kicking is good for the game. It shows that the players' hearts are in their work. The fans like it. It has always been a part of baseball.

CHARLEY SCHMUTZ AGAIN VICTOR, 8 TO 2

BY EDWARD HILL

Have the Giants started, is it merely a flash or just the sample of the way they will go later this season?

That's the question the fans are buzzing today, following the artistic and awful drubbing chalked up against Russ Hall's Tacoma aggregation. The final score was 8 to 2.

Adonis Charley Schmutz served the twisters for our side, while Rock was sent to the mound at the first bell for the "Destined Cityites." He was rocked with agony by a fusillade of base hits and retired to the shower bath in the third, and by the time the game was over he was resting in the Busch hotel lobby prepared to scamper to cover when Wrathful Russ showed up.

WOLFER BECOMES TACOMA TIGER

The Wolfer, the lad who was busting the ball all over the lot in spring practice at Spokane, landed in town yesterday in time to do some of the work of a job. Wolfer was crowded out of the Spokane outer breastworks when Ken Williams put in appearance. He has more of a reputation as a hitter than Finfgold, hence Hall grabbed him.

CHARLEY SCHMUTZ WINS FOURTH

Yesterday's victory was the fourth that Charley Schmutz has twisted the Giants into since the opening of the season. Right now Charley looks like the best bet on the Seattle pitching staff. Bill Rose will be on the hill today, while the much-touted Herb Manouk will be trotted out for inspection Saturday.

CUNNINGHAM ON JOB AGAIN

Bill Cunningham broke back into the game via a couple of safe cracks yesterday. Bill was benched to give Lyle Bigbee a chance to show his wares. Lyle is back in the game now, while Lyle is looking for a soft spot to light in. Manager Raymond is hoping that Bill has found himself and will continue to smite the old acorn.

VANCOUVER BEATS INDIANS OUT

Bob Brown stole a march on Nick Williams when he signed up Pitcher Ad Machold, late of the San Francisco Seals. Williams needed pitchers and thought he was going to get Ad until Brown announced he had him signed. Luke Glavenich, who was released by the Giants, has written Spokane for a job. He will most likely land it.

MANOUK TO PITCH THIS WEEK

While Herb Manouk pitched several nifty games for the Giants during the training season, he has almost been forgotten by the fans. The reason is that Tealey has not been using him in. He hasn't pitched since the season opened. Tealey says he knew Herb had the goods and kept him out in order to get a better line on Glavenich.

REUTHER CHANGED HIS NAME

Newton Colver, the Spokane scribe, tells us that when the Indians visited Vancouver recently "Dutch" Reuther changed his nickname to "Scotty." He wasn't taking any chances on being interned. "Dutch" Schroeder, the pitcher who tried out with Tacoma, was requested to leave the country last year on account of the Teutonic sound of his name.

JOE MCGINNITY SPEAKS UP

The boss of the Buttes, Joe McGinnity, is bewailing the fact that pitchers nowadays are just pitchers and nothing more.

"Oh, for the good old days when a slab artist could take his fling at any position on the team and get away with it," squawks Joseph.

ALTMAN JOINS BUTTE TEAM

"Dutch" Altman is certainly wearing enough different uniforms this year. He started the season with Spokane, caught a few games and was released. Vancouver signed him and furnished him a couple of meals and then cast him adrift. Now word comes from Spokane that he has joined Butte.

GET AWAY TO GET NEWS

There is a saying that you have to go away from home to get the news. Quite true!

We are told in a Spokane paper that "Skipper" Roberts has been catching such good ball for Tacoma that Bartholomy was forced to the bench. "Skip" has been catching good ball, but Bartholomy watched the games with his finger done up in a sling. We noticed he was back in the lineup yesterday.

REICH EASY, SAYS FULTON

Al Reich is not hard to box, according to Fred Fulton, who knocked him out in nine rounds recently.

MANY ENTRIES IN BOWLING TOURNAMENT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—Many of the best bowlers of Western America are entered in the tournament of the Pacific Coast Bowlers' Telegraph association, which starts next Monday. The scores on the widely separated alleys will be exchanged by telegraph. Mayor Rolph of San Francisco is president of the association. Following are the entries:

Oregon Alleys, Portland; Portland Alleys, Portland, Ore.; Vancouver, Lacrosse club, Vancouver, B. C.; Grand Central, Los Angeles; Cascades, Sacramento; Ogden, Ogden, Utah; Laramie, Laramie, Wyo.; Pendletons, Pendleton, Ore.; Astorians, Astoria, Ore.; Butte Grill, Butte, Mont.; Mindro Grill, Butte, Mont.; Recreations, Boise, Idaho; Formans, San Jose; Duckarts, Modesto; Woodlands, Woodland; Beavers, Corvallis, Ore.; Home Plates, Boise, Idaho, and many San Francisco teams.

BONEHEAD BARRY DOOMED

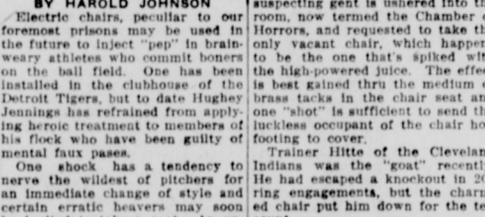

Tigers Who Commit Mental Miscues Face Electric Chair—in Clubhouse

BY HAROLD JOHNSON

Electric chairs, peculiar to our foremost prisons may be used in the future to inject "pep" in brain-weary athletes who commit boners on the ball field. One has been installed in the clubhouse of the Detroit Tigers, but to date Hughie Jennings has refrained from applying heroic treatment to members of his flock who have been guilty of mental fiascos.

One shock has a tendency to nerve the wildest of pitchers for an immediate change of style and certain erratic heavers may soon be invited to take a seat. An unsuspecting gent is ushered into the room, now termed the Chamber of Horrors, and requested to take the only vacant chair, which happens to be the one that's spiked with the high-powered juice. The effect is best gained thru the medium of brass tacks in the chair seat and one "shot" is sufficient to send the luckless occupant of the chair hot-footing to cover.

Trainer Hitt of the Cleveland Indians was the "goat" recently. He had escaped a knockout in 200 ring engagements, but the charming chair put him down for the tenth time.

CLASSY FIELD OF NAGS TO RACE AT BIG DERBY

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 12.—The classiest field the Kentucky Derby has brought together in many years will go to the post tomorrow when the classic is run at historic Churchill Downs.

Because of war conditions abroad, many of the greatest thoroughbreds in England have been shipped to the U. S. recently and a number have been nominated for the stake. Because of the class of the field, it is anticipated that such a crowd as the derby has never before drawn together will attend. Thousands of persons who ordinarily would not be able to witness such an event will be present tomorrow because of the action of the club in continuing free admittance to the infield for this one race. Some estimate that more than 50,000 persons will be on hand when the barrier goes up.

The race is for 3-year-olds, and the distance one and a quarter miles.

WILL HISTORY REPEAT FOR CONNIE?

Ten years ago this spring Eddie Collins left Columbia University to join the Philadelphia Athletics. Now history may repeat itself if Bob Watt, captain of the Columbia varsity nine signs a Mackian contract—and make good as did Collins.

Watt wants to play for Columbia until his college career ends next month. Collins and Watt, both captained Columbia. The former was shortstop, while Watt is playing second base. Collins went to the Athletics to replace Danny Murphy; Watt is needed to understudy Lajoie. In 20 games last season Watt batted .389 and fielded 1000. He is going at the same gait this spring.

Jim Thorpe is making good in Milwaukee. The Old Boy is right at home there.

Wilbert Robinson hasn't played actively for more than a decade, but he's the greatest ground coverer in the National league—when he sits down.

The baseball shark who picked the Giants to finish one-two neglected to specify in which season.

To the casual observer it would appear as if the American league race this season is composed of seven clubs and the Athletics.

Shorter, the Red Sox's new outfielder, has cut some nifty capers since opening day. He is especially long on hitting.

DILLON MATCHED WITH F. MORAN

NEW YORK, May 12.—Sam Murriner, manager of Jack Dillon, declared today that his protegee had been matched for a ten-round bout with Frank Moran in Brooklyn June 8. According to Murriner, Dillon will receive $10,000 for his share of Moran $20,000.

CLERKS HOLD MEETS ON ROOF OF STORE

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—Slightly employed of the John Wamsaker company, operating one of the largest department stores in the world, will do their meeting hereafter on the roof of the massive store building here. A reputation sprouting track has been laid out and the athletes stage races during the noon hour and after the day's work is done.

NET CHAMPION FINDS GYM AID

William M. Johnston, national tennis champion in singles and doubles has sprung an innovation in training. Hard on the heels of discouraging reports from California concerning his indifferent play, comes word that Johnston recently asked Frank Foster, coach of the Olympic A. C. of Frisco, to devise a system of indoor gymnastics and outdoor running that would be beneficial in speeding up for tennis.

Foster has worked out the plan on a graduated income basis, the income being better and better condition for the champion. In addition to his court ability, Johnston is a corking runner.

GIDDINGS AND SELLS JOIN GIANTS TODAY

"Bun" Giddings, first baseman released by Vancouver, and Sells, former Butte infielder, will be out in Giant livery today, according to Manager Raymond.

While satisfied with Charley Brook's work at the first stopping place Tealey said he had reports that Gidding was a good man and that he intended looking him over at any rate.

ED WALSH TO GET PLACE AS UMPIRE

CHICAGO, May 12.—Big Ed Walsh, one-time king of spitball pitchers, is to try his hand at umpiring, according to a report emanating from White Sox headquarters. President Comiskey will try to place his fasted star as arbiter in a minor league with an American league berth as the ultimate goal.

Walsh has been of little assistance to the Hose since 1912, when his arm cracked under a long strain.

A recent membership campaign held by the Spokane Athletic club netted 125 members.

JAPANESE SEE POLO PLAYED

Polo is fast gaining a hold on the Japanese. Several American and Canadian teams, which competed in the polo carnival at Manila, have arrived in Japan and are playing exhibition games, and this sport bids fair to become as prominent a fixture in Nippon pastimes as baseball, tennis and association football. The speed and dash of the game have made a big hit with some of the wealthy Japanese sportsmen and the formation of two or three fours for a series of practice games is expected in the near future.

SEATTLE MITT MEN BOX IN SOUTH

Dan Salt and Joe Harrahan departed for Portland this morning. The local featherweight, who has been making quite a showing of late, takes on Joe Farrell at the Hippodrome club in the Rose City tonight.

This affair is the semi-windup to the bout between Frank Barrieau and Billy Wright. Eddie Shannon, another Seattle mitt slinger meets Walter Knowlton, former Pacific Coast amateur champion, on the same bill.

Barney Williams, the Eastern featherweight, knocked out Young Holland in the fourth round last night at the Hebrew Young Men's smoker. Andy Duval beat H. Gardner and Al Mosler and "Spider Abe" went to a four-round draw.

While in Portland Dan Salt will endeavor to sign Al Sommers or Valley Trambitas up for a bout with a local middleweight, possibly Steve Reynolds.

Jimmy Britt is over in "Lunnon" and when he is not doing a song and dance before the footlights he is instructing soldiers how to defend themselves via the manly art.
