UP TO US TO FIT NEW MEN TO SHIPYARDS

The problem of absorbing into the shipyards those skilled mechanics imported from Kansas City and seeing that the standard of work is maintained throughout the entire plant will be placed before the labor unions for solution, according to J. A. Silcox, in charge of the federal employment bureau, which has sent 2,100 men to the plants in the last three weeks.

Adjustment of conditions so as to guarantee the highest degree of cooperation will be left to the unions. If this plan fails, other measures will have to be adopted, said Mr. Silcox. He is holding daily conferences with labor leaders to encourage this method.

Mr. Silcox says that rather than use force in settling labor disputes, the government prefers to have labor unions take matters in hand and develop efficient leadership.

Since January 7, 6,000 men have been registered for shipyard work. Nearly 400 were skilled mechanics in shipbuilding trades and were put to work immediately. Only 254 have been imported.

About half of the 4,000 registered unskilled men have been given jobs. Nearly 2,000 are still waiting to be called.

Capt. Betterton, First Lieut. Bill Hanson, son of Ole, and their company of kiddies, ready to drill. The company is made up of sons of residents in the Broadway district, and is 15 strong when out in full force. Those who have seen the youngsters, say they sure can drill, too.

PHOTOGRAPHER ARRESTED HERE IS SPY SUSPECT

Working on the theory that he is a German spy, federal officials conducted a careful examination Monday of Matthew Torke, Townsend photographer, arrested as he arrived at the Colman dock on the steamer Sol Duc, Saturday afternoon.

Photographs of sound fortifications were found in Torke's possession by Lieut. F. W. Becker, of the naval intelligence bureau, who made the arrest. They were being taken to California, it is said.

Federal officials say Torke told them he was going to sell the photos to men in the German army, but his story is doubted, since he had but two copies of each picture.

Torke is 28 years old, and claims to be a native of Germany and a naturalized citizen. He has a brother in the German army, and two in this country. One is said to be interned at Hot Springs, Ark.

Otto Reimer, 26, and George Gilbert, 56, are held in the city jail for federal investigation of the charge that they slipped past sentries at the J. F. Duthie & Co. shipyard without giving satisfactory reason for their presence in the shipyard.

Both claim they are citizens. Reimer is a laborer and Gilbert a car repairer for the Northern Pacific railroad.

HE'S 59 YEARS OLD, BUT YOUNG ENOUGH TO CHASE KAISER BILL'S U-BOATS

Do you think he's done his bit? "When this war is over, and I've got a few Germans to my credit, I guess I can say that I've done my bit," is what he thinks about it.

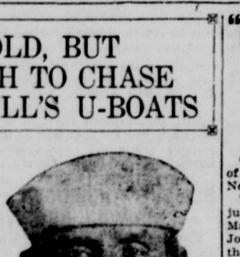

R. L. Lewis, boatswain's mate, first class, United States sub-chaser 302, Bremerton navy yard, is 59 years old and retired from naval service in 1897. But when the war broke out, he couldn't resist, and was sworn into service again August 15. He claims to be the oldest volunteer on the Pacific coast.

The seven medals that he wears were given him for heroism, for services rendered kings and republics, and for efficiency.

Two of them are state of Washington medals for expert marksmanship and for making a sharpshooter's grade while in the Second Washington Infantry, 1901 to 1907.

Next is a British government medal for the construction of the aerial systems at the Duthie and Seattle Construction shipyards.

He is married and the father of a 10-year-old boy and a 2-month-old girl. He lives at 5645 Beacon ave.

"CROWTHER IS ALL WRONG," SAY NO. 9 MEN

Col. J. M. Hawthorne and his staff of draft board executives for district No. 9 are on the warpath.

They say they were put in an unjust light by a letter from Provost Marshal Gen. Crowder to Senator Jones, saying their board was one of the most extravagant in the country.

According to Crowther, it cost Uncle Sam $27.14 in expenses for every man they certified into army service, while the average nationwide cost was $7.59 per man.

This was his answer to a request by Col. Hawthorne for more pay to draft executives.

District No. 9 officials say their cost for men examined was never $4 per man, and that this was the basis used to get the national average of $7.59. The request for more pay was made for all boards, they insist on the theory that they worked 11 hours a day and only got $33 a month.

Unusually large amounts of money thru the bank, a report should be made. It may lead to the capture of German agents. Large sums are necessary for carrying on propaganda, and that money usually comes thru the banks.

Clerks Can Help
Hotel clerks have an excellent chance to uncover those who are menacing the nation, Mr. Allen declares. If a well-dressed man stops at the average hotel, apparently having no business and coming from nowhere, it is quite possible that he is connected with German gold.

In Germany, every American who registers at a hotel is reported immediately to the authorities, even in normal times. The government makes it a business to find out who the stranger is and watches all his moves. Such a system in America would soon round up the majority of spies, is the belief of Allen.

PACKERS' COMBINE REVEALED IN PROBE OF MEAT INDUSTRY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—A buying combine, including all members of the "big five" packers, so well formed that live stock prices were controlled in every market, was revealed in the probe of the meat packing industry by the federal trade commission. Additional evidence of a sensational character involving scores of live stock buyers will be placed under the spot light.

AMERICAN FAMILIES COULD CRUSH SPIES, SAYS U.S. ATTORNEY

What's your neighbor doing? Does he eat suspiciously? Does he have strange visitors at night? What does he carry away with him?

A careful check by staunch American families on the actions of their neighbors would be of great help to the secret service and would safeguard the city against enemy plotters, according to U. S. Attorney Clay Allen.

Vigilance on the part of the women, especially, would be very effective, Mr. Allen believes. An organization similar to that of the Minute Men would beat any secret service in the world, he says.

Women are in a position to know what is going on in their neighbor's homes. If they make reports to the Minute Men or federal officials, enemy propaganda may be run down more quickly, he thinks.
