Been "Going It" Too Hard?

Lots of folks who are tired, cross, nervous, rheumatic and achy, are showing all the signs of early kidney trouble without realizing it.
This condition is too often the result of our great American fault of making one continual rush of everything, whether work or pleasure, without taking enough rest, fresh air, exercise or sleep.

We tear down faster than Nature can rebuild. It weakens the kidneys.

An early attack of kidney trouble isn't hard to get rid of, usually. Just give the body and nerves a rest and help the kidneys get stronger. Try Doan's Kidney Pills. They have helped thousands of kidney sufferers, many of them your own friends and neighbors.
But don't delay, for chronic kidney disease is dangerous.

Read this Seattle case:

Seattle Testimony
Thomas Christie, 411 W. Republican St., says: "A sudden change from a hot to cold temperature affected my back. My back was mighty painful, although I managed to keep at my work. Every time I stooped, however, it took quite a while to straighten. The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions were unnatural. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I have remained free from kidney trouble ever since."

LIBERTY
Frank Keenan, the star of "The Stepping Stone," "The Phantom," "The Coward," and others, is to be seen at the Liberty until Wednesday night in his greatest success, "The Thoroughbred," a five-part Triangle production. "The Thoroughbred" sets a rapid pace. Its vivid situations and climaxes are replete with power and surprises.
The story concerns the activities of a New England minister in the blue grass country of Kentucky, where he starts a militant campaign against the evil of race track gambling.

COLISEUM
Fanny Ward and Charles Clary will be seen at the Coliseum in "Each Pearl a Tear" on Tuesday night and all day Wednesday for the good-by times. The film is one of extraordinary strength, and Fanny puts her whole soul into tearing the leading role to tatters.
Clary is delighting all his old friends by his masterful work here.
The Photoplay, the comedy and the new orchestra numbers add to the pleasure being afforded full-up houses.

MISSION
The 1915 Pendleton Round Up pictures, which are playing at the Mission until Wednesday night, only are the greatest of its kind ever depicted on the screen. It is the classic Wild West drama of the nation, and tells a complete history of the plains and its ways. Outlaw horses, wildest on range, array hemises against truculent steers fresh from plains—thrills every moment—these are only a few of the many exciting and thrilling episodes.

THREE DRUG STORES DENIED LICENSES
Three drug stores were refused city licenses for selling liquor Monday, pending further investigation by the license committee. They were the Central, Rigdon and Cleave drug companies. Eighteen licenses were granted and 68 later applications referred to the committee.

AN AFFINITY HOLDS NO SOLACE FOR "PERPLEXED," WOMAN WHO IS CHILDLESS, CYNTHIA IS TOLD

BY CYNTHIA GREY

A perplexed and unhappy woman wrote to me the early part of last week, laying bare her life's tragedy. Those of you who read her letter will recall that she is the wife of a prosperous business man, who is a model husband and gives her everything a woman's heart could desire.

But her home lacks the one thing needed to make it complete—a child of their own.
They adopted a little boy of 2 years, but, in spite of this, they are drifting apart. The woman, realizing fully the fatality of the situation, wrote me for guidance for her from the readers.

Following are some of the letters of advice received:

HAPPINESS A STATE OF MIND
"Dear 'Perplexed': There comes a time in the life of each and every one of us when we are not satisfied. It is but natural that you should think, as others have, that an affinity would fill the vacant place. That, however, is not true.
The 'affinity' craze will soon die out the same as any other fad. It is true that a beautiful home and every luxury does not completely satisfy. There is still something lacking. Children of one's own help to 'fill the void,' but it takes even more than that.

"When God made man, He made a place in the heart of man to be filled by Himself, and tho we may search the universe for happiness, we will not find it complete until we learn the value of this truth:
"A MAN WHO HAS LEARNED
"THE TRUTH."

not. Neither does my husband—at least, if he does, I don't know it.
We are not absolutely crazy about each other, either, but we are loyal and have each other's interest at heart.

"Perplexed" says that her husband is good and that they spend much time together. If they are not contented now they never will be, even tho they should have a child of their own or affinities alike.

"Let 'Perplexed' and her husband take the goods the Gods provide and be happy and thankful for small favors. Many couples would be glad to be in their shoes."

"CHILDLESS."

Cynthia Grey's
LETTERS

Dear Miss Grey: I wish to say a few words to "Clara," regarding her stepmother, and if you think them worth while, please send them on.
Dear Clara: I like you, and I wish I could make you realize what a privilege is yours—what a golden opportunity. Don't miss it.

It is perhaps just as well you cannot give your stepmother the money each month; the kind of woman who will endure being a slave to a man would take the money and buy some other member of the family underwear. But, bless her heart, she needs things; most of all she needs you, with your youth, your enthusiasm, new ideas and companionship. Try to get her out, take her on car rides or around the boulevards in the sight-seeing cars; take her to the movies, go with her to church—the one she likes best. If she hasn't one, make a round of all the churches in the city.

CREATE NEED FOR EACH OTHER

"Dear 'Perplexed' Woman: The producing and the developing of a perfect child is not a one-sided stunted affair, but demands the first fruits of natural parents.

"Your case sums up like this:
Both of you have surfeited yourselves on honey until your system are clogged with impurities and your brains are stunted and shrunken from uselessness.

"YOU MUST CREATE A NEED FOR EACH OTHER. My advice to both of you is to go far into the woods, tackle a pile of cord wood with buck saw and ax. You'll soon be hungry enough to enjoy eating corn bread and cabbage, and adopt a dog, or a cat, or a sleep of the just, into the lives of a normal, healthy couple, there is no time or place for 'affinities' to intrude.

"MOTHER OF SEVEN MEN."

IN THE SAME BOAT

"Dear Miss Grey: I am in the same boat as 'Perplexed,' except that I am laboring under worse difficulties; but am trying to make the most of it. 'Perplexed' has everything on earth to make life pleasant and agreeable, even an adopted child. I have been married seven years, have no children, and can't afford to adopt one. I am alone a great deal, and I must worry over financial difficulties, being afraid even to spend money for car fare or a moving picture show. Do you suppose I think of affinities? I should say no."

Cures Without Drugs
This Modern Method of Electric Treatment Is Curing Men and Women After Drugs Fail.

You need not suffer from rheumatism, nervous complaints, lost strength, debilitation, stomach, kidney, liver disorders or any other weakness that unmanly you.
There is a remedy that cures such troubles quickly and thoroughly. This remedy is electricity, the power that gives life and strength to the human body.
You know that all you lack is force and vim. Anything that will put new life into your nerves and build up your vitality will cure you. Electricity does that when properly applied.

Wear Electro-Vita while you sleep. It fills the nerves and vital with new life.
You wake up in the morning full of vim, free from pains and aches.

Electro-Vita is a self-charged body battery, which puts a steady, unbroken stream of galvanic electricity into the nerves for hours while you sleep, infusing them with new energy and building up the entire system to a strong, healthy condition. It renews the spirit of ambition and hustle. It makes strong, healthy men out of slow-going, discouraged weaklings. If you have a pain it drives it out, weakness, lumbago, kidney or liver complaint, or just a lack of nerve force.
Electro-Vita will restore you to perfect health.

Call or write for our beautiful 90-page book, which tells all about our treatment. This book contains pictures of well-built, robust men and women, showing how Electro-Vita is applied, and explaining many things you should know.

Consultation free. Office hours, 9 a.
m. to 5:30 p. m.; or evenings by appointment.
