New Landlady at the Milton—and Sure—New Rent

The deal was completed the night of September 30—and the Milton apartments, Seventh ave. between Union and Pike, acquired a new landlady, just arrived from Montana. But evidently she knew all about raising rents. She immediately notified the tenants that they must pay an increase of about 50 per cent at once or move in 24 hours. However, as the law requires 20 days' notice, the tenants are standing pat.

And the poor landlady will have to go one month without the extra profiteering. Apartments that rented for $43 last month are now $60.

PETER Dreams About Big Bears

BY THE STORY LADY

It was the first chilly morning and Papa had kindled a little fire in the grate in the nursery and the Palmer kids ran in to dress by it. It was Sunday morning and no one was in a hurry so the children cuddled up on the rug to watch the fire.

Patty hugged her knees and rocked back and forth.

"I had the bestest dream last night. I thought I read page 10 in the Sunshine Primer without a bit of a mistake. And the teacher said, 'Patty Palmer, you're the best pupil in school. Here is a prize for you,' an' she hung a locket an' chain all bright an' shiny on my neck.

"Huh!" said Prissy, "you can't read page 10 as good as I can."

"I know it," said Patty meekly. "That's what made the dream so nice. What did you dream, Prissy?"

"I came in here last night to see if Teddy didn't want to sleep with me, bein' as it was so cold, an' I couldn't find him an' I went to sleep an' dreamed that Teddy said to me, 'You can't guess where I slept last night.' An' I said, 'With Chloe an' Dinah.' An' he shook his head. An' I said, 'With Peter?' An' he said, 'Yes.' An' I said, 'What did you sleep there for?' an' he said, 'Peter wanted me to.'"

Peter got very red and the twins jumped up and ran to Peter's room and came back bringing Teddy Bear with them.

"You did! You did! An' you can't ever tease us no more for sleeping with Chloe an' Dinah. What did you dream, Peter?"

"I dreamed that a big black bear was a-chasin' you kids down the street and you yelled for me to kill it and I grabbed up a club an' was jes' gettin' ready to swat him when I heard Papa building the fire an' I woke up."

"That's what you get for sleepin' with a bear," giggled the twins. "Aw, shut up!" growled Peter.

"Breakfast in five minutes," called Mama.

Auto Bandits Rob Kansas City Bank

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 3.—Bandits looted the Union Avenue Bank of Commerce here today. They fled in an automobile, after obtaining approximately $5,000, according to first reports.

Eighteen hundred dollars was dropped in the street during the getaway. One policeman arrived in time to engage the bandits in a revolver battle.

Three motor cars filled with police gave chase.

COLD TEA SALESMAN MUST SERVE ONE YEAR

Fleading guilty of passing cancelled revenue stamps on bottles of cold tea, which he sold as whisky, Nicholas Pendville was sentenced to serve one year in the Whatcom county jail and fined $500 by Judge Jeremiah Neterer in the U. S. district court Thursday afternoon.

Seven months in the King county jail and $900 fine was the penalty imposed on J. D. Baker, moonshiner.
