GET OFF THAT LID, SENATOR FRENCH

Now, if ever, it is necessary for the Northwest to pull together in order to complete the victory on the tourist rate case. The interstate commerce commission yesterday ruled against the Southern Pacific, and the new rates are to begin April 2. So far, so good! But the railroad company proposes an appeal. The supreme court probably will hear this case. An attorney must be on the job. But the $5,000 appropriation bill to send Attorney Charles A. Reynolds back to Washington to complete the Northwest's victory in the tourist rate case is still reposing in the senate rules committee. Senator French, chairman of the senate appropriations committee, is sitting on the lid. It is growing late in the session. The calendar is clogged.

LISTER'S VETO MERE POLITICS, IT IS CHARGED

BY EDGAR C. WHEELER
OLYMPIA, March 3.—Was Gov. Lister in good faith, or was he merely playing to the gallery for political effect yesterday, when he vetoed the $70,000 extra appropriation to carry the business of the legislature to a conclusion? This question is asked by many legislators. The legislature has passed a $12,000,000 omnibus appropriation bill, the biggest in the history of the state. It has appropriated $110,000 for its own running expenses—more than ever before. But it's not the only body about the capitol which has been extravagant. Gov. Lister has signed a deficiency appropriation of $8,500 for his public service commission. He has signed a big deficiency appropriation for his department of fisheries under the same circumstances. He has signed a deficiency appropriation of $7,100 for salaries and maintenance of the industrial insurance commission. But here's the point: The governor's veto of the $10,000 bill doesn't strike at the legislature. The only things that will happen if the bill is not passed over his veto will be these: It will cut off the salaries of the employees. It will prevent the printing of the legislative record. And in the face of all this so-called "economy," the governor is intending to sign a $1,000,000 appropriation, if it passes the legislature, for a new capitol building. AT A TIME WHEN MATERIALS ARE HIGHER THAN EVER BEFORE IN HISTORY.

AMY COLBECK, 909 James st., filed suit in superior court Friday for $19,000 damages against her landlord, George Stetson, for injuries received when the porch railing at her home broke Nov. 21, 1914.

CONFESSION BY GERMANY WON'T CALL CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Wilson will not call an extra session now, the United Press was officially informed today. If the present congress can complete its work, developments in the international situation are not seen as to warrant a call for assembly of the new congress at this time. The White House received its first word of Germany's admission of the authenticity of the Zimmerman "plot" letter from the United Press early today. State department officials said the fact that Germany admitted her act did not alter the diplomatic situation. "We were convinced of the authenticity of the plot," said one official, "but he added that what Germany had to say might have a bearing on whether or not the admission aggravated the situation. Authorities felt the admission would have the immediate effect of solidifying patriotic sentiment in congress and the nation and might satisfy the doubting. Particularly, they believed it might kill Senator Stone's opposition to the armed neutrality measure and any more peace-at-any-price talk on the bill.

MEXICO DENIES HEARING ABOUT GERMAN PLANS

NEW YORK, March 3.—Mexico has not received any proposition of an alliance from Germany. Foreign Minister Aguilar informed the United Press today. He sent the following telegram from Guadalajara: "United Press, New York: The government of Mexico has not received any proposition of alliance from the imperial German government." This is the first official word from the Mexican government indicating that the German proposition failed to reach Carranza or his ministers.

KAISER CONFESSES PLOT AGAINST U. S.

printed a story a short while ago really revealed the "plot," in telling that the United States last year suggested to the other American republics common action against Germany and her allies; the foreign secretary continued. "This 'plot' was apparently not conditional in the least. The news, as published by the newspaper, La Prensa, well agreed with the interpretation given, for instance, by the American newspaper man, Edward Price Bell, London correspondent, who said that the United States was only waiting for the proper moment in order opportunistly to assist the entente. Thought United States Unneutral "The same American stated that Americans from the beginning of the war really participated in it by putting the immense resources of the United States at the entente's disposal, and that the Americans had not declared war only because they felt sure that aid by friendly neutrality would be during that time much more efficient for the entente than direct participation. "Whether this American newspaper man reported the facts exactly, we were at a loss to judge in satisfactory fashion, since we were more or less completely cut off from real communication with the United States. "But there were other facts which seemed to confirm this and similar assurances. "Won't Repeat Facts "Everybody knows these facts, and I need not repeat them. "The entente propaganda services have sufficiently heralded all these pro-entente demonstrations in the United States, and if you link these demonstrations together with the actual attitude of the United States, then it is obvious that the consideration was not frivolous on our part of what defensive measures we should take if we were attacked by the United States."

$10,000,000 A WEEK FOR SPYING ON U. S.

big orders and boost prices when other agents have ascertained that "the enemy" is about to make purchases. There are spies in the war department and the navy department, AND IN THE ARMY AND NAVY. These particular spies were specially educated for this kind of work. They were steered by some mysterious hand to their respective posts, and watched for several years to test their "loyalty" before they were made pieces of their country's espionage system. THE TELEPHONE, TELEGRAPH AND CABLE SYSTEMS OF THE COUNTRY ARE LITERALLY HONEYCOMBED WITH SPIES! Swarm in Hotels Thousands of spies are working in hotels, restaurants and barber shops patronized by financiers, statesmen and naval and military men, where they eavesdrop and send their reports daily to the next man "higher up." These smaller fry do not know for what particular person they are working; all they know is that they are working for "their country." So feverishly have the spies been working since the outbreak of the war they now have exact knowledge of the naval, military, economic, and financial resources of the country. Use Women on Broadway This espionage game has its comical side. A spy cannot be implicitly trusted by his own government. The result is that spies are set to watch spies. Men high up in the business, men acquainted with important secrets, are followed to the theatre, restaurants and cafes. There is a special branch of the service made up of smartly dressed and attractive looking women who frequent the Great White Way and fashionable hotels and rathskellers, whose duty is to become acquainted with the big fellows and to see whether, under a woman's spell and that of champagne and music, they may be trusted to keep their secrets. U. S. Secret Service Best UNCLE SAM IS CREDITED WITH POSSESSING THE BEST SECRET SERVICE IN THE WORLD. It is small but highly efficient. Its members are mostly college men, who, when they join the service, "enlist" for seven years. THEY PLEDGE THEMSELVES NEITHER TO MARRY NOR TO HAVE ANY COMMUNICATION WITH THEIR OLD FRIENDS OR RELATIVES during the period of their service. As they are obliged to change their names frequently in order to do their work, they are known to their department chiefs by numbers.
