HERE YOU ARE, FANS! ALL THE DOPE OF THE BIG LEAGUE RACES

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The three-cornered pennant fight in the American league may be decided in the Tiger-Red Sox series beginning today at Detroit. In the meantime, the three-way struggle in the National league again has grown tighter. The Phillies are now only a game and a half from the Athletics. With this unprecedented situation of a triple knot tied in the leadership of both big leagues, the closing days of the pennant races promises the widest scramble in the history of baseball.

The world's champion Red Sox hold a lead of only half a game over Detroit, as those two teams meet in their final series of the season today. If the Red Sox can repeat their feat at Chicago by taking a majority of the games, they probably will go home in first place by a fair margin. On the other hand, if Detroit can pull a majority of the series out of the clutches of the Boston gang, they will have the call. But, while the Tigers and Red Sox are kicking each other around, the White Sox, in third place by a game and a half, will be getting a crack at the much-boasted Athletics, and may nose their way into the lead position over both Tigers and Red Sox. Cleveland still is strong enough to offer opposition, and it will be the Indians who get the next crack at the title holders. The Red Sox still have 14 games on their schedule, while Detroit has 10 and the White Sox 11. If the Red Sox win 8 and lose 6 of their remaining games, their standing at the end of the season will be .578. If the Tigers win 6 and lose 4 games, they would be tied for the championship. If the White Sox win 6 and lose 5, their standing would be .565. If the Tigers win every one of their remaining 10 games, they would finish the season with a percentage of .604. If the Red Sox win their remaining 14 games, their percentage would be .611. If the Red Sox make a clean sweep of the games with the Tigers, they would have a percentage of .587, and Detroit would stand at .566.

That would leave the champions with 11 games to play and the Tigers with 7. Should Detroit then win every one of those games, their percentage would be .584. Hence, to win the pennant, with Tigers winning all remaining games after the present series, providing, of course, that Chicago does not step in, the Red Sox would have to win 7 games with 4 losses. Chicago, however, must not be counted out. The White Sox loom up right now just as strong as any of the contenders. If they can take the entire series from the Athletics, they will be ready to challenge either Detroit or Boston for the final push to the end of the season. The situation is full of possibilities, and on the turn of a single game may rest the location of the cities which will stage the world's series. Bill Carrigan's pitching staff has not been doing as well as it might lately. Taken as a whole, the staff has wavered slightly. Poor pitching cannot stand against the fullitude of the Tigers, which they are certain to turn loose, even tho the Jennings hurlers are not known as extraordinarily effective. The Red Sox are not heavy hitters at best, and with Jack Barry missing, they are not so strong defensively as usual. In the National league, thru the victory of the Reds in one game of a double-header with the Dodgers, Brooklyn relinquished half a game of its lead, and the pace-setting job of the Tanager circuit now hangs on a single game. The Phillies can take first place today if they win and the Dodgers lose. Brooklyn has 17 games left on the calendar, while Philadelphia must play 19. If Brooklyn wins 10 and loses 7 games, the Dodgers' percentage would be an even .500. To win the pennant, in this event, the Phillies must win 12 of their remaining 19 games, providing the Braves don't enake in with a few extra wins and steal the flag from under the noses of both Dodgers and Phillies. The Braves are now in third place, a game and a half behind the Phillies.

FOOTBALL GOSSIP

BY D'LOSS SUTHERLAND "Ching" Johnson, Tacoma high school product, is cutting capers nightly. "He's faster than chain lightning." "Pat" Noble chirped, "but he is more or less vacant about the fundamentals of what is proper in the most select of football circles." They figure on making a back list of Johnson. Washington is shy a good booter this year. Besides developing a thousand and one other things, this is one little detail that will keep Doble and his understudy, Sutton, busy for a fortnight or two. MacKeechne, whom Doble is figuring on as a purple and gold mainstay, got naughty over at the American lake encampment and is sentenced to the guardhouse for a week, according to inside dope in the shower rooms off Denny's field. Bezedek's huskies, at the University of Oregon, are giving the Washington squad more concern than California, with its five coaches. The Lemon and Yellow aggregation is composed entirely of veterans who came within an ace of shoving Washington into a beating two years ago. Oregon is going to tackle Washington on the home turf, and everybody in Eugene, from the postmaster's delivery boy to the college prexy, is thirsting for revenge. Last night the squad out at the University boulevard way tolled thru an hour and a half of the hardest kind of scrimmage. And, by the shades of Max Eakins, so say the leg-wearied collegers, the going is getting tougher every year.

CHAMP WELSH WILL BOX FRIDAY

Freddie Welsh, lightweight champion boxer, will arrive in Seattle tomorrow and begin at once to shape himself up for a four-round bout with Harry Anderson, Northwest lightweight champ, at the Arena on Friday night. The bout, as previously announced, is being staged under the auspices of the Metropolitan Lumberman's club, one of the richest and most influential organizations in the West. "In selecting Harry Anderson to go against the champion, we believe that we have the best boxer of Welsh's weight on the Pacific coast to meet him," said Secretary Culver of the Metropolitan club today. "It is the chance of my life," said Anderson. "I intend to go after Welsh from the start. They say he hasn't much of a kick, and I think if I tear after him like Benny Leonard did, I may land a wallop that will win me the title. I know the champion can't hurt me in four rounds."

HOW TO PLAY FOOTBALL By Famous Gridiron Star

BY JOHNNY MAULBETSCH Too much attention cannot be given to catching punts in daily practice. Numerous air currents which come from openings in the grandstands or other sources, often divert the course of a ball, thus making it difficult to judge accurately. In catching punts or kick-offs it is well to grab the ball against the body, and in doing so bring the leg into action by pulling it up in such a manner as to not allow the ball to drop to the ground after the catch. The quarterback must make sure of the catch before he gives his attention to the men who are rushing down to tackle him.

ORIENTAL NET STARS ARE IN TOWN

Ichihya Kumagai and Machishiro Mikami, the two little Japanese racquet wielders who caused the tennis stars of the United States some bad dreams during the past season, are visitors in Seattle on their way to Vancouver to embark for Japan. The pair had considerable to say about their invasion of the tennis circles of the East, where Kumagai succeeded in winning matches from the biggest net stars of the land. The couple were out fishing today with Seattle friends, and will depart tomorrow for the Canadian port. Among other things they stated that they would be back again next summer, and they again left for home they would make endeavor to take the American championship back with them to the land of the cherry blossoms. The pair were in Seattle earlier in the year, and were seen in action on the local courts.

Miller Has Some Good Freshie Grid Material

BY JIMMY GRANT That the University of Washington freshmen will have a good football team is a question of the past, following the turnout the first-year men had last week. Nearly all of the Seattle high schools sent out first-class material, with the exception of Broadway high. Some of the men who answered Coach Hal Miller's call are Gus Pope and Malcolm Goodfellow, of the Queen Anne high; Myron Davies and Willis Benson, from Franklin; Jimmy Tevis and Cy Johnson, from Lincoln; Matt Kyle, one of the best forward passers in the Northwest, hails from Ballard. Kendrick Lee, who was Franklin's mainstay on the line last year, is turning out for his old position at center. The reason they were turning out was for the purpose of developing men for the Varsity, and not to develop a winning team. If Miller can show the men football the way he learned it from Doble, he will turn out men who will form a winning team. The present Freshman schedule is: Aberdeen, at Aberdeen, October 21; Mount Vernon, at Mount Vernon, October 28; Bellingham Normal, at Bellingham, November 11; Chehalis, at Chehalis, November 18. The only open date left is October 4. This probably will be filled with one of the local high schools.

VINDICATED BY THE COURT

Medical Board Ordered to Restore License to Dr. J. Eugene Jordan After Evidence of Remarkable Cures Was Produced in Court

On January 7 of the year 1915, Doctor J. Eugene Jordan was arraigned before the State Medical Board and his license to practice medicine revoked, the contention of the board being that the advertisement reproduced, which had been running in the local newspapers, was untrue, that Doctor Jordan could not cure the diseases mentioned therein. Doctor Jordan appealed to the courts in the matter and the trial of the case which followed in the Superior Court, produced evidence of a character that caused Judge Walter M. French to award a decision to Doctor Jordan, restoring to him his license. Judge French stated in his decision: The court cannot find in this case that any credulous or ignorant persons have been deceived. On the other hand, the witnesses who have been produced on behalf of Doctor Jordan are among the best people in the city. Professional people, people of standing in the community, people who are known to the Court personally and people who are known to the citizens of this city generally as being among the best people in the city. And I don't think that it can be contended that they were either credulous or ignorant except as the fact generally is somewhat ignorant of medical matters.

Cured of Tuberculosis by Dr. Jordan's Remedies

Doomed to a Crippled Condition for Life by Other Physicians, Absolutely Cured by Glandular Remedies

READ HIS TESTIMONIAL Seattle, Nov. 1, 1914. Twelve years ago I had tubercular abscesses on my neck and under my arms, and the doctors here offered to cut them out for $500, but admitted that it might result in crippling my arm for life. Doctor J. Eugene Jordan cured me without an operation, and I have remained well ever since. (Signed) C. B. BOYD, 2715 Fourth Ave. North. I have been giving practical demonstrations of the merits of my system right here in Seattle for the past thirty years, and hundreds of signed testimonials on file in my office, written by grateful patients whom I have cured, will attest to the wonders of Cures of Asthma, Anemia, Blindness, Chronic Inflammation of the Bladder, Deafness from Paralysis of the Auditory Nerve, Diabetes, Prolapsus Uteri, Dropsy, Chronic Dyspepsia, Epilepsy, Chronic Erysipelas, Chronic Gastritis, Hard Lumps in the Breast, Heart Disease (including Heart Leakage), Hip Disease, Infantile Paralysis, Locomotor Ataxia, Sciatica, Senile Gangrene, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Meningitis, Neuritis, Paralysis, Spinal Curvature, Gout, Strabismus, St. Vitus' Dance and most of the other so-called incurable diseases.
