Experience at the Fashionable Horse Shows Comes in Handy Now That He's Mule-Skinner

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 4.—Because of his wide experience in driving four-in-hands, gained on the tanbark at fashionable horse shows in New York and the Middle West, Private Paul Patterson, of the First Ohio cavalry, has been assigned as driver of four "outlaw" mules on a combat wagon, detailed to Camp Pershing. In civil life, Patterson is the law partner of Secretary of War Newton D. Baker.

An "outlaw" is a mule that will kick on suspicion and balk with even less excuse.

"GUM RACKS FOR PUPILS! WHY NOT?" ASKS SCHOOL PRESIDENT

Gum-chewing pupils of Wisconsin schools will have racks on which to stick their gum when it is not being "worked," if the suggestion of J. W. Crabtree, president of the River Falls, Wis., normal school is adopted by school boards.

"Pupils have a right to chew gum," says Crabtree. "Teachers do it, but they know when and how. Why not teach these conventionalities to pupils?"

"Permit the pupils to chew gum on the playground and on the way to and from school. But what will the poor child do with his gum while in the recitation or assembly room? A gum rack at the entrance of the room, containing a number and peg for each pupil, solves the problem."

AGED NEGRO HAS HAD EIGHT WIVES AT 98

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 4.—"Ever married before?" Justice Casimir J. Welch asked Jones Mitchell, Kansas City, Kan., an old negro, after he had obtained a marriage license at the courthouse.

"Oh, Lordy, yes; seven times," replied the negro.

He told the marriage license clerk he was 98 years old.

WATCH KEPT IN FAMILY FOR 116 YEARS

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 4.—Claud M. Campbell of this city has a watch that has been in the family for 116 years. It was purchased in London, by Eba Campbell, great-grandfather of the present owner, in 1800. It still keeps good time.

EX-GOVERNOR WILLS GIRL LUCKY COIN

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Oct. 4.—The will of former Gov. Samuel W. Pennypacker distributes an estate estimated at $20,000 to $50,000 among his widow and children.

One of the odd features of the will is the clause which leaves to his daughter, Josephine W. Pennypacker, "the silver dollar given me by my grandmother, which has been in my pocket wherever I have gone during the last 55 years."

YAWN UNJOINTS HIS JAW; QUEER ACCIDENT

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., Oct. 4.—Gilbert B. Wheeler of this city indulged in a long, luxurious yawn. Immediately afterward his jaw refused to work and he discovered that he had dislocated it. A doctor was called to slide the jaw back into place.

While chewing a portion of meat, E. S. Criswell, by some queer contortion of his tongue got it fastened over a sharp-pointed back tooth. A physician, with the aid of tweezers, lifted the tongue back into place.

FIRST ICELANDIC SHIP IN CENTURIES HERE

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The Gullfoss, said to be one of the first Icelandic ships to visit the shores of the Western hemisphere since the days of Lief the Lucky, tied up in the harbor here Wednesday with a cargo of herring.

Aboard the Gullfoss, a little steamer of 886 tons, is a crew of Icelandic sailors, officered by Icelandic navigators, and speaking virtually the same language that Lief, the son of Eric the Red, spoke when he landed at Cape Cod, about the year 1000.

back to New York if she were stranded on the Pacific coast, without the aid of charity.

Up, then, spoke Dorothy: "I could!"

"So could I!" cried Edna Small, her chum.

And so the wager was made, amid much laughter. Miss Morgan says Charlie Chaplin flipped a $100 bill out of his pocket. In no time at all seven other cinema kings had contributed like amounts to the pot.

"I wrote my I. O. U. for $800," said Dorothy.

Pouf!

A mere bagatelle.

It was sportin', was it not?

Miss Morgan states that Henri, her devoted chauffeur, wept unmanly tears when his mistress told him what she intended to do.

As for Miss Small's maid, she was decimated by sorrow.

"Laf! How beautiful is the devotion of the serving class!"

They would sell newspapers. That was part of the bargain.

They started right in Los Angeles—sold the Record.

"We simply smiled—and once in a while we found a skate who wouldn't buy, so we'd give 'm a paper," says Miss Small.

After selling a while they dropped into a tea room and had lunch.

By night they had earned money enough to get to San Francisco—baggage and all.

On the steamer Harvard they squandered their surplus by sending flippant wireless messages to Charlie Chaplin.

Stepping off the boat at San Francisco Miss Morgan found 25 cents in change in a coat pocket.

A tramp came along. She gave him the 20 cents.

But the girls sold 1,800 copies of the San Francisco News their first day, and then made the jump to Portland.

There they had a lot of fun. Stopped at the Benson. Went fishing in the Willamette. Caught a big sturgeon. Sold the Portland News.

For several days they will be in Seattle, selling Stars.

When they make enough money to take trunks and baggage to Spokane, they'll leave their present home at the New Washington and move on to Spokane.

And so on—until they reach Noo Yawk.

"When we get there we'll collect the $800," they explain, "and return to Los Angeles—elegantly."

"And, of course, we won't hold

GRAND
Sheldon and St. Ives will be at the Grand today with a little sketch, "The Rube and the Sou-brette." Strong and Douglas, in "Kork and Kiltz," will feature ragtime tunes on bagpipes. The Larwell Sisters will sing, step and threaten some real nirth-provoking wit. Deaves' Royal Manikins will also be featured with "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea." Cuba Crutchfield and company do some regular roping stunts in their Western dialogue. Wm. Fox's picture, "Sins of Men," a five-reel drama, with Stuart Holmes and Dorothy Bernard, will be the feature picture. It is a dramatic arrangement of the evil men do.

Rich Man Seeks to Win Freedom for His Wounded Son

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—A note from Lieut. Immelmann, famous German flyer, delivered in Australia, brought Edward Grimwade, Melbourne millionaire, to San Francisco today on his way to London, where he will seek the release of his son, Frank, from a prison camp in Germany.

Immelmann's note told how Frank, who is a British aviator, had engaged the German aviator in a sky duel and how the Englishman, sorely wounded, and with his observer dead beside him, brought his aeroplane to the ground, where he was taken prisoner.

Immelmann and his associate German aviators, moved by admiration for their defeated antagonist, risked their lives to bear a note addressed to Grimwade's father. With shells bursting about them, they flew over the allied lines and dropped the message, which was delivered to the elder Grimwade in Melbourne many weeks later.

He started East this afternoon.
