WILLIAM CHRISTY CABANNE'S powerful story, "The Stealers," will be the featured picture at the Clemmer, beginning Saturday.

"The Stealers," as its name implies, is a crook play. The central figure, and the one around whom all of the virile action of the piece revolves, is a clergyman who turns his calling into what he believes a vast mockery of God thru the use of God's word as a decoy for a band of traveling crooks of which he is the head.

William H. Tooker, Robert Kenyon, Myrtle Morse and Ruth Dwyer are in the cast.

COLISEUM
When "Prisoners of Love" opens at the Coliseum Saturday picture patrons will have the opportunity to witness the debut of pretty Betty Compson as a star. Miss Compson stepped from light comedy into an emotional role in "The Miracle Man" and was so successful in her new role that she received a flattering offer from the Goldwyn company to star in a production bearing her own name.

"Prisoners of Love" tells the story of the adventures of a young girl of exceptional beauty and wealth who which opens Saturday at the Liberty, is described as a remarkable sea story. It is adapted from the stirring tale, "Black Pawl," by Ben Ames Williams.

Williams has taken for his chief character a man hated and feared on all the seven seas, the hardest skipper who ever trod a deck. A spectacular fistic encounter between this man and his son, "Red Pawl," furnishes one of the big thrills in the picture.

Russell Simpson plays "Black Pawl."

STRAND
House Peters and Jane Novak are prominent in the cast of James Oliver Curwood's stirring tale, "Isobel; or, The Trail's End."

The story is a conventional tale, woven out of the search for a murderer by Canadian mounted police. Those who have followed the splendid work of Miss Novak in the Curwood dramas will be delighted with her portrayal of the plucky wife of the murderer, who stands by her husband until the end.

"Isobel; or, The Trail's End," opens Saturday at the Strand.

COLONIAL
Pretty Seena Owen, who has been starred on the screen and also has the distinction of having supported almost every male star in pictures, plays the part of Carol McCall, in "The Cheater Reformed," the photoplay which opens at the Colonial Saturday.

William Russell is featured in this picture. He plays the role of a crook who poses as a clergyman, making the wife of the real clergyman think he is her husband.

REX
"The Inner Voice," a film play in which E. K. Lincoln is starred, opens at the Rex Saturday. It is the story of a young man, who, in following the dictates of his heart, rather than his better judgment, is ruined financially and led to believe that the woman he loves is joyful over his downfall. How he wins his way back to success and happiness, in spite of those bent on his ruin, forms a wonderfully appealing story.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute of calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

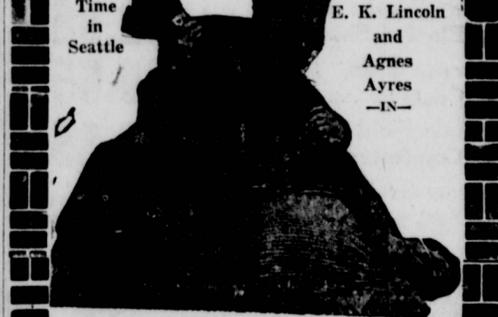

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.
