

The Value Is There and the Style to Boot and

$15 Does the Trick

Come in Today and Let Us Show You Some of the Snappiest Woolens in Town

Here's Real Economy Combined With the Satisfaction of Wearing Tailored Clothes

Suit or Overcoat $15

Dundee 304 Pike St.

A Star Want Ad is a money saver. It will get you results from a small investment.

AMUSEMENTS

ALHAMBRA 5 & PINE ORPHEUM VAUDEVILLE

TWICE DAILY All This Week ANDREW TOMBS in "THE BRIDE SHOP"

WILKES PLAYERS

Tonight, 8:20-10 to 10:30 "THE TRAVELING SALESMAN"

NEW PANTAGES

Palace Hip

Palace Hip

Palace Hip

Palace Hip

Palace Hip

Palace Hip

SHALL A JUDGE 'GONE WRONG' BE GIVEN ANOTHER CHANCE?

Owing to the many letters received from Star readers in the Root case, The Star is compelled to ask that they be kept down to 200 words each.

A MAN OF HIGH CHARACTER Editor The Star: Referring to your article of October 14th, headed "Should Judge Gone Wrong Get Another Chance?"

On the bench, he upheld the eight-hour law twice, after it had been set aside by the lower courts.

After Judge Root left the bench, I talked with my uncle, Judge Dunbar, and he told me that Judge Root was an upright, honest, conscientious man and judge, and was an able lawyer, and had rendered excellent service on the bench.

The facts of the matter are that the old political enemies of Judge Root are behind it all.

Now, after nearly 24,000 voters have expressed their confidence in Judge Root, you want to try to defeat him. For what purpose?

The facts of the matter are that the old political enemies of Judge Root are behind it all.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

It is therefore with amazement that I have read The Star's article, under the head, "Should a Judge Gone Wrong Be Given Another Chance?"

It is a known fact Judge Root decided against the railway company, and not in its favor, as is shown from your records.

When Mr. Editor, that many of the big corporations' lawyers and the vicious elements are against Judge Root?

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

before all the judges, they all decided that Judge Root was right, as appears from the per curiam opinion appended to this case.

Judge Root retired from the bench a poor man. Ten years have passed. * * * To take the measure of the man, go to the commonplace of his home, his work, the people he lives with, his neighbors, those he serves and who serve him—

You refer in your article to Mayor Hiram C. Gill, who went wrong once and is now on the right path. Did not the people say in the first instance that he was wrong and then again that he was right?

I say it is up to the people to give Judge Root a chance, just as well as in Mayor Gill's case.

On the bench, he upheld the eight-hour law twice, after it had been set aside by the lower courts.

After Judge Root left the bench, I talked with my uncle, Judge Dunbar, and he told me that Judge Root was an upright, honest, conscientious man and judge, and was an able lawyer, and had rendered excellent service on the bench.

The facts of the matter are that the old political enemies of Judge Root are behind it all.

Now, after nearly 24,000 voters have expressed their confidence in Judge Root, you want to try to defeat him. For what purpose?

The facts of the matter are that the old political enemies of Judge Root are behind it all.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

It is therefore with amazement that I have read The Star's article, under the head, "Should a Judge Gone Wrong Be Given Another Chance?"

It is a known fact Judge Root decided against the railway company, and not in its favor, as is shown from your records.

When Mr. Editor, that many of the big corporations' lawyers and the vicious elements are against Judge Root?

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

believed the old stuff about letting the buns and run-soaked gentry run the city.

When Gill saw the light, when he appeared sincere in the conviction that he had been wrong, and frankly asked for another chance, the city responded to his candor.

Is that the case with Root? No. He tried to sneak in. He didn't want the old case revived.

Why doesn't he stand on his record one way or another?

If he was not wrong, why doesn't he air it? Why didn't he air it in 1909? Why did he wait six years? Why don't he tell the real facts?

If he was wrong, why isn't he man enough to admit, thank the people of the state they didn't deal any harsher with him, and frankly ask them for another chance to re-deem himself?

If he was crooked and reformed, fine!

But Judge Root must take the public into his confidence, instead of trying to sneak in. He must tell them just what's what. He certainly does not deserve another chance if, having been wrong in 1909 by juggling words to suit railroad companies at their dictation, and accepting their passes, he still is of the opinion that he acted right.

Editor The Star: The letter in your paper Monday, signed, "A Voter," is misleading. Judge Root is, and always has been a friend of the working people, the poor and the helpless.

On the bench, he upheld the eight-hour law twice, after it had been set aside by the lower courts.

After Judge Root left the bench, I talked with my uncle, Judge Dunbar, and he told me that Judge Root was an upright, honest, conscientious man and judge, and was an able lawyer, and had rendered excellent service on the bench.

The facts of the matter are that the old political enemies of Judge Root are behind it all.

Now, after nearly 24,000 voters have expressed their confidence in Judge Root, you want to try to defeat him. For what purpose?

The facts of the matter are that the old political enemies of Judge Root are behind it all.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

RETIREES FROM BUSINESS

Carl Rubenstein of the PEOPLE'S STORE 716 First Avenue

Owing to the dissolution of partnership. SALE STARTS TOMORROW (Saturday) AT 10 A. M. The entire stock, consisting of thousands of dollars' worth of Furnishings, Fine Clothing, Hats, Shoes, for men, women and children, is being sacrificed to meet all outstanding indebtedness.

Sale Starts Saturday, 10 A. M. SENSATIONAL BARGAINS IN MEN'S CLOTHING. Men's Suspenders, regular to 25c; Sale price 9c. Union Suits, worth to $1.00 49c. 50c Rubens Infant Vests 19c. One Lot Sweater Coats, worth to $2.00, now 89c.

Stop and Consider What This Sale Means to You Right in the heart of the Fall season. You have this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to buy dependable merchandise at prices that you never dared to hope of buying before.

Big Stock of Shoes Sacrificed. Men's Oxfords, worth to $5.00 $1.98. Ladies' Oxfords, worth to $3.00 79c. Men's Shoes, worth to $3.00 $1.49. Men's Shoes, all styles and leathers; worth to $6.00 $2.98. Boys' and Girls' Shoes, worth to $2.00 98c. Men's and Ladies' Shoes, worth to $4.00 $1.98.

The People's Store 716 First Avenue Three Doors From Columbia Street

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

COME AND LAUGH! TODAY and Tomorrow Last Chance to See

CHARLIE CHAPLIN in "THE COUNT"

Winifred Greenwood in "A Woman's Daring"

Bring the Children 5c 10c COLONIAL 10c

BILLINGSLEY IS FINALLY TAKEN Logan Billingsley walked into Sheriff Hodge's office late Thursday afternoon and asked to be allowed to post his bail on a new warrant issued against him in connection with liquor found last July in his warehouse on Westlake ave.

6 CONVICTS TAKEN OSSINING, N. Y., Oct. 20.—All of the six convicts who escaped from Sing Sing yesterday on a motor truck are back behind the bars today.

AUTO KILLS BOY OF 2 MOUNT VERNON, Oct. 20.—Jackie Stevens, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Stevens, had his head crushed and died two minutes later, as the result of being run over by an auto driven by Carl Johnson, a high school boy.

Best $2.50 GLASSES On Earth Eyes Examined FREE An Eye Examination Will instantly reveal whether you need glasses. An examination here is accurate and reliable.

W. S. KIRK'S Army and Navy Store 1209 First Ave., Seattle, Wash.

Editor The Star: I have always had the opinion that The Star has consistently tried to print facts and play no favorites, and that its high position was to elevate its energies for the protection of the rights of the people against the unceasing and insidious attacks of special privilege.

BABY NURSE OF '61 OPPOSED TO WAR

Mrs. Cochran

Mrs. Cochran of Troy, N. Y., known as the "baby" of the corps of Civil War nurses, who saw active service in 1861 to 1865, says she is for "anything but war."

6 CONVICTS TAKEN OSSINING, N. Y., Oct. 20.—All of the six convicts who escaped from Sing Sing yesterday on a motor truck are back behind the bars today.

AUTO KILLS BOY OF 2 MOUNT VERNON, Oct. 20.—Jackie Stevens, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Stevens, had his head crushed and died two minutes later, as the result of being run over by an auto driven by Carl Johnson, a high school boy.

Best $2.50 GLASSES On Earth Eyes Examined FREE An Eye Examination Will instantly reveal whether you need glasses.

BENSON WARNS OF HIGH COST OF LIVING

YUMA, Ariz., Oct. 20.—Allan L. Benson, socialist candidate, carried his campaign into Arizona today. After a tour of speech-making in California, Benson, on arriving here, declared that unless immediate federal action is taken and an embargo of food exports is clamped down, a famine will result.

Home of $2.50 Glasses the Best $2.50 on Earth Toric Lenses Widen Vision

MARCUM OPTICAL CO. 917 First Ave. Near Madison.

Home of $2.50 Glasses the Best $2.50 on Earth Toric Lenses Widen Vision

Home of $2.50 Glasses the Best $2.50 on Earth Toric Lenses Widen Vision

Home of $2.50 Glasses the Best $2.50 on Earth Toric Lenses Widen Vision

Home of $2.50 Glasses the Best $2.50 on Earth Toric Lenses Widen Vision