SAMMIES IN FRANCE MUST BEHAVE WHEN OFF THE JOB

BY J. W. PEGLER
United Press Correspondent

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Jan. 16.—A general order issued today creates a "blight" for America's soldiers. It announces the grant of a week's leave to every soldier for each four months' service at the front. These days are to be spent in special recreation centers, now being established "Somewhere in France."

They are being built with the idea of furnishing the fighting men holiday entertainment and rest.

The order hints that the leave periods will probably be lengthened after the soldiers have acquitted themselves heroically in future heavy fighting.

The necessity of proper conduct of the holiday crowds is emphasized in the order, and it is asserted that subsequent leave depends largely on the decorum displayed. Paris is only to be visited with special permission.

WILL DEDICATE NILE TEMPLE SERVICE FLAG

Dedication of Nile Temple's service flag in the Masonic temple at 7:30 tonight will be the big ceremony during the visit of Charles E. Owenshere of Minneapolis, imperial potentate of the Ancient Arabic Order of Mystic Shrine.

It will be attended by delegates, bands and patrols from Portland, Tacoma and Victoria. The distinguished visitor was taken thru the shipyards Wednesday morning. The men of the party had luncheon at the Arctic club and the women at the Sunset club.

NOVEL RED CROSS SHOW
The Hippodrome Road Show troupe which is now at the Palace Hip was snow-blockaded at Paradise, Mont., recently. A number of Red Cross workers were on the same train.

A benefit for the Red Cross was quickly arranged. Bill Millard, of Millard Brothers, was chosen manager, and the entire vaudeville bill was given in a schoolhouse.

To work up a crowd, a crier with a bell was sent thru the town.

Thirty-six dollars was turned over to the Red Cross.

"POM-POM" IS COMING
Saucy little Mitz appears first as a famous prima donna in the theatre "greenroom," in Henry W. Savage's comic opera, "Pom-Pom," and then as the mischievous "Pom-Pom," the pickpocket.

She files thru one novel scene after another. Finally, when she swaggers about the stage, attired in a "model frock," all silk and lace above, but with ragged trousers showing beneath the silken skirts, the combination of a "best girl" and a bad boy makes a striking picture.

Mitz is coming to the Metropolitan Sunday, January 27.

DOESN'T WANT TO REST
"Canary Cottage," with Mae Bronte as the "Irrepressible," is coming to Seattle for Metropolitan appearance the first week in February. The strenuous record of eight appearances a week for the many weeks since the musical comedy began has not been sufficient to make Miss Bronte cry for a rest.

Northern Bank Dividend Monday
The first dividend of the Northern Bank & Trust Co. will be paid beginning next Monday. It is to be 20 per cent.

Nearly a year has passed since the affairs of the Northern bank were taken over by the state bank examiner.

The cost of liquidation up to December 1 was $25,415.44. Disbursements during the past year for preservation of the bank's assets amount to $24,398.26. The income has been $17,228.

Payments were due Tuesday, when a court order was signed authorizing them, but the examiner's office will not be ready to make them until Monday, on account of the work of signing and verifying dividend checks.

All depositors must present their certificates of claim before receiving their money. The demand may be presented in person at the bank examiner's office, 213 White building, or the certificate may be mailed and a check will be returned.

At the time of the failure of the Northern bank it had $13,867.24 cash on hand. Its other assets were listed as worth $1,755,958.49. But this was vastly exaggerated. Its total liabilities amounted to $1,649,780.78. Total claims approved, $1,598,802.54. After the failure of the bank, the president admitted embezzlement in about the sum of $60,000.

FAMOUS CHORAL CLUB SINGS HERE TONIGHT
Members of the Tacoma Orpheum club, famous choral organization that won high honors competing against the best singers in the world at the San Francisco exposition, arrived in Seattle Wednesday to appear with the Philharmonic orchestra at the Metropolitan theatre at 8 p. m.

There are 50 men in the Orpheum club, which came into existence 15 years ago. Conductor John Spargur, of the Philharmonic orchestra, is also head of the Orpheum club.

INDIANS AND RED CROSS
EVERETT, Jan. 16.—Indian boys and girls are doing their bit for the Red Cross. Pupils of the Tulalip Indian reservation school have agreed to furnish two sacks of sphagnum moss a week for surgical dressings.

MELODY FOR CHINA
There'll be plenty of melody in high official circles in China shortly.

The next vessel sailing from Seattle will take two Victrolas for Chan Chin Chong, premier of China.

TROTSKY IN MOVIES! BUT HE DID NOT STAR

Clara Kimball Young announces that Leon Trotsky, now a leader of the Bolsheviks, appeared with her in pictures while he was living in New York. That was in the movie named, "My Official Wife."

The producers of her pictures are crying, "Woe is me! Alas! And lackaday!"

That's because they were unable to read the future and give a conspicuous role to the said Trotsky.

The importance of the role he played may be judged by the fact that his pay on the days he worked was $5.

"PRUNELLA"
Marguerite Clark is about to start a movie production of the fantasy, "Prunella."

That will be remembered by theatre-goers as a charming piece, in which she won her best fame on the stage.

It was produced by Winthrop Ames at the Little Theatre in New York in 1914.

"His Own Home Town," a recent novel by Larry Evans, has been made into a picture, starring Charles Ray, who is being featured in a series of similar roles. Ray, better than any other, is able to impersonate a young man from a small town. These pictures are being made by Thomas H. Ince.

Taylor Holmes is now at work on "Ruggles of Red Gap."

Peggy Hyland is now listed among the featured performers of the Fox company.

At the Coliseum theatre this week, pictures of Gen. "Black Jack" Pershing, commander of the Mexican expeditionary forces, are shown, and immediately afterward are shown pictures of Gen. "Black Jack" Pershing, commander-in-chief of democracy's expeditionary forces. His "fighting face" brings down the house.

When it comes to beating up a Balkan army, it takes one millionaire's son, one Bowery tough, and a cowpuncher. All from America, of course. That's the "American Way," at the Clemmer theatre this week.

SPECTACULAR SCENES IN "CLEOPATRA," DUE SATURDAY
Thrilling chariot races across desert sands, hand-to-hand conflicts between spear-armed soldiers and the triumphant entry of Octavius' troops into Alexandria are to be seen in William Fox's film production of Doug Fairbanks in "A Kansas Musketeer," at the Coliseum.

"Cleopatra," which will be presented at the Metropolitan for eight days, beginning at the Saturday matinee.

The Sphinx and the pyramids look down upon the scenes in this film, as they did thousands of years ago.

"HELL'S HINGES" CREAK
Big Bill Hart comes to the Class A for the remainder of the week in a reissue of one of his old favorites, "Hell's Hinges," with Louise Glaum playing the opposite role. Among many of the big things is seen an entire Western town in flames.

THEY WOULD, THAT
"Draft 258," a patriotic film, is holding forth at the Rex this week. No doubt all the 258s who were in the draft would enjoy a chance to see it.

audiences at the Liberty this week. Norma dances in a cabaret for a living until one day Dan Cupid happens along, and Norma and a young artist fall in love. She resembles his former wife. They live happily ever after and Norma refuses to smother any more girls.

DOUG CHOOSES GRAND CANYON FOR PLAY FIELD
Doug Fairbanks certainly picked a rugged little play field in order to pull his dare-devil stunts when he picked the Grand Canyon of Arizona. This latest film, "A Kansas Musketeer," is the name of the film, and is now playing at the Coliseum for the week.

Doug rambles around the dangerous cliffs like a mountain goat and stands on his head in spots where tourists would never venture.

"What would we do in this world without our dreams?"
Indeed, what?
In that one question is summed up an entire essay; as worthy an editorial as has appeared anywhere. Yet it is only a single caption in an ordinary photoplay, "The Ghosts of Yesterday," at the Liberty theatre.

KIND YOU READ ABOUT IS "ROARING BILL" WAGSTAFF
Dustin Farnum is the attraction at the Mission in a new film of the land of the midnight sun, called "North of 53." As "Roaring Bill" Wagstaff, Farnum makes a typical character of the North, such as one reads about in books.

VETERAN COMES HOME
R. F. Smith, veteran of the Sioux Indian campaign of 1890, has been invalided home from France, bearing the emblem of the American legion. He joined the Canadian contingent in 1915.
