BY LEO H. LASSEN
The Seattle Metropolitans had to play again last night to beat Vancouver, but beat them they did, and today the locals are back in the lead in the Coast puck race.

The Millionaires got off to a flying start in the first period when they mounted on a man from Harris in front of the nets in 3:24. Harris scored again after 12:51 minutes of play on a pretty shot that bounced dirt touch at all.

Even Lehman, however, couldn't do those Metropolitans for scoring for the whole evening. The Metropolitans came back in the third period and scored three times. Ricky counting the first goal after carrying the puck down the ice and shooting about 10 feet out. It was a pretty effort. Hockey carried the puck down the ice a few minutes later, passed to the other side and then Tobin tapped the puck in on the rebound from Lehman's pads. Morris added the last shot just before the goal was a back-handed shot from a rebound.

It took the locals just 1 minute and 46 seconds to score the winning goal in the overtime session, Tobin scoring.

BEATLE
The Seattle team outskated Vancouver throughout the game and took at least five shots to Vancouver's one from goal to go. Lehman alone was responsible for the low Seattle score.

Frank Foryston was a power on the Seattle attack, stick-handling in his usual style. Charley Tobin, who played most of the game at right wing, also showed up pretty well, but Ricky must come in for a word of praise for his stellar skating last night.

VANCOUVER FORWARD'S TROUBLESOME
For Vancouver, Skinner, Jack Adams and Smokey Harris gave the locals plenty to worry about. They purred in Vancouver's three goals. Mackay contented himself in playing defensive hockey most of the game and he did it in heart-breaking fashion.

ANOVER AND VICTORIA battle in Victoria Friday night, and Seattle rest until Monday, when they play Vancouver on in Vancouver. Victoria plays here next week.

WILDE AND HERMAN BOX TODAY

LONDON, Jan. 13.—England was confident today Jimmy Wilde, king of the flyweights and her only world's champion, will defeat Pete Herman tonight when they meet in Albert hall in a 20-round contest.

Odds of 3 to 4 were being offered for the American will lose.
Still clinging to their old idol, Bombardier Wells, Londoners were betting even money that he will win from Battling Levinsky in another round bout on the same card.

LINCOLN'S HOPE

With Broadway and Lincoln furnishing the feature game at Lincoln, the city high school basketball league will begin play tomorrow afternoon. In the other games of the day West Seattle will oppose Ballard at West Seattle, and Queen Anne will play Franklin at Franklin.

As the race opens, Broadway, Lincoln and Queen Anne are the favorites for the first division places, with West Seattle and Franklin as the dark horses and Ballard as the weak member.

With four lettermen in the lineup, Lincoln will be a slight favorite to defeat Broadway when these teams get together. The Lincoln team seems to be suffering from an acute attack of overconfidence, however, and it may cause their downfall.

Lincoln will enter the game with Bassford and Nollan at forwards, Hesketh at center and Savage and Kuntz at guards.

Broadway will take the floor with Harris and Carmody at forwards, Gilmore at center, and with Haurly, Meister and Hart for guards.

Queen Anne is expected to line up against Franklin with Trumbull and Douglas at forwards, Backhouse at center and Hanzer and McCarthy for guards. Franklin is slated to start Cole at center, Pearne and Greene forwards, and Knowles and Jones at guards.

West Seattle has four vets on hand against Ballard, and is the real dark horse of the league. Fraser and Olsen will alternate at center, with Osterman and Lawrence at forwards and Byers, Kindred and Carr at guards.

Ballard is coached by the Ballard boys, with Walby, center, as their only big fellow and only veteran, is weak. The other positions will be filled by Shaw and McManus at forwards and Lowrey and Anderson at guards.

The second teams will furnish the preliminary games, and the afternoon's cage program in each school gets under way at 5:30.

Bill Graham, guard on left team's championship Broadway basketball team, is coaching the Tiger midget team this year.

Ken Mettem, high jumper, will captain the Lincoln team in the spring.

Donna Burke, all-city quarter, will captain the Ballard football squad in the fall.

Gene Ward, who showed a lot of promise at quarterback, the Broadway Tigers last season, says he is going to attend Franklin next fall.

Donna Leaf, veteran cage letter, is again coaching the Lincoln midgets this season.

Lawrence and Osterman, West Seattle center forwards, should make a fast pair of hoopers if they show the same form on the basketball floor that they did on the gridiron last season.

Bakerfield high school won the California prep grid title last week, defeating Berkeley, 14 to 1.

The high school midget and freshman basketball leagues were scheduled to get under way this afternoon, with three games being billed in each division.

The East High fives will tangle with Queen Anne in the Coxy gym in one of the little Ballard journeys to Broadway, and Lincoln plays at Franklin.

West Seattle won't get into action until the Monday games, when they play Lincoln at Lincoln.

BUSINESS MAN LOSES $50,000.00 IN ONE DAY
All Is Not Gold That Glitters—Big Business Houses Feel the Troubles of Readjustment—Hub Clothing Company Decides to Take Its Losses in One Big Dose

The readjustment period through which the country is now passing creates problems for all classes of people, and the larger business houses are by no means exempt. In some cases even the working man has had to suffer a loss in the way of reduced wages. This is particularly unfortunate, for it was to be hoped that the general prosperity enjoyed during the war would result in permanently raising the standard of living for the masses of the people, and that unquestionably will be the final result.

M. S. Bornstein, president of the Hub Clothing Company, veteran Pioneer Square Clothier, has reason to know that even the oldest established concerns doing a big business must take losses due to present conditions. The Hub carries a tremendous stock of men's apparel. Naturally all of it was bought to sell at prices that would show a legitimate profit. Now it is found necessary to put on a sale and let the public have this stock at just half of the regular retail price.

The Hub will be closed Thursday and Friday for stock taking. On Saturday morning at 9 o'clock the doors will open with every article in stock (except shoes, a few items in work goods and contract collars) selling at half price. Inasmuch as the public is well acquainted with the standard high grade character of the Hub stock, there will no doubt be a rush to take advantage of the 50 per cent reductions. Full details will appear in The Star Friday.

Experienced salesmen and women can secure employment during sale by applying at The Hub Friday.

START BANKERS' CAGE SEASON

Elks No. 1 and E. N. Brooks Bowling Teams Meet

There's bound to be a battle royal in the city bowling league tonight, when the Elks No. 1, present leaders, and the E. N. Brooks five, second place holders, tangle in the feature match of Thursday's schedule, on the Elks' alleys.

The Elks go into tonight's game with a handicap of 28 pins, while the Brooks five has but a handicap of 1, all of their team but Davis being scratch, and Davis is shooting at an average of 184, scratch being 185 pins.

The Elks will line up as follows, each man's handicap being enumerated: Kinne & Eberling & Hausdorf 12, Dobb & Vaden 20.

Brooks' lineup
Huntson & Wade & Shuman, & Mahan & Davis 1.
There isn't a chance for the Brooks team to slip into first place this week, even if they make a clean sweep of tonight's games, because they are four games behind the Elks as a result of last week's matches. But if the Haberdashers should kick thru with said clean sweep, the Artlers hold on the top rung of the league ladder if they make a clean sweep of tonight's games, because they are four games behind the Elks as a result of last week's matches.

Another good match should be on tap at the ideal alleys, when the Elks No. 2 team gets together with the fast-going Eagles. The F. O. E. team is coming along at a fast pace, and they have a fine chance to finish in the money yet.

OTHER GAMES TONIGHT
The other games scheduled for tonight find the Elks No. 3 squad locking horns with the Rube Cafe five on the ideal alleys, and the Union Tailors playing Rippe's Cafe on the same alleys.

Cheasty's will argue with the Dem by Truck team at the Elks' club, and the Orpheum and the Lumbermen will get together at the Orpheum alleys.

LEONARD AND MITCHELL READY
NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Henry Leonard and Richie Mitchell, who are to meet here tomorrow night for the world's lightweight championship, ended their training here today. Both will indulge in just enough exercise to keep on edge. The champion is a 7-to-5 favorite in the betting. Both have posted forfeits of $5,000 to weigh 135 pounds at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

In one of the best basketball games seen on a local floor for some time, the Knights of Columbus team beat the colored Sunset Athletic club five by a 45-27 count on the Casey floor. The good sportsmanship and clean playing of the losers was one of the features of the contest.
