the meter and not charged to the consumer on his gas bill.

Both state and city have demanded that customers be reimbursed for lack of gas caused indirectly by the gas workers' strike.

Use University Man George E. Whitwell, graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and professor in the chemistry department of the University of Washington, was introduced as a witness for the defendant company.

Whitwell testified that he had made tests of gas at the university during the strike to discover if it contained an undue amount of oxygen.

He found, he said, that the amount of oxygen was very low.

He then launched into a dissertation on Boyle's law, considered authoritative on matters concerning the effect of pressure upon gas.

Denies Cash Loss His tests showed, he said, that there wouldn't be any great loss to the consumer in actual cash owing to the gas shortage.

Boyle's law, he explained, provided the meter was in perfect mechanical adjustment, the consumer would not be charged for gas that didn't pass through the mains into the burner.

On the other hand, he was asked, if the pressure is low the meter will register to the financial benefit of the gas company.

He admitted such was the case. High pressure is in favor of the consumer, low pressure in favor of the producer, he said.

DEAVER MAY NOT GET OUT ON BAIL

Whether James L. Deaver will be released on bail will not be decided until Tuesday. Superior Judge Mitchell Gilliam was asked for a decision Saturday, but continued the case until Deputy Prosecutor Wallace Mount produces affidavits of two witnesses who say they saw Deaver near the spot where Holt was murdered last Saturday.

The law provides that the evidence against a man accused of murder in the first degree must be strong before he shall be refused release on bail. Mount claimed that the statement of the two witnesses will make the evidence strong.

CINCINNATI WINS AGAIN

Wins Its Third Game in the World Series

Jackson in short left field. It was a high hit ball and Shoeless Joe had plenty of time. Duncan fled to E. Collins, who went back on the grass to take the ball; Kopf fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

CHICAGO—Roush doubled to center, Rousch misjudging the ball, and what should have been an easy out bounded in front of him; Felsch sacrificed, Ring to Rath, who covered first base, Jackson taking third; Gandil popped to Groh in front of the plate. It was a high ball that the Red infielders clustered around him to encourage him. Cioetto popped to Rath, who went back into short right to Roush on an easy chance; Collins rolled to Groh, who threw him out at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning CINCINNATI—Neale out, Weaver to Gandil, on a hard hit grounder down the third base line. Weaver making a pretty pick-up; Wingo singled to center, being a low fly which dropped between E. Collins and Felsch; Ring struck out; Wingo was out stealing, Schalk to E. Collins. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning CINCINNATI—Rath fled to Jackson in short left. Joe played him properly and did not have to move out of his tracks for the ball. Daubert out, Schalk to Gandil, on a dinky roller in front of the plate, Schalk to Groh, who threw to Daubert for the out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning CINCINNATI—Roush out, Schalk to Gandil. Schalk dashed half way to the box and felled an easy tap in wonderful fashion. Duncan went to second when Cioetto knocked down his drive and then threw an error ball past Gandil to the stands. An error for Cioetto was charged. Kopf singled to left, Duncan covered when Cioetto attempted to intercept Jackson's throw to the plate, cuffing the ball to the stands, and was given another error. Kopf went to second on the play. Neale doubled to left, scoring Kopf. It was a fly which Jackson, who was playing close in, could not get back for in time. Wingo out, E. Collins to Gandil, Neale taking third; Ring out, E. Collins to Gandil. Two runs, two hits, two errors.

Sixth Inning CINCINNATI—Rath out, Risberg to Gandil, on a pretty play by the Sox shortstop; Daubert out, E. Collins to Gandil, on a hard hit ball directly into Eddie's hands; Groh out, Weaver to Gandil. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning CINCINNATI—Roush out, rolling to E. Collins, who threw to Gandil; Duncan out, Weaver to Gandil. Weaver making a wonderful stop of a terrific drive and followed it with a terrific throw; Kopf out, Risberg to Gandil. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning CINCINNATI—Neale out, Cioetto to Gandil, on a feeble roller; Ring singled to center, the ball unsmashing thru Cioetto's hands like a 13-inch shell; Ring hit into a double play, Cioetto to Risberg to Gandil. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Ninth Inning CINCINNATI—Rath out, Ring to Daubert; Schalk walked; Murphy batted for Cioetto and flew to Roush; Leibold lined to Groh. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Tenth Inning CINCINNATI—Weaver popped up to Rath, who made a magnificent catch on the foul line 80 feet back of first base; Jackson struck out, swinging tremendously at the second and third, and the crowd boomed; Felsch singled

LOCAL FRESH EGGS GO UP

First Grades Now Up to 76 Cents Per Dozen

Local fresh egg market advanced another cent Friday. First grade stock is now selling at 76 cents per dozen—the record price of the season. Dealers attribute the latest advance to the shortage of eggs throughout this country and particularly in this vicinity. Other grades remained stationary in price.

Dealers are advising the public to purchase pullet eggs. These eggs are 10 to 20 cents per dozen cheaper than the hen eggs and, while the latter in quality and flavor, but no price changes were noted Friday.

Butter market remains firm, but no price changes were noted Friday.
