The Stage

GOOD VAUDEVILLE AT THE MOORE

Quite an enjoyable bill of Orpheum vaudeville at the Moore this week. Begin at the top, bottom or middle, and you'll find something worth while.

To the very delectable De Wolf Sisters we wish to protest as follows: Surely, now, girls, you haven't got those "krownup baby blues"? Tut, tut, Georgette, and two more for you, Capitola! The De Wolf girls entertain a delighted audience with a colorful mass of dances, which lead from Madrid to Tokyo, Moscow, Paris, Constantinople and back to the U. S. A., and the before-mentioned "baby blues."

James P. Conlin and Myrtle Glass get engaged, married, parted and reconciled in their act, and it so well that they really should call their appearance "Something to laugh about."

No one is accused of somber thoughts when Jimmy Lucas and Francine explain what "Vampires and Fools" is all about. Francine sings his own songs and proves also that laughter is contagious.

Joe Laurie is a "pint-size comedian" with a bushel of fun. Joe introduced his father and mother to the Sunday matinee audience, and invited everybody to come to see them in New York.

Ed Healy and Allen Cross gain hearty approval with their songs. Sebini and Grovini are clever athletes. Herbert's leaping canines and trained cats, roosters, pigeons, etc., are quite accomplished.

DANCING ACT TOPS PALACE HIP BILL

"Dance Originalities" is the headline offering, a terpsichorean revue of merit. Ethel Gilmore, Marjory Brown and Albert Hovelek head the company.

Newport and flirk keep the audiences in an uproar with their rapid fire patter. "Prosperity," a one-act playlet, with Edwin Rodding heading the cast, is a play with a good moral. Jazz predominates in the offering presented by the Ethel Levy trio. The acrobatic act of the bill is provided by Wanda and Seala, with a little comedy mixed in. "Sundown Slim," a photoplay, featuring Harry Carey, completes the bill.

"WOMAN HE MARRIED" AT THE WILKES

"The Woman He Married," revived by the Wilkes players this week, with Jane Morgan in the leading role, achieved visible success with Sunday afternoon's audience.

Miss Morgan's acting constituted an impassioned plea for a fairer attitude toward the woman who works. She impersonates an artist's model who works secretly to save her husband from financial ruin and gets into a misunderstanding with him at the hour he succeeds as a playwright.

Others who act their roles well are: Arthur Vinton, Emmett Morgan, Howard Russell, Norman Fessler, Margaret Armstrong and Erman Seavey.

THE DAY OF THE SLIM WOMAN

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The slim woman is coming into her own. Close-fitting gowns have been decreed by Dame Fashion. And with this new fashion it is impossible not to feel pity for the women endowed with what is politely termed a "full habit." Small breakfasts and little lunches may overcome this difficulty.

"BUZZING AROUND" AT THE BUNGALOW

Singing and dancing of a quality that makes real entertainment is being offered in E. George Wood's revue, "Buzzing Around," staged at the Bungalow, Seattle's new theatre-restaurant.

Besides Mary McCrae, "empress of song," Olive Ann Alcorn, dancer, and other pleasing performers, there is an ensemble of six girls who sing and dance to the delight of patrons.

Beginning Friday an entirely new edition of the revue will be staged when Jack Holden, one of the ablest entertainers on the Pacific coast, will be added to the company. Manager Frank Rippe has announced.

OSCAR GERARD AT LEVY'S ORPHEUM

Oscar Gerard returned to Levy's Orpheum Sunday afternoon amid cheers of welcome from the audience. With Lew White as his partner in the fun making, he proceeded to create laughs that lasted thru the entire performance of "Yumppie Yimminy," the attraction for this week.

Contributions to the merry making were well handled by Ted Ulmark and Eddie Wright. Blanche Hall, Billie Bingham and Madeline Mathews also received the approval of the audience.

Many musical numbers, staged with colorful background, proved effective. "Hello, Wisconsin," sung by Oscar Gerard, received several encores. Chorus girls danced cleverly.

Rich English Woman Comes to America

Spent Thousands of Dollars in Search of Health.

Coming all the way from England in search of better health, she was given up to die. Accidentally a circular describing the American intestinal antiseptic ADLERIKA was given her. She decided to try it. Her health improved immediately and she became so well that she was able to return to England STRONGER and in better condition than her husband who had taken care of her so many years.

In your system. Try it right after a natural movement and notice how much more food matter it brings out which was poisoning you. In slight disorders, such as occasional constipation, sour stomach, gas on the stomach and sick headache, one spoonful Adlerika ALWAYS brings relief. A longer treatment, however, is necessary in cases of obstinate constipation and long standing stomach trouble.

Intestinal Antiseptic

There is now offered to the public a preparation having the DOUBLE action of an intestinal antiseptic and a COMPLETE system cleanser. This preparation, known as Adlerika, acts as follows:

It tends to eliminate or destroy harmful germs and colon bacilli in the intestinal canal, thus guarding against appendicitis and other diseases having their start here.

It is the most complete system cleanser ever offered to the public, acting on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removing foul matter which has poisoned the system for months and which nothing else can dislodge. It brings out all gases, thus immediately relieving pressure on the heart. It is astonishing the great amount of poisonous matter Adlerika draws from the alimentary canal—matter you never thought was

Reports From Physicians

"I used Adlerika in my practice and have found nothing to excel it." (Signed) Dr. W. A. Line.

"I have found nothing in my 50 years' practice to excel Adlerika." (Signed) Dr. James Weaver.

"I use Adlerika in all bowel cases. Some require only one dose." (Signed) Dr. F. M. Prettyman.

"After taking Adlerika feel better than for 20 years. Haven't language to express the AWFUL IMPURITIES eliminated from my system." (Signed) J. E. Puckett.

Adlerika is a constant surprise to people who have used only ordinary bowel and stomach medicines, on account of its rapid, pleasant and COMPLETE action. It is sold by leading druggists everywhere. Sold in Seattle by Swift Drug Co., Bartlett Drug Co., and other leading drug stores.—Advertisement.
