LARNEY SAYS AD IS SIGNED FOR A BOUT AT TIJUANA

BY EDWARD HILL. DOLPH WOLGAST, former lightweight champ, who takes on Chet Neff at Dreamland here on Friday night, will box either Freddie Welsh or Charley White at Tijuana, Mex., on Thanksgiving day.

This is the dope sent ahead by Larney Lichenstein, Ad's manager. Larney declares that Promoter Billy McMahon has guaranteed Wolgast $7,000 with the privilege of 25 per cent of the gross, but neglects to state how many rounds the fight is to be scheduled.

Word received yesterday from Lichenstein was to the effect that he and Wolgast were to be here late yesterday afternoon but the pair stopped over a day in Frisco on their way North from Los Angeles. They are due tonight.

MANY OUT-OF-TOWN FANS WILL SEE WOLGAST. The promoters who are staging the Wolgast-Neff bout Friday night in Dreamland, report that many fans from near-by cities and towns will be holding forth at the ring-side when the bell taps for the big event.

We get no less than 10 letters in every mail, asking that the best seats be reserved," said Lonnie Austin this morning. "Seattle fans should get busy and secure their tickets early."

NEFF LEAVES FOR BOUT WITH "MUFF" BRONSON. Chet Neff and Genial Daniel Salt left on last evening's choo-choo for Portland, where Chet takes on "Muff" Bronson, the Southern village's crack featherweight.

Bronson has been highly touted by Portland scribes, and it appears that Neff is due for a hard tussle. Tommy Burns, the former heavyweight champion, is scheduled to referee the melee.

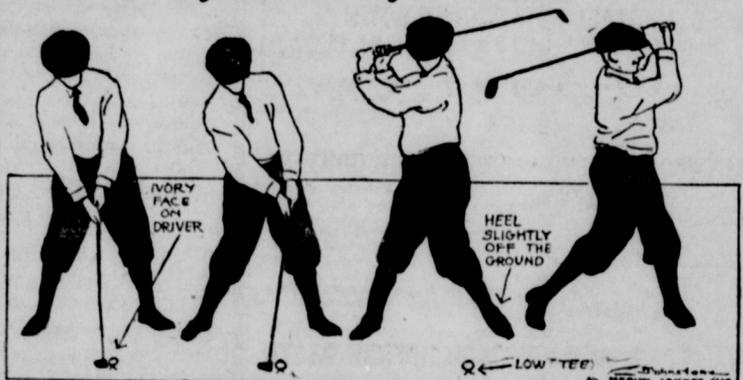

RUMORED MOOSE WILL GO IN FOR ATHLETICS. Attendant upon the success of the Metropolitan club's entrance into athletics, comes the report that the Moose are about to branch out in the field and are now making preparations to stage a boxing show.

This will give Seattle four organizations staging boxing shows and should prove quite enough.

TRAVIE SAYS HE WILL MAKE 133 POUNDS. Travie Davis, Everett heart-breaker and boxer, writes, informing us that he is still a lightweight, even if he doesn't look like one. Read it for yourself:

"I want to say that I will make 133 pounds and will fight any lightweight in the world. I will fight any 142-pounder in the Northwest and will try to win with that so-called awkward left that some talk about."

HOW CHAMPION PLAYS GOLF What Every Golf Player Wants to Know

As soon as enough women are listed, the Portland Golf club will hold its annual tourney for the fall sex.

R. W. Salisbury, Utah champion, broke the record for the Salt Lake course recently.

John Parker is trying to arrange a team match between the local University Golf team and those of Oregon and California.

Larry Cowing, sensation of the California tourney, formerly lived in Portland. He has been playing golf but a short time.

Dr. R. W. Perry is the proud possessor of the president's cup, won last week on the links of the Seattle Golf club.

Due to vicissitudes of the war, one-armed golf bids fair to become the vogue in England.

BANTAM CHAMPION WINS EASY MATCH. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—Benny Kaufman was outclassed all the way last night in his six-round tilt with Kid Williams, bantamweight champ, here last night. The champ landed some terrific body punches.

GILROY IS VICTOR OVER CHAS. HULEN. Johnny Gilroy beat Charley Hulen last night, 35 to 28, and went into the lead in the tournament being contested to determine the three-cushion championship of the city.

YOUNG NAG HANGS UP TWO NEW MARKS. LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 3.—In winning the 2-year-old event of the Kentucky Futurity yesterday, Lady set two world records. She trotted the first heat in 2:07 1/2 and the second in 2:07.

SHADOWS AND LIGHTS TO BE SEEN

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—Bill Carrigan and his crew of Red Sox champions will study the lights and shadows of Braves field this afternoon, while they whale away light-heartedly at the offerings of Joe Bush and Young Myers, in a double bill with the Athletics, ending the American league season here.

VAL SONTAG GETS ANOTHER BATTLE

The former Seattle middleweight, Val Sontag, is scheduled to fight again Wednesday night in New York. His opponent is named Mike McTigue, and is said to be a tough boy. Sontag won his first fight with ease.

GIANTS TRY HARD BUT FAIL TO WIN FROM THE ROBINS

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—John McGraw still stands today the best friend Wilbert Robinson has in baseball. But if winning a ball game at this crucial period in the fate of the Brooklyn Dodgers would have fractured that feeling, it is thru no fault of McGraw's that he is still high in Robinson's esteem.

Like that "pinch" hit in the 9th—they satisfy!

Two out in the 9th! The "pinch" hitter lines a beauty over "short." In comes the winning run. The "fans" go wild—it certainly satisfies! That's what Chesterfields do when you smoke—they satisfy!

Still, they're MILD! It is this combination of "satisfy" with mildness that is giving smokers that new cigarette enjoyment!

But only Chesterfields can give it to them, for the good reason that no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend!

that your title is insured by this company, you can have no more title troubles.

If your title should be attacked, the company must defend the suit without its costing you a penny.

If the suit is lost, the company must reimburse you for the full amount of the policy.

If you have no title insurance and your title should be attacked, you have to defend the suit at your own expense.

Though you may finally win the suit, you lose all that it has cost you to defend it.

With a Title Insurance policy from this company you couldn't lose a penny, even if you lost the suit.
