PAULINE FREDERICK

In "Sleeping Fires" Miss Frederick is at her best. It is a story full of tense situations, that works its way swiftly through a series of thrilling climaxes. Thomas Meighan heads an all-star supporting cast.

SLEEPING FIRES

"The Laundry Clean-up," comedy; "Seoul, Korea," scenic, and a cartoon comedy, complete an unusually well-balanced program.

THEY STOP HOBOES
SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The hobo is becoming a stationary character, or a pedestrian, at least. Western railroads report that militiamen who challenge all suspicious characters at every bridge, railroad yard and tunnel have made riding the rods or traveling blind baggage almost impossible.

FOLLOWS THIEVES
Chin Shu, Milwaukee hotel, was held up at the corner of Main st. and Maynard ave. and robbed of $8 and a 17-jeweled gold watch. Shu followed the two thieves to the Welcome hotel, where he called the police and identified M. Owen, who was arrested.

PAINLESS AUSTIN

DENTIST
SOMETHING YOU SHOULD KNOW

You will find in this office no young and untried dentist with his aureole fresh upon him, but instead a MASTER OF THE DENTAL ART in every required case.

I know how difficult it is to convince the average person that Dentistry without Pain is possible, but I stand ready to convince the most skeptical.

Another great drawback that has a direct bearing with most people is the HIGH PRICES charged for EFFICIENT Dentistry.

You will find my prices exceptionally reasonable for High-Class Dentistry.

Letters To Cynthia Grey

Cynthia Grey's Good Form

PUT the elbows on the table is to confess indifference to rules of etiquette. This attitude should remain peculiar to grill rooms, where it originated. Those who observe the details of good form keep their hands in their laps when not employed with the knife and fork.

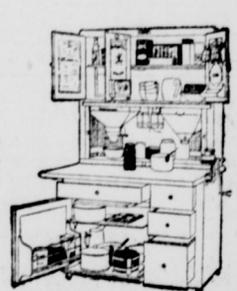

NEEDS MOTHER'S ADVICE
Q.—You have shown so much judgment in answering questions for others, I want your opinion on a subject myself.
A.—I have a young girl 16 years old staying with me and going to school. My husband has got into the habit of kissing her. She will come downstairs in the morning and put her arms around his neck, and he will hug and kiss her. I have spoken to him about it, and he says she is only a kid. He is nearly 60 years old, and if he kissed her as he would any little kid, he would do it when I am around and not when he thinks I don't see them, would he not?
A.—I would like your candid opinion on this subject.
AN ANXIOUS WIFE.
Q.—You owe this little girl something besides food and clothing and a shelter for her head. She needs a mother's love and kindness more than ever before. Undoubtedly she is wholly ignorant of the facts of life. Take her into your arms and your heart and explain to her. When she is armed with this knowledge, you need have no fear, for she will be anxious and willing to protect her honor.
OCTOBER STONE
Q.—I have a beautiful opal ring, which I am intending to give to some one of my closest friends. I don't wish to bestow it upon a person who will be nervous about wearing it. But I understand that its supposed sinister influence is not felt by people with birthdays in certain months.
If this be so, will you kindly tell me which months the innocuous ones are? Of course, in making presents, we must consider super-

Expect Americans to Be Great Fliers
LONDON, May 18.—America has the type of young man who will be most valuable for the air service, a high military authority said today, in suggesting ways in which the United States can help win the war.
Air battles increase in size and importance of effect daily, and England and France are mobilizing some of their finest fighters for this branch of the service.
The type of man best fitted for aerial warfare is typically American—young, aggressive, keen and healthy, and English military authorities look for the greatest assistance from an American air corps, once one gets into operation on the west front.

CONSERVE IN OHIO
COLUMBUS, O., May 18.—Building of a governor's mansion has been postponed for a year, at least, to leave all state funds and energies available for war use.

It's toasted LUCKY STRIKE cigarette

IT'S toasted. The Burley tobacco in this delicious new Lucky Strike cigarette is toasted.

And you know how toasting does add flavor. Close your eyes and think of one crisp, brown slice of hot, buttered toast. Flavor is the word, isn't it?

This new application of an old idea has given you a new cigarette. You smokers have certainly been wanting a ready-made Burley cigarette. At first it couldn't be made; flavor didn't hold. But five years' study brought us to the toasting principle, by which we are able to hold the Burley flavor.

So now, try Lucky Strike, the real Burley cigarette; the tobacco—it's toasted. And the flavor—you'll certainly love it!
