BLUE HOUSE—"The Forbidden Thing."

WHEN George Fawcett, the veteran character actor whose face has become familiar to screen fans in literally hundreds of motion pictures, recently announced that he had given up acting and would henceforth confine his cinema activities to directing, he meant every word he said. But, like the prima donna who stretches her "farewell appearances" over several years, Mr. Fawcett simply couldn't resist George Fitzmaurice's appeal to play one of the leading roles in the latest Fitzmaurice production, "Idols of Clay." As the producer pointed out, the part ideally suited the veteran, and Mr. Fawcett, having a few weeks in between directorial jobs, succumbed.

"Idols of Clay" is an original story by Ouida Bergere. The picture features Mae Murray and David Powell, and its action is laid in the South Sea Islands, in London society resorts, and in the opium dens of the Limehouse district.

CLEMMER—"The U. P. Trail," the film play at the Clemmer this week, is the third of Zane Grey's popular novels to be transferred to the screen. First came "Desert Gold," next "Riders of Dawn," and from the novel called "The Desert of Wheat."

"The U. P. Trail" has to do with the love and adventures of Warren Neale, a civil engineer whose skill puts thru the last lap of America's first transcontinental railroad.

COLISEUM—Sylvia Bremer plays the part of "the girl who weeps around the corner" in "Unseen Forces," the drama at the Coliseum this week.

"Unseen Forces" concerns the experiences of a young woman who is possessed of an uncanny power which enables her at times to foresee future incidents.

CONRAD—Conrad Nagle is Miss Bremer's capable leading man.

COLONIAL—What superstition did to alter the course of two lives is the theme of "The House of Tolling Bells," the photoplay now at the Colonial, in which May McAvoy and Bruce Gordon are the featured players.

"Behold My Wife" is the photoplay feature at the Rex this week. The scenes for this picture are laid in the Canadian trading post country and in England. The story is about a crude young Indian girl who became a lady and a fallen Britisher who became a man.

Mabelle Julienne Scott and Milton Sills are the featured players.

REX—"Behold My Wife" is the photoplay feature at the Rex this week.

For QUICK benefit in cases of eye strain there is nothing equal to simple witch hazel, camphor, hydraetis, etc., as mixed in Lavoptic eye wash. William Christy Cabanne's powerful drama, "The Stagers," will be the next film offering at the Clemmer.

"Love, Honor and Behave," at the Liberty, will be followed by a new screen drama, "Godless Men."

"Isobel; or the Trail's End," by James Oliver Curwood, will be the next attraction at the Strand.

Blond Beauty Has Leading Role in Sennett Comedy at Liberty

Phyllis Haver, one of the feminine members of Mack Sennett's famous comedies—and one of the main reasons why these comedies are extremely easy on the eyes. At the Liberty this week, in Sennett's five-reel comedy, "Love, Honor and Behave," Phyllis appears as the dashing young wife of Ford Sterling. Most of the hilarity takes place in a divorce court, with Charles Murray as the presiding judge.

Norma Talmadge Gains Over Mary Pickford in Contest

Determined that Norma Talmadge should run ahead of Mary Pickford in the popularity contest to elect a queen and king of movie land, friends of this popular star have rallied to her support and Thursday's count places Miss Talmadge six votes ahead of Mary. This is the first day little Mary has dropped from first place. Constance Talmadge still holds third place, with Viola Dana, Ethel Clayton and Lillian Gish close upon her heels.

HE WILL TELL ANYBODY
"I had a severe cold," writes Forest Thomas, R. R. 2, Box 29, O'Fallon, Mo. "I thought I was taking pneumonia or consumption. Nothing seemed to do me any good. I was recommended to try Foley's Honey and Tar. I took two bottles and I feel perfectly well now. I'll tell anybody Foley's Honey and Tar can't be beat for colds and coughs and ought to be kept in the house all the time. It pays to do so." Be sure to get the genuine Foley's. Contains no opiates.—Advertisement.

BETTY COMPSON IS AUTO ENTHUSIAST

Betty Compson, leading woman in "Prisoners of Love," soon to be shown in this city, is an ardent automobile racing enthusiast. In the days when "juvenile" contests were in vogue she owned a tiny speedster which broke all juvenile records, and earned the title of "Juvenile Speed King of the World." When she wanted to be represented in the big game she ordered a special car known as the "Compson Special," which also made a name for itself at the racing carnivals.

William Christy Cabanne's powerful drama, "The Stagers," will be the next film offering at the Clemmer.

"Love, Honor and Behave," at the Liberty, will be followed by a new screen drama, "Godless Men."

"Isobel; or the Trail's End," by James Oliver Curwood, will be the next attraction at the Strand.

Remarkable Case of Mr. Mervin

Could Eat Nothing—Not Even Fruit. Used Simple Intestinal Antiseptic.

"I suffered for six years from stomach trouble and could not eat anything—not even fruit. I took a carload of pills. I have now taken two bottles of Adlerika (intestinal antiseptic) and can eat anything. I could write a newspaper full about Adlerika and certainly would not be without it." (Signed) H. C. Mervin.

Intestinal Antiseptic
There is now offered to the public a preparation having the DOUBLE action of an intestinal antiseptic and a COMPLETE system cleanser. This preparation, known as Adlerika, acts as follows:
It tends to eliminate or destroy harmful germs and colon bacilli in the intestinal canal, thus guarding against appendicitis and other diseases having their start here.
It is the most complete system cleanser ever offered to the public, acting on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removing foul matter which poisoned the system for months and which nothing else can dislodge. It brings out all gases, thus immediately relieving pressure on the heart. It is astonishing the great amount of poisonous matter Adlerika draws from the alimentary canal—matter you never thought was in your system. Try it right after a natural movement and notice how much more foul matter it brings out which was poisoning you. In slight disorders, such as occasional constipation, sour stomach, gas on the stomach and sick headache, one spoonful Adlerika ALWAYS brings relief. A longer treatment, however, is necessary in cases of obstinate constipation and long-standing stomach trouble.

Reports From Physicians
"I used Adlerika in my practice and have found nothing to excel it." (Signed) Dr. W. A. Lane.
"I have found nothing in my 50 years practice to excel Adlerika." (Signed) Dr. James Weaver.
"I use Adlerika in all bowel cases. Some require only one dose." (Signed) Dr. F. M. Prettyman.
"After taking Adlerika feel better than for 20 years. Haven't language to express the AWFUL IMPURITIES eliminated from my system." (Signed) J. E. Puckett.
Adlerika is a constant surprise to people who have used only ordinary bowel and stomach medicines, on account of its rapid, pleasant and COMPLETE action. It is sold by leading druggists everywhere. Sold in Seattle by Swift Drug Co., Bartell Drug Co. and other leading drug stores.—Advertisement
