

IT'S WAS UNCALLED FOR, COLONEL SAVILLE

"The nation is now doing its bit; the city of Seattle is not." Col. M. E. Saville so declared in a statement at Tacoma. Seattle, he says, "contains a hotbed of treason." The great big majority of people in Seattle are heart and soul with Maj. Gen. Greene and with Col. Saville in the effort to make this city clean and safe for soldiers. This same Seattle resents any imputation that it is the one laggard in patriotic devotion to the country. Seattle has again and again demonstrated as a patriotic spirit as any city of its size. Col. Saville's charge of treason, almost directed at everyone in Seattle, is uncalled for.

The Seattle Star

NIGHT EDITION

WEATHER FORECAST: Tonight fair; Saturday rain; moderate southerly winds.

THE GREATEST DAILY CIRCULATION OF ANY PAPER IN THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST

SEATTLE, WASH., FRIDAY, NOV. 9, 1917.

PRICE ONE CENT Everywhere in Seattle

KERENSKY HASN'T LOST RUSSIA

Shepherd, Back From Europe, Says Loss of Petrograd Won't Be Vital Blow

BY WM. G. SHEPHERD

U. S. Staff Correspondent Who Arrived Today From Russia

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—If Kerensky succeeded in getting away from Petrograd and establishing a government at Moscow, I firmly believe he will be able to carry enough of the army with him to keep up a semblance of war—and that is the best we can ask of Russia at this time.

There will be no civil war in Russia—aside, perhaps, from some street fighting in Petrograd. There are two kinds of soldiers in Russia—those who want to fight and those who don't—and it is just as hard to get the latter to fight the former as it is to get them to fight Germans.

CZAR MOBILIZED TOO MANY MEN AND JOB IS TO GET SOME BACK TO THEIR HOMES

The czar mobilized too many men. He put 20,000,000 men in uniform. The great problem facing Kerensky in October was how to get some of these men back to their homes. Every time there is a change in socialistic government in Petrograd the geographical area over which the incoming government has control is reduced until now the new alleged government of Russia which has replaced Kerensky is governing only Petrograd alone.

In Russia there are vast forces at work, quietly and often in an underground way. But they are bringing evidence together. As far as the Bolsheviks are concerned, we may as well look the facts squarely in the face.

The average Russian soldier who does not want to fight is a Bolshevik—not because of theories of socialism, but because the Bolsheviks are against the war.

If this Bolshevik happens to be a peasant—then he is a double Bolshevik and he not only is unwilling to fight, but unwilling to remain at the front. He wants to return home and get his piece of land.

Behind Lenine and Trotsky there are undoubtedly hundreds of thousands of Russian soldiers who will welcome any talk of peace.

If Lenine and Trotsky make a separate peace, it will be a separate peace for only a portion of the Russian army, which has been poisoned by the Lenine doctrines.

Petrograd is very likely to fall, anyhow. The Germans will probably get Helsingfors within a short time and then they will cut the Finnish railway, which connects Russia with Sweden. But even if we have to say good-bye to Petrograd, this does not mean that Russia is gone.

The thing that impresses me most on my arrival here—and particularly in view of the latest news from Russia—is that we of America will have to carry the load. It will fall more and more heavily on us.

IS ASTONISHED AT LIBERTY ALLOWED IN U. S. TO GERMAN ALIENS AND SYMPATHIZERS

I am astonished after having been in all the warring countries of Europe to see the freedom with which German aliens and sympathizers in the United States move about in perfect liberty. It was the Germans who poisoned and paralyzed Russia.

The greatest piece of diplomacy in the war was achieved by the German who first worked out the scheme of permitting Lenine to pass thru Germany into Russia.

I was on the steamer Christianaford, en route from America to Russia, early last spring, when the Canadian authorities forcibly removed Leon Trotsky from our midst. This was at Halifax. If he had been held indefinitely, history might have been different in Russia. So also with Lenine.

Both Trotsky and Lenine have been in New York. They have friends and sympathizers here yet—men who believe as they do about the war, and men who, if given the opportunity will try to do the same things in the United States that they are doing in Russia.

KERENSKY REPORTED TO BE A PRISONER

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 9.—Arrest of Premier Kerensky of Russia was reported in messages received here today. No details were given of how the Bolsheviks succeeded in apprehending the head of the provisional government.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The Russian embassy was tremendously encouraged by the United Press report from Petrograd that the Kerensky government was taking a stand against the Bolsheviks.

The embassy regarded as highly improbable the Stockholm report that Kerensky had been arrested.

This is the first direct report of an encouraging nature we have had from Petrograd," said Secretary Sookine, of the embassy, "and the Stockholm rumor must be considered as unauthentic and highly improbable."

Sookine said he was still without official advice from the provisional government, and that fact alone gave the embassy concern.

The embassy stated that it was its belief the defection was purely local, and confined to the Petrograd soldiers' and workmen's council. A report of the refusal by two Cossack regiments to obey the provisional government's order does not impair Kerensky's authority seriously, stated the embassy.

Greater American war measures and deep anxiety over all Russia's attitude toward the Petrograd revolt were the principal official developments here today from Kerensky's deposition and flight. Russia was officially regarded as thru with offensive fighting against Germany for some time.

Official hope that the situation is not as bad as the Maximalists report from Petrograd painted it, is based on the absence of demands for a separate peace and Kerensky's strength outside of Petrograd. However, if the Bolshevik platform is taken up by the entire nation and the army at the front, officials admit there will be little hope of Russia's active service against Germany until the Slav's internal problems are settled definitely.

Kerensky's hesitancy in applying the mailed fist to the extreme radicals is blamed for the present chaos.

FINLAND IS FACING WINTER OF FAMINE

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 9.—Finland's position is desperate and her outlook hopeless, according to an appeal sent President Wilson today by Prof. Wendt. The whole nation, he declared, approaches the winter in a state of famine.

TURKS IN RETREAT

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Turkish troops are retreating toward Hebron, approximately 24 miles south of Jerusalem, as the British advance, an official statement said today.

What Russian Factions Stand For

Maximalists—The party insisting on immediate institution of the "maximum program" of extreme socialism—division of all property among the people, equal distribution of riches, government by conventions of the people, etc.

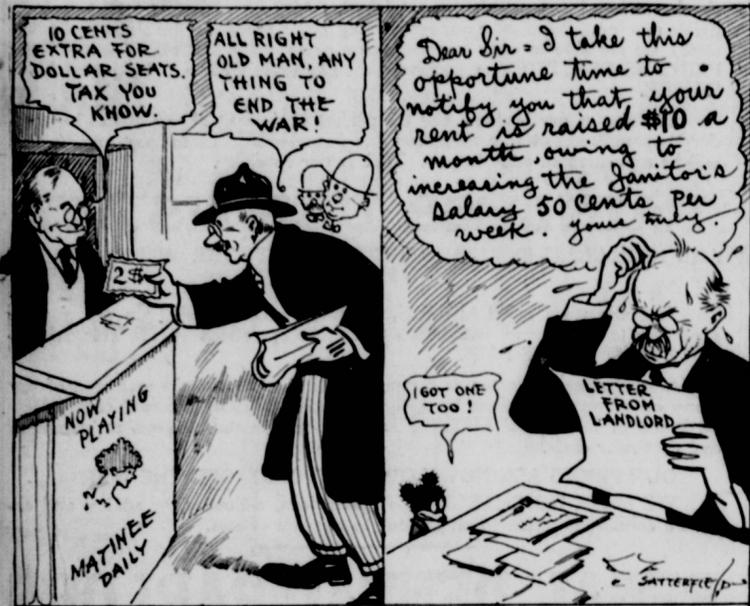

Bolsheviks—Maximalists raised to the nth degree, who add to the Maximalist program the demand for internationalism, brotherhood of man, no wars, no armies, no navies. The closest thing to them in the United States are the I. W. W.'s. Party has grown up since the Russian revolution, and many of its leaders formerly resided in the United States.

Socialists—Kerensky's party. Subscribers to general socialist ideals, but recognizing the necessity of a change made gradually and not antagonistic to occasional use of anti-socialist means to greater reform.

Socialist-Democrats—Party best typified by Prof. Paul N. Militsoff and Prince Koff, two of the leaders in the revolt which overthrew the czar. They are the bull moose party workers of Russia.

There are scores of other minor parties in Russia, all being branches of these, and including minimalists (as near the reactionaries as Russia's democracy now permits), and soldiers' parties.

It Makes a Difference

IT'S YOUR DUTY TO YOUR COUNTRY AND YOU CHEERFULLY DO IT. BUT TO BE SANDBAGGED LIKE THIS SURELY GETS YOUR GOAT

LIBERTY BONDS TO HELP BUILD CITY CAR LINE

Caldwell Says People Can Exchange War Bonds for 6% City Bonds

$40,000 AMOUNT NEEDED

Seattle citizens may turn in their Liberty Bonds for 6 per cent city bonds, to speed up the extension of the municipal car line into Ballard.

This plan was sanctioned by Corporation Counsel Caldwell and President Fitzgerald, of the city council, Friday.

The council, in special session Thursday afternoon, voted to let the general public absorb the $40,000 worth of bonds, which must be sold to sweep away the only legal restrictions blocking the extension.

Open Subscription List

It was decided to open a subscription list, in the comptroller's office, where citizens can sign up for car line bonds.

Bonds may be purchased in denominations as low as $50 from the city comptroller.

Will Hasten Construction

If the issue is absorbed in one week, Superior Judge Hall will remove all restrictions against extension of the line into Ballard.

The bonds will be a first lien on the receipts of the line, which will at last "end somewhere" and go on a paying basis.

Experts have estimated that the receipts by the extension, will increase $250 a day. If they only increase half that amount, Councilman Erickson says, the line will more than pay expenses, and will sell 25 tickets for a dollar, at the heart of the Ballard business district, to the city hall.

Three thousand subscription blanks have been ordered printed. The form contains the following provisions:

"I pay herewith to the city comptroller of the city of Seattle 10 per cent of said amount subscribed and agree to pay the balance to the city comptroller of the city of Seattle as follows: Forty-five per cent on or before December 1, 1917, and the balance of 45 per cent on or before January 15, 1918. Bonds to be delivered upon payment in full of this subscription.

"It is agreed that upon my failure to make the subsequent payments as herein provided, the city may recover by an action at law the balance due upon this subscription.

"It is agreed that the city council may, by ordinance, increase the bond issue from $40,000 to such other sum not to exceed $125,000, for the purpose of extending said municipal railway line from the terminus aforesaid northward to the city limits."

A communication was read at the Chamber of Commerce and Commerce Club luncheon Friday, pointing out that "in case the bonds are saleable, there is nothing in the action of the chamber (which launched the legal move against the extension) to prevent the construction of the Ballard extension, as the objection was directed against the illegal use of public funds and not against the extension of the line into Ballard."

It was submitted by the bureau of taxation.

CLANCY GETS JOHN CLANCY; THIS IS THE FIRST TIME

John Clancy, former roadhouse proprietor, will begin a jail sentence of 20 days next Monday, as the result of the state supreme court's recent decision, sustaining the superior court sentence and the denial of a new trial.

Clancy pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and serve a sentence of 20 days by the superior court, in October, for having 238 quarts of beer and three pints of whisky at his Meadows roadhouse, on August 29. He appealed his case to the supreme court on July 25. The higher court sustained the decision. He moved for a new trial then and this action was denied this week.

County Clerk P. F. Thomas issued commitment papers Thursday night.

First Time in Jail

Deputy Sheriff Matt Starwich brought Clancy to the sheriff's office Friday, where Sheriff Stirling, upon Clancy's request, granted him until Monday to clear up some business previous to his going to jail.

"If it's got to be, it's got to be, that's all," was all that Clancy said, as he appeared at the courthouse today.

Clancy has appeared in court time and again, courthouse attaches say, to answer for some infringement of the law, but this is the first time he has been unable to escape a jail sentence.

Clancy was in the saloon business, a race track man and roadhouse keeper. Recently he ran the Cave dance hall on Washington st.

HINDENBURG TO TRY TO RETAKE PASSCHENDAELE

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS United Press Correspondent

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FLANDERS, Nov. 9.—Crown Prince Rupprecht, of Bavaria, has not yet recovered from the tremendous punch just administered by British troops in the capture of Passchendaele. There have been no counter attacks to date.

Apparently Tuesday's blow left the enemy too groggy.

From documents on captured of fers, however, it was learned Hindenburg has issued orders that he must have Passchendaele back.

Compliance with counter attack orders was expected soon. Meaning the Canadians are confidently expecting in the village.

There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight when the Sophie Tucker jazz cabaret and dance gets into full swing at the Butler cafe at 11 o'clock tonight, continuing thence to midnight and on and on.

If there were any doubt before as to just how warm a little affair it's going to be, Maybelle Darrell and her red-bog pardon—auburn hair, and Billy Tower as an accompanist, have dispelled that.

For Tower and Darrell, as they are billed at the Moore theatre, furnish "food for squirrels." They've got a nut act that's every bit as good as it's cracked up to be.

Have you something to swap? Use Star Want Ads.

Carmen Charge Wage Decision Is Unfavorable

Violent dissatisfaction was expressed by the officials and members of the Street Car Men's union Friday over the decision handed down Thursday night by the board of arbitration, headed by Dr. Suzzallo, covering salaries and working conditions for employees of the Puget Sound Traction, Light & Power Co.

"As yet we have received no official notification of the findings," explained Sam Wallace, president of the unionists, "but from what we can interpret from the awards in the newspapers, I can say that the results of the arbitration—a very unsatisfactory."

"The findings are entirely too vague. Nothing definite is explained and the members of the board have failed in their promise to meet us and explain what is what."

Wallace Joins Duncan

"We don't like the way James Duncan, our mediator, handled our interests. It looked like he wanted to get rid of his duties on the board so he could hurry away to the Buffalo convention.

"One of the biggest things which we desired was a change in the working conditions. We wanted a shorter working day and a condition which would allow a man to have some time with his family. We didn't get anything like this at all."

"As for mediation, we consider that it is a failure as far as the laboring man is concerned. We're going to be good sports and continue to work. We're helpless to do anything until Duncan returns and explains his action."

No Way to Enforce It

Wallace pointed out one feature of the settlement was the wording of the agreement, which did not provide for a means of forcing the traction company to comply with the board's decision.

"The only definite guarantee set forth is in the case of extra men," he said. "Extra men are assured of $50 instead of $45 a month."

Union officials say a protest meet-

(Continued on page 16)

Yi, Yi, Yip! Red-Headed Maybelle Joins Sophie Tucker in Big Midnight Joy Cabaret Tonight for Smoke Fund

cabaret performers de luxe named yesterday, that makes 25 actors from the Moore, Pantages and Palace Hip theatres, besides "Tiny" Burnett and other orchestra members.

"We've said it before, and it'll bear repetition: The cabaret will be the best of its kind Seattle has ever enjoyed either in cafe or theatre. That's saying a mouthful, but it's the truth, as Bert Baker of the Moore would say.

The headliners at the three leading vaudeville houses in town are among the attractions, namely Sophie Tucker and her jazz band of the Moore, Harry Jolson of the Pantages, and the Rural Eight of the Palace Hip. These and the other acts are giving their services free for the patriotic cause—to swell the Star tobacco fund for the boys who are now in the trenches of France. This arrangement was made possible by the courtesy of Martin Beck of the Orpheum Vaudeville circuit; Carl Reiter, manager of the Moore; Joe Muller, manager of the Palace Hip, and Ed Milne, manager of the Pantages.

Only a limited number of seats will be sold. So get in early. The cafe will accommodate from 500 to 600. There will be dancing for the crowd between cabaret acts. Toy balloons will be distributed thru the courtesy of A. Cheshire Mitchell, the Butler hotel manager. A gala affair is planned, and a sure enough good in France may also enjoy the bit in France might also enjoy the bit of comfort tobacco can give them.

Miss Tucker, who inspired the show, has given similar affairs for the past several weeks, having already raised $2,000 for the tobacco fund in other cities. As she says, she hasn't much time to "do knit-time." So "the Mary Garden of Ragtime," as she is called, and her boys, the Jazz band, are doing what they can for the smoke fund.

And tonight's show is the biggest they've gotten up yet. It will be a midnight frolic you can't afford to miss.

Maybelle Darrell

Tower and Darrell are the extra added attractions to the long list of

SPY TIPS OFF U. S. RAID ON GERMAN OFFICE

By United Press Leased Wire

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—That a German spy had advanced knowledge of the proposed government raid on Hamburg-American line offices here was believed today. Attaches of the line had time to cart away several chests full of documents before the 70 federal agents and policemen took possession.

Despite this, government officers said they expected to find hidden in one of the safes complete records of all American troops' transport movements since this country entered the war. This they said, would cause internment of several enemy aliens.

The offices today are being prepared for the port war board and the custodian of alien property.

Everybody who has anything to sell is complaining that there is a shortage in pennies. Nothing too small to take away from us.

WOMEN LAST TO GIVE UP WHEN REVOLT BEGINS

By United Press Leased Wire

PETROGRAD, Nov. 9.—Petrograd is almost normal today with the new revolutionary government in full control and maintaining practically complete order.

Change from Kerensky government to the Bolshevik regime has been accomplished without bloodshed. The Woman's Battalion of Death charged by the old government with defense of the winter palace held out to the last and only surrendered when literally overwhelmed by the Bolshevik troops and menaced by enough guns to blow up the whole palace.

For four hours the women, assisted by a few other troops loyal to Kerensky, bitterly fought off all advances. Then the cruiser Aurora was brought up, the former premier addressed 6,000 soldiers and persuaded them not to march on Petrograd.

President Trotsky, of the Petrograd soviet, stated that the new regime proposed to try all members of the Kerensky government, on the charge that they were conspirators in the Korniloff revolt.

Kerensky's escape from the Maximilians was due to the fact that he left Petrograd on Wednesday for the front. The former premier had anticipated a clash with the Bolsheviks and had detached a number of units to come to the capital.

He was en route to meet these troops when he received word of the Bolshevik success and fled toward Moscow.

The Smolny institute, adopted as headquarters by the new government, presented a scene of extraordinary animation today as the new officials bent to their tasks. Nicolai Lenine's appearance was greeted with cheers by his followers. Many orders were issued to the troops today, and the "Red" soldiers are expected promptly to execute them.

The soviet's military committee today decided to imprison Gen. Korniloff and others not in sympathy with its program in the fortress of St. Peter and Paul.

Official hope that the situation is not as bad as the Maximalists report from Petrograd painted it, is based on the absence of demands for a separate peace and Kerensky's strength outside of Petrograd. However, if

Buy Tickets at Following Places:

- Moore theatre.
- Butler hotel.
- Green's Cigar store, 1406 3rd ave.
- United Cigar store, 614 2nd ave.
- Gunst Cigar store, 611 2nd ave.
- Spring Cigar store, Butler hotel.
- Spring Cigar store, 707 1st ave.
- Spring Cigar store, 910 2nd ave.
- Keiter & Bernbaum Cigar store, 1416 2nd ave.
- Keiter & Bernbaum Cigar store, 1210 2nd ave.
- Purley's Cigar store, 1120 2nd ave.
- Sim's Cigar store, 400 Union st.
- F. N. Kelley Cigar store, 919 2nd ave.
- Ray L. Gonyea Cigar store, 1116 2nd ave.
- Brown & Hulén Billiard parlor.

JITNEY LAW UPHELD

By United Press Leased Wire

OLYMPIA, Nov. 9.—The supreme court has refused to restrain prosecutions of jitney men for operating without state bonds, thus knocking out the second attempt of jitney men to run independent of state requirements.