SEATTLE SEES BIG CIRCUS PARADE

Three of the performers in the John Robinson circus, in Seattle today and Tuesday.

With four long train loads of circus in town Monday and Tuesday, these are the happy days for Seattle kid-dom.
A parade wound thru the streets to the music of six brass bands this morning, with its fierce looking wild beasts, its clowns and its glamor, and the first performance of the John Robinson Combined Shows was "off" at 2 o'clock. The doors opened at 1 o'clock. Armies of kids stormed the circusers as the big wagons rolled up to the show grounds at Fourth ave. and Lenora st. early Sunday.
Throughout the day open-mouthed youngsters stood watching the "white tops" go up until 22 tents had arisen in circus city.
Circus city has a population of 900 people. It takes two hours to feed them all.
The John Robinson Combined Shows will give three more performances—tonight, Tuesday afternoon and Tuesday night.
Reserved seats are on sale downtown at Ellers music store.

BRANDIES TAKES OATH OF OFFICE

First Jewish Justice Sworn In as Member of Supreme Court

RELATIVES PRESENT

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Louis D. Brandeis, the first Jew to sit on the U. S. supreme court bench, took the oath of office at noon today.

A distinguished assemblage of public men, including members of both houses of congress, witnessed the administration of the oath.
The ceremony took place immediately after the justices, in full robes, filed into the court chamber to hand down their regular Monday decisions.

The oath of obedience to the constitution was administered by Chief Justice White in the robing room, in the presence of all the members of the court.

On filing into the court chamber Brandeis' readiness to take the oath of the court was announced by the chief justice.
His commission was read by Clerk Jas. D. Maha, after which Justice White administered the oath. Brandeis' response was:

"I, Louis D. Brandeis, do solemnly swear, that I will administer justice without respect to persons, and do equal right to the poor and to the rich; that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent on me as associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, according to the best of my ability and understanding."

The marshal escorted Justice Brandeis to his seat at the extreme left of the chief justice.

Members of the court bowed as he passed and, according to custom, Justice Pitney, of New Jersey, his seat-mate, shook hands with his new colleague.

Among those present were the wife and daughter of the justice, Miss Pauline Goldmark, a sister-in-law; Alfred Brandeis, of Louisville, Ky.; a brother; Geo. Anderson, U. S. district attorney at Boston, and Chas. P. Hall, of Boston.

HEY, KIDS! LOOK WHAT'S COMING

On the theory that summer vacations give the school boy opportunity to turn street gamin, School Supt. Frank B. Cooper says he favors a plan to keep the schools going the year around.

This summer vacation may be the last, he declares.

He is backed in his opinion that summer vacations are detrimental by Dr. P. P. Claxton, federal commissioner of education, and others. The legislature probably will be asked to repeal the law compelling vacations.

PROHIBITION SLOWS UP CRIME

Owing to but one felony prosecution being on the criminal docket at this time, no July jury will be necessary in superior court.

Poseucator Lundin attributes the lack of crime to the prohibition law. The single prosecution is that of W. H. Englehart, charged with manslaughter, set for trial June 22.

GERMANS MUST NOT EAT MEAT!

New Minister of Foods Orders National Fast for Eight Weeks

HE EXPLAINS DECISION

NOTE—The following exclusive interview with Herr Von Batocki, Germany's new food dictator, obtained by a United Press correspondent at Berlin, is believed to be the first interview granted by Batocki since he was appointed to office. It is a remarkably frank discussion of Germany's food problems. It is not only a study in itself, but it was delayed several days in transmission, evidently having been held up by the censor and given careful consideration.

BY CARL W. ACKERMAN
U. P. Staff Correspondent
BERLIN, via Wireless to Bayville, May 27.—(Delayed.)—

Civilians in Germany must eat no meat for the next eight weeks, Herr Adolph Batocki, Germany's new food "dictator," now holding one of the most important posts in the empire, told the United Press today, in a frank discussion of the food situation in which he found it on assuming office last week.

This regulation, the new food minister said, should cause no alarm in Germany and no elation in the camps of the allies.

"If the coming harvest is only medium," he said, "the starvation of Germany thru the British blockade is out of the question."

"The siege of Germany," he said, "has just begun. The coming eight weeks may cause some discomfort to those Germans who are fond of meat. Furthermore, the meat shortage is apt to continue for at least three months, he declared.

"The cattle are lean now, because of a poor harvest in 1915," he said. "They cannot be slaughtered now. We must wait until they are fattened on pasture. But meanwhile we have enough meat for our military supplies and places where it is needed."

"At all events, there is enough food in Germany. It is only necessary that civilians eat no meat for the next eight weeks."

"Starvation is out of the question, but we must consider the situation during the coming winter."

"In order to insure a supply we must eat meat sparingly during the summer."

He Must Provide Food
Herr Von Batocki's job is to take the stranglehold out of the British blockade.

He must prevent the starvation of Germany by her enemies.

He must provide equitable distribution of the food supplies.

Next Saturday, representatives of the larger German cities will come to Berlin for a conference at which arrangements will be made for the establishment of food depots, where cooked food will be sold at cost.

GIVES IT RIGHT BACK

J. Willis Sayre, newspaper man and author of the moving picture and vaudeville acts produced in "The Spring Drive" society show, given at the Moore theatre recently, got a check for $575 for his work.

But the profits of the show were to be given toward building a workshop for the blind, so he returned the check.

Honest, he did!
A newspaper man, too!
