

BY BETTY BRAINERD

By CYNTHIA GREY

Fashions for Americans

Baby's Coat With Detachable Hood

The 20th century baby is a hardy young person who is taught to sleep out of doors the year round, and the approach of cool weather brings up in the mind of the 20th century mother the question of proper sleeping garments. The shops offer sleeping bags and cunning little "Teddy Bear" suits for the purpose, but these do not always meet the requirements of the very small baby. The garment shown in the sketch offers a worthwhile suggestion.

As will be noted, this little garment is merely a wrapper equipped with a generous sized collar finished about the edge with a row of buttons, the hood or head section being detachable.

When really severe weather arrives the very heavy sleeping bag will be required for the protection of the baby, but for several weeks during the fall only moderately warm clothing will be required, and frequently a head cover will not always be necessary. The garment shown is designed to meet these requirements. When no head covering is required the garment is simply a little wrapper. The hood may, of course, be buttoned on when needed.

If designed only as a sleeping garment any serviceable material desired may be used, but the design might also be used for a little carriage wrap, the hood made of broadcloth, satin-faced velour or any of the materials usually employed for the purpose. The small baby is very sensibly outfitted these days with garments that are of the simplest make, but long enough to well cover the feet and never over-trimmed. A little coat or sleeping garment similar to the one shown in the sketch would make an admirable gift for a very small citizen.

CHINESE PROTEST

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—With flags of the Chinese republic flying from shops and chop suey emporiums, Chinatown protested against the cessation of Shantung to Japan.

Gown Displayed at New Washington

Miss Beatrice Otton, of New York city, one of the most attractive of the women who displayed fashion gowns from Paris, under auspices of MacDougall & Southwick, at the New Washington Saturday afternoon and evening. She is seen in the above photograph modeling a gown from "Jenny" gray sequin evening dress over flesh satin—gray net drapes on the side—and French flowers in rich colorings at the waist line.

Society Throgs to Washington to View Latest Paris Fashions

The New Washington hotel was thronged on Saturday afternoon and evening to view the MacDougall & Southwick fashion display.

The costumes fascinated and enraptured, and the models were youthful and blushing, typifying all that was noblest and best in hair dressing, manicuring, tailoring and millinery.

Beautiful girls, brought from New York for the sole purpose of displaying to the smart set of Seattle fall and winter models, wore costumes that delighted the eye of the connoisseur and called forth admiring exclamations from the onlookers.

The materials shimmered, sparkled and were elusive in their orchidean beauty.

They were French, oh so French! Returned soldiers, wondering about the long skirts of the American girls,

Confessions of a Bride

Copyrighted, 1919, by the Newspaper Enterprise Association

I LISTEN TO GOSSIP AND LEARN THE LORIMER PARTY HAD AN OBJECT

Katherine Miller and all the rest of the world, of course, believed that Jane Lorimer had been killed in a railroad wreck. I had had constant reminders of this fact, but it was impressed on me from without a score of times during the evening of the big Lorimer party. In this disguise—which has been working miraculously—and passing as Mr. Lorimer's secretary, I was a spectator rather than a guest throughout the affair. I was disregarded and overlooked, very much as if I were a table or a tree, by many a woman who would have shaved her hair rather than snub a member of the Lorimer family!

I don't intend to lay it up against any of them. Yet it has been something of a revelation to discover how dreadfully rude some women who pride themselves on their manners can be to another whom they consider their social inferior. However, that wasn't the fact which distressed me most.

More than once I heard comments of this nature: "How could Mrs. Lorimer think of giving such a grand affair before the year of mourning for Bob Lorimer's wife was up?" "Of course you've heard that Chrysolite Lorimer's wedding has been postponed?" "Or called off, perhaps? Who knows?"

It was true that the party had been planned only as an entertainment for Jim's best friends. But unfortunately it had turned out considerably more splendid than Mrs. Lorimer had meant, owing partly to its novelty and the magnificence of its environment and partly to the lengthy list of Jim's acquaintances. I couldn't possibly inform the gossiping circles that all the Lorimers—except my poor Bob, with his strangely shaken mind—were consciously cherishing a very much alive Jane Lorimer in their midst, and that hence the convention of a year's mourning had just naturally been forgotten.

Moreover, so far, all the details of the disappearance of Hamilton Certels had been concealed. Oblivion being the supreme punishment inflicted upon Certels' kind by all the government of the world, the Lorimers were merely working hand-in-glove with the authorities when they kept a successful secret the fact of Chry's marriage. Society was utterly in the dark as to the outcome of her romance.

Next morning, when I went to daddy with my bits of gossip, he exclaimed, "Good! It took! I was sure it would. I knew a festival would

Dear Miss Grey: I am separated from my wife and am custodian of my 2 1/2-year-old girl, whom strangers have taken care of ever since she was 9 months old.

They take good care of her, too, but the older she grows the worse she wants to see her mother, whom she hasn't seen the last time for nine months. I have called my former wife up and asked her to go and see her baby at least once a month, if not oftener, but she fails to do so.

The last time I was up to see the baby, she sat in my lap and asked me, "Papa, where is my mamma, my real mamma?"

I felt so badly and so sorry for her that I am coming to you to ask you if you can tell me of any way to make her forget her mother?

Never before have I read of anything so pitiful and, at the same time, so cruel—pitiful that you must seek means to stifle a baby's love for her mother—cruel, that Fate must deal the cards thusly.

"Time heals all wounds, causes all to forget," seems to be the truest of all axioms. So, altho I wish I might conscientiously say something that would be more consoling, I cannot. In time your little girl will forget.

Until then, the best you can do is to go to see her as often as possible, and give her the best you can afford in the way of amusement.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

I am hoping, tho, that her REAL mother will chance to read this. Perhaps it will soften her heart a bit and make her realize HER responsibility more keenly.

Mrs. Priscilla Treat Hostess

About 125 invitations have been issued by Miss Priscilla Treat for an evening party at her home on Sept. 8. The guests are asked to wear inappropriate costumes, so the affair is looked forward to with great deal of merriment by the substitute set.

Dinner at Golf Club

Judge and Mrs. Burke entertained twelve guests at the Golf Club dinner-dance on Saturday evening.

Luncheon for Visitor

Mrs. E. P. Jamison was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon on Friday at her home club. Eight guests were invited to meet Mrs. Orion Burbank of New York, who was the guest for several days of Mrs. S. V. R. Hooker.

Dinner for Son

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bordeaux entertained a party of seven at dinner at the Golf Club dinner-dance on Saturday evening in compliment to their son, Raymond, of Bordeaux, Wash., who spent the week-end with them.

Golf Club Dance

Another attractive "dinner dance" was held at the Golf Club on Saturday evening. The success of the evening was due to Mrs. Trafford

Miss Alexander Ballie

Mrs. Alexander Ballie, Mrs. E. J. Eddy, Mrs. E. J. Tidmarsh, Mrs. A. W. Tidmarsh, Mrs. Charles Farrell and Mrs. D. E. Tidmarsh. The club was most attractive with the season's blossoms.

Miss Harry Whitely

Miss Harry Whitely was hostess at a delightful luncheon at her home at Gravelly Lake. Miss Mary Delafield, Mrs. Carl Donworth, Mrs. Robert Parker and Mrs. Alfred Milard motored over from Seattle to attend the affair. Thirty guests were entertained.

Informal Affair

Mrs. Harry Whitely Treat entertained Miss Blanche Bates at tea at her home on Saturday afternoon. On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Treat were the guests of Miss Blanche Bates and Mr. Henry Miller at supper at the Boulevard Inn.

Tea for Mrs. Ben Palmer

Miss Esther Palmer will give a tea on Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5, at the "Woman's University Club." The affair will be in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ben Palmer, a recent bride. Assisting the hostess in receiving her guests will be Mrs. R. D. McAusland, Mrs. E. J. Noble, Mrs. William L. Norris, Miss Lelia Parker and Mrs. W. P. Brawley.

Dinner and Splash Party

Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority will entertain with a dinner and moonlight splash party Friday evening, August 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Skel at Laurelhurst. All Theta and their families are to attend.

Picnic Dinner at Fort Casey

On Wednesday the officers and ladies at Fort Casey enjoyed a picnic dinner on the beach near the post. Those present were Maj. and Mrs. James Hayden, Mrs. Moore, Maj. and Mrs. Carter, Capt. and Mrs. George Howell, Capt. and Mrs. Style, Capt. and Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. E. E. Easterbrook of Fort Worden.

Tea for Bride Elect

The tea which Mrs. Ross Wilson gave on Saturday afternoon at her home in compliment to Miss Juanita Fisher was one of the most attractive of the mid-summer season. Lavender and yellow was the color scheme used throughout the rooms and a handsome basket of lavender asters and yellow marguerites centered the tea table. Mrs. Wallace Fisher of Bellingham and Mrs. George Stritt presided over the tea.

Reception for Mrs. Boyd

Reception for Mrs. Boyd was given at her home. Mrs. Boyd was accompanied by a handsome purse and Miss Charlotte Mann. Kathleen Donohoe was in charge of the stand outside the tea table.

Reception for Daughter

Mrs. and Mrs. Hyman Greenblatt entertained a party of seven at dinner on 14th ave. N held a reception on Tuesday from 2 until 5 o'clock in compliment to their daughter, Ruby Edythe, to Mr. Max Cohen of this city.

Fly High! Sky High!

as a guest and at the expense of the HIP-PODROME in an AEROPLANE over SEATTLE.

This is the offer we are going to give the best pupil learning to dance that graduates from the BEGINNERS' DANCING CLASSES during the next THREE WEEKS:

FIVE FREE AEROPLANE TRIPS

The sooner you join the greater YOUR chances of winning one of these rides.

NEW CLASS STARTS MONDAY NIGHT, 7 O'CLOCK SHARP

HIPPODROME

Fifth and University

MR. AND MRS. G. OSWALD

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Dudley left Friday for Hayden Lake to visit Mrs. Dudley's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Parnell Clark. Mrs. Charles Clark, Miss Katherine Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Parnell Clark have taken a cottage at Hayden Lake.

Miss Hazel McMillan will leave today for Portland to visit Miss Dorothy Kerns for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Struve spent the week-end at the Country Club with Mrs. Peachy.

Mrs. Orion Burbank of New York, who has been spending several days with Dr. and Mrs. S. V. R. Hooker, left Sunday for her home.

Mr. Ben Butler arrived Saturday from Heybrook to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jason D. Butler. He came down to attend the dance at the Golf Club tonight given by Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hoge.

Mrs. John Eddy and children leave today for a week's outing at Saints Rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Farnsworth spent the week-end in Victoria.

Mr. Blair Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foster, formerly of Seattle and now of San Francisco, arrived in Seattle on Saturday and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Farrar until he leaves for Culver Military School Sept. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Butler of Wenatchee, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Gates for 10 days, left Sunday for their home.

Mrs. Francis Allen (Bernice Lepoir) arrived last week from New York, where she has spent the past

Roberts-Knott Wedding

Friends in this city will be interested in hearing of the marriage of Miss Gertrude I. Roberts, who left this city last April to engage in Red Cross canteen work abroad, to Capt. George B. Knott, U. S. A. The ceremony was performed in St. Thomas' Church on Fifth ave., New York City, August 2. Miss Roberts arrived from overseas July 29. Capt. Knott and Mrs. Knott are spending their honeymoon on his estate near Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Knott formerly was private secretary to Mrs. J. W. Clise at Willowmore Farm, Sammamish, and before leaving for France was with a local firm. She was actively connected with Trinity Parish Church, this city.

Informal Luncheon

Honoring Mrs. De Moss Gates, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. George W. Soliday, Mrs. Harry B. Jones gave an informal luncheon on Saturday at the Woman's University Club. Covers were placed for twelve.

Wedding Announcement

The wedding of Miss Winifred Swallow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Swallow, to Mr. Gilbert Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Skinner, will take place on Saturday evening, Sept. 6, at 8 o'clock, at Trinity Parish Church.

Luncheon in Tacoma

In compliment to Mrs. Dodge of New York, who is her sister, and Miss Helen Woolsey, another sister, Mrs. Herbert Alexander was hostess at a delightful luncheon at her home at Gravelly Lake. Miss Mary Delafield, Mrs. Carl Donworth, Mrs. Robert Parker and Mrs. Alfred Milard motored over from Seattle to attend the affair. Thirty guests were entertained.

Informal Affair

Mrs. Harry Whitely Treat entertained Miss Blanche Bates at tea at her home on Saturday afternoon. On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Treat were the guests of Miss Blanche Bates and Mr. Henry Miller at supper at the Boulevard Inn.

Tea for Mrs. Ben Palmer

Miss Esther Palmer will give a tea on Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5, at the "Woman's University Club." The affair will be in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ben Palmer, a recent bride. Assisting the hostess in receiving her guests will be Mrs. R. D. McAusland, Mrs. E. J. Noble, Mrs. William L. Norris, Miss Lelia Parker and Mrs. W. P. Brawley.

Dinner and Splash Party

Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority will entertain with a dinner and moonlight splash party Friday evening, August 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Skel at Laurelhurst. All Theta and their families are to attend.

Picnic Dinner at Fort Casey

On Wednesday the officers and ladies at Fort Casey enjoyed a picnic dinner on the beach near the post. Those present were Maj. and Mrs. James Hayden, Mrs. Moore, Maj. and Mrs. Carter, Capt. and Mrs. George Howell, Capt. and Mrs. Style, Capt. and Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. E. E. Easterbrook of Fort Worden.

Tea for Bride Elect

The tea which Mrs. Ross Wilson gave on Saturday afternoon at her home in compliment to Miss Juanita Fisher was one of the most attractive of the mid-summer season. Lavender and yellow was the color scheme used throughout the rooms and a handsome basket of lavender asters and yellow marguerites centered the tea table. Mrs. Wallace Fisher of Bellingham and Mrs. George Stritt presided over the tea.

Reception for Mrs. Boyd

Reception for Mrs. Boyd was given at her home. Mrs. Boyd was accompanied by a handsome purse and Miss Charlotte Mann. Kathleen Donohoe was in charge of the stand outside the tea table.

Reception for Daughter

Mrs. and Mrs. Hyman Greenblatt entertained a party of seven at dinner on 14th ave. N held a reception on Tuesday from 2 until 5 o'clock in compliment to their daughter, Ruby Edythe, to Mr. Max Cohen of this city.

Gown Displayed at New Washington

Miss Beatrice Otton, of New York city, one of the most attractive of the women who displayed fashion gowns from Paris, under auspices of MacDougall & Southwick, at the New Washington Saturday afternoon and evening. She is seen in the above photograph modeling a gown from "Jenny" gray sequin evening dress over flesh satin—gray net drapes on the side—and French flowers in rich colorings at the waist line.

Society Throgs to Washington to View Latest Paris Fashions

The New Washington hotel was thronged on Saturday afternoon and evening to view the MacDougall & Southwick fashion display.

The costumes fascinated and enraptured, and the models were youthful and blushing, typifying all that was noblest and best in hair dressing, manicuring, tailoring and millinery.

Beautiful girls, brought from New York for the sole purpose of displaying to the smart set of Seattle fall and winter models, wore costumes that delighted the eye of the connoisseur and called forth admiring exclamations from the onlookers.

The materials shimmered, sparkled and were elusive in their orchidean beauty.

They were French, oh so French! Returned soldiers, wondering about the long skirts of the American girls,

Confessions of a Bride

Copyrighted, 1919, by the Newspaper Enterprise Association

I LISTEN TO GOSSIP AND LEARN THE LORIMER PARTY HAD AN OBJECT

Katherine Miller and all the rest of the world, of course, believed that Jane Lorimer had been killed in a railroad wreck. I had had constant reminders of this fact, but it was impressed on me from without a score of times during the evening of the big Lorimer party. In this disguise—which has been working miraculously—and passing as Mr. Lorimer's secretary, I was a spectator rather than a guest throughout the affair. I was disregarded and overlooked, very much as if I were a table or a tree, by many a woman who would have shaved her hair rather than snub a member of the Lorimer family!

I don't intend to lay it up against any of them. Yet it has been something of a revelation to discover how dreadfully rude some women who pride themselves on their manners can be to another whom they consider their social inferior. However, that wasn't the fact which distressed me most.

More than once I heard comments of this nature: "How could Mrs. Lorimer think of giving such a grand affair before the year of mourning for Bob Lorimer's wife was up?" "Of course you've heard that Chrysolite Lorimer's wedding has been postponed?" "Or called off, perhaps? Who knows?"

It was true that the party had been planned only as an entertainment for Jim's best friends. But unfortunately it had turned out considerably more splendid than Mrs. Lorimer had meant, owing partly to its novelty and the magnificence of its environment and partly to the lengthy list of Jim's acquaintances. I couldn't possibly inform the gossiping circles that all the Lorimers—except my poor Bob, with his strangely shaken mind—were consciously cherishing a very much alive Jane Lorimer in their midst, and that hence the convention of a year's mourning had just naturally been forgotten.

Moreover, so far, all the details of the disappearance of Hamilton Certels had been concealed. Oblivion being the supreme punishment inflicted upon Certels' kind by all the government of the world, the Lorimers were merely working hand-in-glove with the authorities when they kept a successful secret the fact of Chry's marriage. Society was utterly in the dark as to the outcome of her romance.

Next morning, when I went to daddy with my bits of gossip, he exclaimed, "Good! It took! I was sure it would. I knew a festival would

Dear Miss Grey: I am separated from my wife and am custodian of my 2 1/2-year-old girl, whom strangers have taken care of ever since she was 9 months old.

They take good care of her, too, but the older she grows the worse she wants to see her mother, whom she hasn't seen the last time for nine months. I have called my former wife up and asked her to go and see her baby at least once a month, if not oftener, but she fails to do so.

The last time I was up to see the baby, she sat in my lap and asked me, "Papa, where is my mamma, my real mamma?"

I felt so badly and so sorry for her that I am coming to you to ask you if you can tell me of any way to make her forget her mother?

Never before have I read of anything so pitiful and, at the same time, so cruel—pitiful that you must seek means to stifle a baby's love for her mother—cruel, that Fate must deal the cards thusly.

"Time heals all wounds, causes all to forget," seems to be the truest of all axioms. So, altho I wish I might conscientiously say something that would be more consoling, I cannot. In time your little girl will forget.

Until then, the best you can do is to go to see her as often as possible, and give her the best you can afford in the way of amusement.