SLAYS WOMAN; SHOOTS SELF

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—With a self-inflicted bullet wound in his body, Robert E. Casper was near death today in a hospital. If he recovers he will be charged with murdering Mrs. Hazel Duncan Powers, who was shot to death at her home late Sunday. Casper, according to the police, admitted shooting Mrs. Powers after a quarrel. Mrs. Powers' husband is said to be in France with a machine gun battalion. She was formerly the wife of George Barham of Los Angeles.

BUILD BARRACKS ON CAMPUS

Construction of barracks for the student army training corps and the naval unit at the University of Washington will be started Tuesday. Only 1,000 men will be accepted for the army and 700 for the navy courses. All recruits must be high school graduates.

THE MAKING OF A FAMOUS MEDICINE

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Is Prepared For Woman's Use.

A visit to the laboratory where this successful remedy is made impresses even the casual looker-on with the reliability, accuracy, skill and cleanliness which attend the making of this great medicine for woman's ills.

Over 250,000 pounds of various herbs are used annually and all have to be gathered at the season of the year when their natural juices and medicinal substances are at their best.

The most successful solvents are used to extract the medicinal properties from these herbs.

Every utensil and tank that comes in contact with the medicine is sterilized and as a final precaution in cleanliness the medicine is pasteurized and sealed in sterile bottles.

It is the wonderful combination of roots and herbs, together with the skill and care used in its preparation which has made this famous medicine so successful in the treatment of female ills.

The letters from women who have been restored to health by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which we are continually publishing attest to its virtue.

LOCAL THEATRES OFFER COMEDIES

WILKIES
One of the most elaborately staged plays that has ever been put on at the Wilkies is "Nothing but the Truth."

The Wilkie players have acquired additional scenery of a high order, and both inner and outer settings are impressive in richness and variety. The actors, old favorites, were all splendid in their various roles.

The story revolves around a young business man who, disgusted at the prevailing tendency of business men to lie, makes a wager with a Wall street broker that he can tell the truth for 24 hours. The wager is $10,000, which the daughter of the broker has entrusted to the young business man for investment.

Ivan Miller takes the part of the man who for a whole day must tell the truth. He insults friends and guests, and has a hard time of it generally, but wins the wager.

THE MOORE

Music and comedy constitute the Orpheum vaudeville bill at the Moore theatre this week.

Heras and Preston, humorous acrobats with a lot of new stuff in their athletic, open the show and are followed by Albert Vercham, violin virtuoso, who is a specialist in "spooky" music. His Carmen fantasia produces shivers with its wealth of weird minor passages.

James Horan does for vaudeville what the author of Potash and Perlmutter did for the drama. His "Business Is Business" is type comedy built around the ladies' waists trade.

The Creole Fashion Plate is a woman impersonator with a piano assistant. Wilbur Mack is seen in a rapid-fire comedy with epigrams and witticisms galore. Julius Hansen, billed as Chatterbox, has new monolog stuff with a special line of Seattle jokes. The Mellette sisters have Lew Pollack with them, a rag pianist who produces waves of syncopeated melody.

Movies with Russian scenes and a fox trot overture by Charles Burnett's musicians complete the program.

THE OAK

With an abundance of fun and lots of singing and dancing, the Monte Carter company opened with a new show, "The Runaways," Sunday. Comedy honors are shared by Lew White, a Jewish comedian; George White, Blanche Gilmore, Lou Davis and Del Estes.

Bessie Hill, Carter's talented and good looking leading lady, sings "I Hate to Lose You" in a charming manner, and Blanche Hill, with the aid of the dancing chicks, puts over "Mummy Mine" pleasingly.

A new episode of "The Woman and the Web" is this week's screen offering.

COMING TO THE MET

"Why Marry?" by Jesse Lynch Williams, will be presented by Selwyn and company, in association with Roi Cooper Megrue, at the Metropolitan theatre for four nights commencing Sunday. Sunday, 20. The play comes here following one of the most successful engagements enjoyed by any play produced on Broadway in recent years.

The original New York company, having such distinguished players as Nat. C. Goodwin, Edmund Breese, Ernest Lawford, Leonard Mudie, Dotus Robb, Louis Randolph, Anne Morrison and others, will be seen here.

EDMONDS HAS GAINED TWENTY POUNDS IN THIRTY DAYS' TIME

Declares He Is in "Pink of Condition" Since He Began Taking Tanlac

"I have picked up at least twenty pounds in the past thirty days by taking Tanlac, and now I'm just in the pink of condition all around." This statement was made by William M. Edmonds, a well-known employee of the Seattle Street Car Co., living at 760 North 74th street, Seattle, recently.

"My stomach," he continued, "has been giving me all kinds of trouble for years. What I ate seemed to do me harm instead of good, as it would sour on my stomach and cause me so much misery. I could hardly get my breath at times, on account of the gas, which would press on my heart and cause it to palpitate fearfully. I was badly constipated, my kidneys were in bad shape, and I was never free from pain in the small of my back. I couldn't sleep at all well and would lie awake for hours every night before getting a wink of sleep. I also had rheumatism in my arms and legs, and my knees would get so stiff at times that I could hardly bend over."

"All my efforts to find relief failed until I began taking Tanlac, but this medicine has certainly put me in great shape. My appetite was never better, everything tastes good, and my stomach is in such a good condition that I can eat anything. And since the gas has stopped forming I'm never bothered with palpitation, shortness of breath, or any other signs of indigestion. My kidneys don't bother me any more, all the pain has disappeared, and I sleep fine every night."

"My wife has been taking Tanlac for headache and a run-down condition, and her first bottle has helped her so much that she told me to bring her another today. It certainly is great to do what it has for me, and is the one medicine I don't hesitate to recommend."

Tanlac is sold in Seattle by Bartell Drug Stores under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative—Advertisement.

many feature. Paul Kleist and company with "The Last of Dreams," provide a magic and illusion act that is exceptionally clever. Doyle and Elaine, "Those Dusky Dancers," are the hit of the show with an eccentric dancing number and good comedy singing.

Eary and Eary offer a new sort of gymnastic entertainment, using the Egyptian rings. Lyman and Clarice Wood in "A Syncopeated Episode," prove themselves exceptional musicians. Pickett and Plunkett are banjoists, featuring jazz music. The Emma Weston Duo are versatile in a comedy character and harmony singing feature.

SCOUTS TO PLAN DRIVE AT DINNER

Monday night, at 6:30 o'clock, 160 prominent men of Seattle will gather at an informal dinner at the southwest corner of Second ave. and Columbia st. The big gathering will include all officers of Seattle council, Boy Scouts of America, 25 captains and 125 men, who will make up their 25 teams.

The whole is the windup of the preparations for the big $50,000 drive, which will begin at 9 o'clock sharp, Tuesday morning, and continue three days only. The Boy Scouts want this money to extend their work, to meet the demands of increased leadership, to equip a permanent week-end camp, to buy and equip a summer training camp and to provide for the administrative expenses up to October 1, 1921.

YOM KIPPUR IS OBSERVED HERE

Services in the Temple de Hirsch at 7:30 a. m. Monday marked the opening in Seattle of Yom Kippur, the holiest day in the Jewish religious year.

Yom Kippur is observed by an abstinence from physical pleasures and the seeking for a greater spirituality.

"What Yom Kippur Means to Us" will be subject of Rabbi Samuel Koch Monday evening.

WOULD BAR FINANCIAL PAPER FROM MAILS

Charging that the Business Chronicle, a local financial paper, attempted to hinder the recruiting of labor for the shipyards, Henry M. White, United States labor commissioner, has asked the postal department to bar the journal from the mails.

Postmaster Edgar Battle says he will have the commissioner's request investigated at Washington, D. C.

21 German Towns Bombed by British

LONDON, Sept. 15.—According to information from an authoritative source, 21 important German towns have been bombed by the British independent air force during August.

The total weight of bombs dropped is over 100 tons, of which railroad stations and lines and bases of supply were objectives.

Exclusive of the engine, the average airplane contains 4,326 nails, 3,377 screws, 920 steel clamping, 798 forgings, 276 turnbuckles, 65 pounds of aluminum and relative quantities of varnish, rubber, linen, wood, etc.
