PRISONERS SHOT IN CELLS WHEN VILLA RAIDS CHIHUAHUA

By Webb Miller

EL PASO, Sept. 18.—All northern Mexico is in turmoil today as reports of Villa's attack upon Chihuahua City early Saturday spread thruout the country.

Four thousand de facto troops from Monterey are being rushed to Chihuahua and other points while two columns of cavalry are pursuing the flying bandits toward Santa Clara canyon, according to reports given out by Gen. Gonzales, Carranza commander at Juarez.

Despite reports given out by Carranza officials that Villa was badly defeated, the effect of his attacks following his threat to shout "Grito" in the city of Chihuahua on Independence day was to rouse the enthusiasm of the people. In Juarez troops are patrolling every street in order to prevent an outbreak of pro-Villa feeling.

Three Carranza officers who deserted when the bandit attack on Chihuahua commenced and rode north to catch a train, arrived in El Paso early today. According to their stories, the Villistas attacked the town in two columns, one marching straight to the penitentiary without a shot being fired upon them, the other column driving the Carranza soldiers before them to the palace.

Shoot Prisoners in Cells
When it was seen that the penitentiary was doomed to fall, Carranza officers ran thru the corridors, shooting political prisoners thru the bars. About 20 were killed in that manner.

Then the doors were broken down by the Villistas, who rushed in and rescued Gen. Salazar. Gen. Trevino, Carranzaista commander, was shot by one of his own men, these officers declare, and about one-third of the garrison mutilated and went over to the bandit leader.

Villistas Lose 200 Men
The Villistas lost about 200 men, according to best estimates, while the Carranza losses were not announced, but were said to be very heavy.

As the Villistas left the prison and started to cut their way thru the government troops, hand-to-hand fighting took place in the streets. The streets were swept by shell fire, killing de facto soldiers and Villa alike. For an hour after Villa had evacuated it, cannon fire was kept up on the palace.

The Carranzistas did not immediately pursue when the bandits finally cut their way thru the lines. Once outside the city, the bandits reformed and marched away in good order.

By military men here it is believed Villa did not intend to occupy Chihuahua.

Low was born in Brooklyn in 1850.

It was his investigation of the practices of the Freed ring which led to his majority successes. He traveled extensively in Europe, and in his 40th year was elected president of Columbia.

He resigned the presidency in 1901, but continued until 1914 as a trustee. At the time of his death he was interested in labor problems. Even on his sickbed he was active in the settlement of the recent railroad strike. He was a personal friend of Samuel Gompers and other labor leaders.

PAULA HOPES HER STORY WILL BE HELPFUL TO GIRLS MEETING LIFE'S TEMPTATIONS

"The day after the newspaper woman visited me," said Paula, continuing her story, "I sat down and took stock. It seemed to me I had learned more in the few months since the death of my dear parents than in all the 15 years before."

"I wish I could make clear to you, Margie, how far in the dim and distant past all my happy and irresponsible childhood seemed. It was like a dream. I had learned every one of us must stand alone. 'Now,' I said to myself, 'it remains to be seen whether I can do it. Can I stand alone for whatever any woman or man shall do for me? When the acid test of life and success is applied, it will remain for me to stand it alone.'

"I may be able to get thru with few scars, but I know now that only thru hurts—which, altho they may heal in time, always leave scars—can I succeed."

"Paula," I said, "why did you not then come to some of your old friends? Why did you not come to me?"

"I might have done so, dear Margie, if you had begun to teach school. But it took me only a week or so to understand that the point of view of the sheltered and cared for woman is as far from that of the working girl as is the North Pole from the South. When I was going thru all my trouble, Margie, you were living at home with your mother. A year afterward, when you lost your mother and began to teach school, I was in New York, far from the old town where we were both born, striving to forget it and everything pertaining to it."

"It was good of you, dear Paula," I said, "to tell me the story of your adventures. It is so different from the books that try to tell girls what they must encounter on the stage and other places in seeking work. What they say is either sentimental or brutal."

Paula nodded. "Any woman with the least personality," she said, "who works with men day after day, is bound to attract some one of them. Then the decision rests with her."

"Besides, I know my life is not a bit more interesting than any other working girl's. But the knowledge of my experiences may help others when they meet with the temptations that have beset me."

"So long as nature's great urge is that of propagation of the race, men will hunt and women must hide behind the wall we call feminine virtue. Some day, however, I hope men and women will work side by side without a thought of anything but their work."

FRENCH SURROUND IMPORTANT TOWN

PARIS, Sept. 18.—French troops completely surrounded Denicourt, south of the Somme, in heavy fighting last night, it was officially stated today. The Germans counter attacked savagely on the whole front south of the Somme, where the French scored important gains yesterday.

Three violent attacks were made east of the village of Berny and south of Denicourt, where the French repulsed the onslaughts and made further progress, completing the encircling movement.

Twelve hundred prisoners and ten machine guns were taken.

GIRL IS HELD AFTER MAN'S FOUND DEAD

PORTLAND, Sept. 18.—Miss Eva Gibson, 24, is held Monday by the police as a material witness in connection with the mysterious death of Axel Nelson, 28, a structural steel worker, who was found dead in a vacant building on the East Side late yesterday.

There was a bullet wound in his breast, but his watch and money were undisturbed. Relatives of the dead man say he spent the evening with Miss Gibson.

SERBS MARCH AHEAD

SALONIKA, Sept. 18.—Serbian troops captured Bulgarian first and second lines at the village of Kankalhan, northwest of Ostrovo lake and near the Serbo-Greek frontier, it was officially announced. Ten machine guns were captured.

AUTOS SET RECORD

The war department test run by volunteer auto messengers from Plymouth, Mass., to Fort Lawton, Seattle, took 123 hours and 12 minutes, Capt. Bunn reported Monday.

The message was carried by relays, in which 60 autos took part. Jim Parsons brought the messenger to Seattle from North Bend Saturday morning. There was delay on the last lap, due to a wheel breaking and road construction between Walla Walla and Pasco.

to have been used to entrap rich men into compromising positions and then blackmail them. The men are said to have similarly entrapped rich women.

The persons held in the county jail on federal warrants are: Edward, alias "Doc" Donahue; Mrs. Helen Evers, alias Mrs. George W. Brown; Henry Russell; Jas. Christian, alias H. J. Cross; George Bland; Mrs. Frances Allen, alias Mrs. Frances Chapman.

The number blackmailed in Chicago is estimated at from 75 to 100, $10,000 at a clip.

Hauls were as high as $10,000. Only one was as low as $500. But the biggest money was made in New York and Philadelphia. Detectives arrested the supposed blackmailers.

By taking charge of the apartment house where they were staying, one detective operated the switchboard and listened to all conversations. Dictographs were placed in rooms of suspects. They waited until most of those wanted were in their rooms and then swooped down.

Pictures Tell Story
H. G. Clabaugh, government agent, ordered the arrest of a Max Traub, in St. Louis. In the rooms of the band were scores of pictures of men and women in unconventional poses. These were to be used as evidence to demand money from the persons trapped.

Clabaugh outlined the working of the alleged blackmailers as follows:

"Suppose you were president of a nationally-known bank. Suppose you had two daughters known in society and club circles. Suppose your wife was a social leader. Then suppose that you had met an attractive and charming woman, say at a roof garden.

"Wouldn't You Pay?
"She flirted with you. Then you called. Then suppose two or three men who said they were government officials discovered you in a compromising situation and threatened you with exposure, publicity and a prison sentence.

ITALIANS SWEEP NEAR TRIESTE

ROME, Sept. 18.—The Italians have broken the Austrian third line in the region of Monfalcone, after three days of fierce fighting.

On the whole front, from Gorizia south to the sea, the new Italian drive on Trieste is proceeding satisfactorily. A whole series of Austrian positions from Oppacchiasella southward, thru Pietra Rossa, has been carried, and the Austrians driven back to trench positions in the valleys.

Advanced Italian lines are now less than 13 miles from Trieste.

THEIPVAL TOTTERING BEFORE HARD SMASHES BY BRITISH

LONDON, Sept. 18.—British troops began closing in upon Thiéval last night, after capturing Mouquet farm, and took several German trenches south of the village, Gen. Haig reported this afternoon.

Thiéval village position, which has held up the progress of the British left wing since the Somme offensive began July 10, was made most precarious for the Germans by the loss of the well fortified Mouquet farm yesterday.

Germans Lose 40,000
Forty thousand Germans have been killed, wounded or captured since the Anglo-French armies resumed the offensive on the Somme with battering blows that bent back the Teuton lines.

The fighting continued last night north and south of the river with the greatest fury.

The allied successes have had a profound effect in Berlin, according to The Hague dispatches today. The Germans had been led to believe that the Somme drive had been halted by the inability of the British to capture the Fiers-Courcellette line and to break thru the German defenses around Thiéval.

GERMANS THREATEN RUMANIA RAILROAD

BERLIN, Sept. 18.—Russo-Rumanian forces already have retreated more than 50 miles from the Bulgarian frontier, and are falling steadily back on the Cernavoda-Constanza line, where a great battle is expected.

In an attempt to relieve the Teutonic pressure in Dobruja the Russians are attacking in force at several places along the Austro-German front. At only one point, before Hallitz, did the Russian attack meet with any success.

The Rumanians have abandoned many guns in their hasty flight before Mackenzien's forces. German air men report that the Rumanians are strengthening their lines south of the Cernavoda-Constanza railway, whose capture would practically cut Rumania off from communication with Russia via the Black sea.

the new British armored cars, or "tanks," the monsters that played such an important part in the capture of Fiers, Courcellette and Martinpach in Friday's attack.

One correspondent reported that they are not armored cars at all, but huge land battleships that shed ordinary gun fire like a duck does water, and can only be damaged by a dead hit from a big shell.

Delayed dispatches from press headquarters are full of exploits of necessary for strategic reasons. The French shifted their attack
