

MOVIE STAR CATCHES THIEF

Bryant Washburn, Coming to Liberty, Is Real Thief Taker of Movies

BRYANT WASHBURN, Esq., movie star who comes to the Liberty Thursday, proved himself a detective as well when he apprehended and assisted in the capture of two burglars. Mr. Washburn saw two suspicious appearing men opposite his home in Chicago about midnight. Stealing quietly to the street he followed them. The men were inspecting his home and others thereabouts, apparently seeking places for entrance. The actor slid thru the shadows to another street and returned with two policemen. One of the suspects was captured immediately, but the second fled. While one policeman held the prisoner, Washburn and the second policeman gave chase to the fugitive. They caught him finally, and after a desperate fight overpowered him. Both men, the police say, have long records as criminals.

Valli Valli and Bryant Washburn, in "Fibbers," Liberty, Thursday.

Billie Burke, in "Arms and the Girl," closes her engagement at the Coliseum Wednesday. At the gates of Paris, only to be captured by the Boches, is the lot of Billie Burke, in this story of intrigue and an American girl's triumph.

William V. Mong, who has been directing pictures for the Universal and Triangle companies, has returned to the business of acting. He has been cast for an important part in Raymond Wells' new picture, "Fanatics."

George Broadhurst's famous play, "The Law of the Land," that thrilled theatre-going America with its thrilling mystery, its intensely dramatic situations, and its fine insight into human nature, is at the Liberty for the last time Wednesday night.

Corrine Griffith, who stars in "The Love Doctor," the Vitagraph attraction at the Strand, has a colic pup, a gift from a friend, which she hopes will be a worthy successor to old Shep, the famous Vitagraph colic which died a few months ago. Miss Griffith is training the pup, which already shows signs of becoming an actor and perhaps a star.

Louise Glauco doesn't like the word "vampire," and she says she loathes the kind of women she has been called upon to portray in some of her pictures. Louise, who is just the opposite type of girl from the creatures of her pictures, is ambitious to essay on the screen roles similar to those played by Bernhardt, Duse and Modjeska. Miss Glauco started in pictures as an ingenue.

It is not often that one hears hisses and cries of "shame" at a motion picture entertainment, but that is just what happened at a performance of "Redemption," with Evelyn Nesbit and her son, Russell Thaw, in New York. "Redemption" is shown here at the Clemmer.

In "The Secret Man," which is shown at the Mission for the last time tonight, romance and mystery are happily blended.

Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson is to come to the United States to appear as "The Stranger," in a picture of Jerome K. Jerome's play, "The Passing of the Third Floor Back." He will receive what

A New Face Without Surgical Skin Peeling

The surgical operation of face peeling is too radical, too severe. There's a better way of removing the evilized complexion and skin that is entirely safe and rational. Ordinary Mercorized Wax causes the civilized skin to come off, but gradually and gently. Unlike the surgical process, the skin is not forcibly taken off in big pieces all at once, but almost invisible flaky particles are absorbed by the wax and about two weeks are required to complete the transformation. There's no pain, no discomfort. Nature renews complexion the same way, shedding tiny cutaneous scales day by day. But poor circulation, or other abnormal condition, may interfere with the shedding—a "bad complexion" results. Then Mercorized Wax assists Nature by hastening the removal of the aged, faded or discolored top skin. Thus only the lively, young, healthy hued skin is in evidence, as in robust girlhood. This is why Mercorized Wax produces the indescribable beauty of ever-renewing youth. The wax is put on at night, like cold cream, and washed off in the morning. You can procure it at any druggist's; an ounce is sufficient.—Advertisement.

Oiga Petrova is to edit a monthly department of information in the Ladies' World, concerning matters of dramatic poise and expression.

A vivid portrayal of the manner in which the secret services of Germany and France operated during the years of the great European conflict, is given in "On Dangerous Ground," at the Class A.

William Russell's new play "Fride and the Man," at the Colonial, is, beyond doubt, the best "atmosphere" drama handed hand some William since he took form and effect in the motion pictures.

Emmy Wehlen was a popular musical comedy favorite before she became a star in Metro pictures. Although she now plays in silent pictures exclusively, she still continues her vocal training, with a view to returning to the stage.

An unusual interest is attached to the first photodrama featuring William S. Hart as an "Ice-Art" craft star, as the story, "The Narrow Trail," was written by the famous interpreter of the Wild West himself, who built it around a series of narratives told him by a friend of the early pioneer days.

Walter Miller, favorite Metro player, appears as a true patriot who enlists at the first call for volunteers in Metro's "Draft 258," in vivid contrast to his role in the name part of "The Slacker."

Rheumatism

A Home Cure Given by One Who Has It

In the spring of 1913 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case. I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of $1.00, but, understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today. Mark H. Jackson, No. 1950 Gurney Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y.
