

KIDS DIVE AT CRYSTAL POOL FOR NICKELS TUESDAY; WILL ALSO WALK GREASED POLE TO AID SMOKE FUND

Ever see a bunch of kids scramble for pennies and nickels? Funny, wasn't it? Now, then, suppose such a scramble should occur in a swimming pool? Wouldn't it be funnier yet? It would, Verily, we say so.

And so does Lonnie Austin, director of the big water carnival at the Crystal Pool, next Tuesday night, the proceeds of which will go to The Star smoke fund. And so does Guy Sherwood, manager of the natatorium.

So they've gone and arranged for a bunch of kids to be on the program Tuesday night. Lonnie or Guy, or some one else, is going to throw a lot of nickels into the tank and then watch the boys dive after them.

Among others on the program will be M. Fadden, the well-known champion diver, who will turn a few somersaults from the roof. Roy O'Neil will be his side kick.

The "pillow battle" between swimmers, who will engage in conflict on a pole overhead the pool, promises also to set the giggles going. And, of course, don't forget the lady divers—six of 'em—regular water nymphs.

And, oh, yes; more fun.

There will be an obstacle race for boys. They'll swim the tank, walk a greased pole and do other stunts. You're right. It sure will be funny.

And in the meantime—

"Inclosed please find 50 cents for two packages of tobacco for the boys in France. Sorry cannot send more."

So writes Mrs. PECKY Bawden, of Olympia, and Marion Frankland, of Prairie, Wash., writes:

"Inclosed you will please find $1

'Tiny' and He Collect $33.25 for Smokes

Irving Green
You've got to hand it to Irving Green, the cigar store man. Not content with helping The Star smoke fund at his own stores, 1408 Third ave., and at the Arctic club building, he enlisted the services of no less celebrity than "Tiny" Burnett, the orchestra leader at the Moore theatre. Between them they raised $33.25 in the past few days, bring Green in as the leader of the cigar store boys. "Attaboy, Irving."

for tobacco for our boys in France. I picked blackberries to earn this money to help our boys along."

Antia Worked Him Up
And L. G. Meeklem, of Everson, Wash., writes:

"I have just read in your paper

(Editor's Mail department), some letters from some poor, misguided mortals, detailing the terrible harm of cigaret smoking. Tho' not a tobacco user, I wish to say that at this time of all times, those letters give me a pain. You will find inclosed my little old two-bits (more to come weekly), and we will thank the writers of those letters for working me up.

"Yours to beat the Hohenzollerns and to make swollen fortunes bear their full share of the financial cost of the war."

Today, too, we received the second $5 installment promised by a local cigar smoker as his monthly contribution. He has eschewed his smokes so that he can afford to send the money.

The Danish Brotherhood sent $10, the Highland Athletic club $5.

The Nonpareil club will hold a dance next Thursday night, at Georgetown, and the Knights of Pythias next Saturday night, at their hall, First ave. and Pike st. The proceeds of both will go to the smoke fund.

Every 25-cent piece will buy 45 cents' worth of tobacco at regular rates, for the soldiers in France. Remember, they cannot get American tobacco in France unless we send it to them.

Every penny contributed is spent for the actual purchase of tobacco. All the other expenses, such as clerks, stationery, etc., are donated.
