SUICIDE ENDS HER HUNT FOR MISSING MATE

Mrs. Daniel B. Donnelly of Kerriston ended a week's search for her husband late Friday night when she found him dying in the city hospital from self-inflicted knife wounds and injuries received when he jumped four stories down the air shaft of the Georgian hotel five hours earlier. He was an employe of the North-west Lumber Co., and had disappeared after acting strangely. Early Friday afternoon Dr. N. D. Miller was summoned to the Georgian by the clerk, who wanted Donnelly examined. He was acting "queer," the clerk said. After the physician had failed to discover anything radically wrong, Donnelly made the jump. Still alive, and apparently not seriously injured, he took out his pocket knife, slashed his throat, and then stabbed himself in the abdomen before hotel employes could take the knife away from him. Donnelly died at the city hospital at 9 p. m. Friday. He was 38 years of age, and had been a watchman at the Kerriston mill for eight years.

FAIRBANKS IS SEATTLE GUEST

Charles W. Fairbanks

Arriving from Portland at 8:50 a. m. over the Northern Pacific, Charles Warren Fairbanks, republican candidate for vice president, who has visited this city several times, received many visitors at the Washington hotel before setting out on a big day's speaking and social schedule.

Fairbanks appears much grayer and older than when he was here three years ago. Beginning at noon, Fairbanks' program was crowded with one event after another. He will address a mass meeting at the Moore theatre at 8 p. m. Doors will be opened at 7 o'clock. Senator Miles Poindexter will preside. Gov. McEldrie and others prominent in republican circles will occupy seats on the stage. At noon, Fairbanks was scheduled to speak before the Young Men's Republican club in the Commercial Club rooms, after which there will be a public reception. At 2 p. m., the visitor was scheduled for a tour of the city by auto, stopping at the Sunset club, where the women will hold a reception for him. At 4 p. m., he was due at the Land Products show at the Arena. Following the meeting at the Moore theatre, Fairbanks will be guest of the Press club. Fairbanks will leave Sunday evening. He will probably attend services at the First Methodist Episcopal church in the morning and visit with his fraternity, Phi Gamma Delta, in the afternoon.

FAIRBANKS ROUSES PORTLAND CROWD

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 7.—Oregon republican leaders consider that the speech of Chas. W. Fairbanks, republican vice presidential nominee, at the armory here was one of the best campaign orations ever delivered in the Northwest. Fairbanks addressed a crowd of 5,000 people, packing the building to its capacity. He directed his attack principally at the democratic slogan: "Wilson Kept Us Out of War." "Ask the fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters of the brave boys who fell at Vera Cruz if there was not war in Mexico," he demanded. The mention of Chas. E. Hughes' name provoked a riotous demonstration. There was another outburst of cheering when Fairbanks chanced to mention President Wilson. Fairbanks left for Seattle after his speech.

200 HEAR TURNER

George Turner, democratic candidate for senator, addressed approximately 200 at two meetings held Friday night. He spoke at Phalen's hall and Hillman City. He declared that as senator in 1896 he secured the first appropriation, amounting to $500,000, for digging the Lake Washington canal. Hazen J. Titus, dining car superintendent of the N. P., who established the "great big baked potato" service, is worried. He can't find enough spuds weighing 24 ounces or over. "Some shippers have offered to supply us," he says, "but I'd like to hear from any others who have big potatoes. My reputation is at stake."

IT'S DAIRY DAY AT LAND SHOW

How to knife the high cost of living by eating more dairy products, may be a puzzle to anybody who has tried to buy butter and milk during the last few days, but nevertheless it's the slogan of dairymen who held sway at the Northwest Land Products Exposition Saturday. It's "Dairy day" at the Arena, and under the big tent annex. Some of the cows who have yielded the highest in the dairy league during the last year or so were on hand. Dairy maids were scheduled to parade behind Ferullo's band between 12 and 1 p. m. Buttermilk and cheese were to be free for the asking. Chief Milk Inspector A. N. Henderson, of the health department, lectured Saturday morning on "Publicity as Applied to the Dairy

RUMANIA LOSES 50,000 TROOPS

BERLIN, Oct. 7.—The Rumanians have lost 50,000 men in the last two weeks of fighting in Transylvania, where they have suffered two decisive defeats at the hands of Field Marshal Falkenhayn. Budapest dispatches today asserted that some of the crack Rumanian regiments have been entirely wiped out. Ill-trained troops are now opposing Falkenhayn's victorious advance against the army that invaded Transylvania. Industry, and J. E. Dorman, of the federal department of animal husbandry, talked on "Dairy Herd Improvement." Japanese have invented matches that light perfectly even when wet. Appendicitis was known in Egypt 5,000 years ago, and accurately described.

AUTOISTS MUST QUIT SPEEDING

Chief Beckingham has issued a general order to have all reckless automobile drivers arrested immediately upon report of serious accidents. His order followed reports of five injuries Friday, two of which were serious. Mrs. A. J. Austin, 501 28th ave., is at the city hospital, with concussion of the brain. She was struck by H. J. Burge, of Cle Elum, driving at Westlake ave., near Pike. He was released on $100 bail. Edward Bryan, 19, 1631 North 53rd st., has a fractured leg and internal injuries sustained when he was run down by a truck on the water front. Florida's highest point is 300 feet above sea level.

men to force intervention and possibly annexation to the United States. "The exploiters of public utilities and of the mineral and agricultural resources of our neighbors would gain much if they could force intervention by the United States. There are soldiers of fortune in Mexico who would undoubtedly welcome such a contingency. "Sensationalists are adding to the confusion of the situation and making more difficult the solution of the problem. Intervention in Mexico is, of course, not a matter to be considered lightly; for intervention means war, and war means the destruction of human lives and the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars. No Right to Shed Blood "It means, furthermore, the responsibility of the government of 20,000,000 people for an indefinite period. We are now engaged in governing 10,000,000 aliens as the result of the Spanish-American war—a war which could very probably have been averted if we could have exercised a little more patience, patriotism, and self-restraint. "If our speculators in Mexico suffer pecuniary loss as the result of recurring revolutions, that is a matter for further consideration, when stable government and peace are fully established in that country. It is not warrant for shedding the blood of Americans. Uphold Wilson's Hands "To sacrifice the life of one soldier for all of the dollars investors or speculators have ventured in Mexico would be the supremest criminal folly, without a deliberate affront on the part of the Mexican government, whether it exists de jure or de facto, is no good ground on which we would be justified in sending our armies beyond the Rio Grande. "President Wilson is dealing with it (the situation) as best he can. We may not entirely agree that his course is better than that of his distinguished predecessor, nevertheless we should endeavor to uphold his hands. There should be no difference of opinion as to that. By doing so we shall make his task a comparatively easy one. "It is not an hour for either little politics or sensational journalism. The clamor of the jingoes should not be allowed to drown the voice of rational, deliberate statesmanship. It is a pretty safe rule, when we come to deal with grave international problems, to put our faith in the president of the United States and follow where he may lead. He speaks for the country when we come to deal with international affairs. "The president of the United States is a safer guide than sensationalists and the soldiers of fortune who come to the surface whenever international controversies arise."

ATTENTION HOUSEKEEPERS AND MARKETERS!

Grand Opening of the Pine Street Market SATURDAY, OCT. 14, 1916 Come and See for Yourself—Seeing Is Believing

We are proud of the NEW PINE STREET MARKET, and if you come to our Grand Opening we know you will experience the same satisfaction. We think we have the latest and most COMPLETE PLANT in SANITARY MARKET CONSTRUCTION. It is now being stocked with an array of food merchandise that will please the eye of the most fastidious and satisfy the purse of the most economic buyer. We have collected under one roof a number of merchants, who have been selected with the Greatest Care on account of their expertness and experience as food purveyors, and their presence is a guarantee of the best and most efficient service in a modern and well regulated PUBLIC SANITARY MARKET. OUR AIM will be not only to handle the best quality of goods in the food line, but the greatest varieties, and at prices which will appeal to the most careful buyers. With these aims, which we will strictly observe, we hope to merit your patronage and support. We think we can be of service to you and invite you to be present at the opening of our enterprise. Visit the building before the Grand Opening, so you may note the splendid arrangement provided for the merchants. And by the way, we will have a row of Farmers' Stalls on the sidewalk along Seventh Avenue. Respectfully,

DEMO POLITICS ALL MESSED UP

Democratic state politics are considerably messed up just now. Which, incidentally, affords the republican captains heaps of amusement as well as optimism. The other day Gov. Lister publicly repudiated Democratic State Chairman Fogarty, and appointed his own campaign committee. The governor's reason was that Fogarty was a "wet," and is supporting initiative bills 18 and 24, the hotel and brewery bills. Comes now Fogarty and says the governor is sadly, grievously and painfully mistaken. Fogarty is against both these initiative measures, he declares, refused to sign them, and is as "dry" as anybody. Fogarty isn't bitter toward Lister, he says. He'll support him in spite of Lister's attack on him, because he's a democrat. But as to the "wet" and "dry" issue, Fogarty intimates, he became a "dry" just as soon as the governor did—right after the prohibition law was adopted by the people. The United States pays rear admirals $8,000 a year; Japan pays hers $1,643.

LEVY IS HIGH, TAXES LOWER

State, county, city and school district tax levies for 1917 will total 44.337 mills, it was determined Saturday, which is 1.109 mills higher than 1916. The port commission levy will probably be about the same as last year—1.332 mills. This makes the total levy for taxpayers the highest in mills ever called for, except in the "old limits" city taxing district. The actual amount of money to be spent, however, is about the same as in 1916. The reduced valuation schedule is responsible largely for the increase in the mill levy figures. For instance, the total King county valuation is $262,556,998 this year, as compared to $273,677,092 last year. GYPSY CHIEF DIES OUT WITH PEOPLE PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 7.—King Williams, for 80 years a member of a gypsy band and its leader for 60, died "in the field with his followers," as he wished, after escaping from a hospital here.

An Invitation To Borrowers on Real Estate

The facilities of our Mortgage Loan Department have recently been enlarged so that we are now handling Building Loans. Applications are invited. If you want a loan on improved city real estate, you are invited to come in and talk it over. We particularly desire applications for loans of $1,000 to $10,000, though larger and smaller ones are accepted.
