WILLIAM CHRISTY CABANNE'S photoplay, "The Stealers," at the Clemmer this week, represents the fruits of years of work and experience on the part of the famous director, who was once D. W. Griffith's chief of staff. Mr. Cabanne wrote, directed and produced the picture.

The plot is written around a band of crooks, one of whom, a clergyman, has lost faith because of the infidelity of his wife. He preaches his sermons, while his confederates pick the pockets of the congregation. But the unceasing faith of a good woman reveals to the sinners the true light.

STRAND
A beautiful young woman plodding wearily over miles of snow-covered ground dragging a dog sled on which lies a long pine box carrying the body of her husband, is one of the touching scenes in James Oliver Curwood's story, "Isobel, or The Trail's End," which is being shown at the Strand this week. The husband had killed a man and this was the manner in which the couple made their escape from the Northwest Mounted Police. Jane Novak plays Isobel, the wife.

LIBERTY
A terrific storm at sea, picturing the desperate efforts of a crew of men to keep their ship afloat, is one of the remarkable features of "Godless Men," the screen version of Ben Ames Williams' story, which is being shown at the Liberty this week.

Reginald Barker, who directed "The Branding Iron," "The Girl From Outside" and other big photoplays, is largely responsible for the success of "Godless Men."

COLONIAL
"Cheater Reformed" is the title of the film play at the Colonial. William Russell is the star. Bill plays two roles, being seen as twin brothers, one a clergyman and the other a crook. When the clergyman is killed the crook assumes his position in life. A fine situation for the sport of guessing how the story is going to end.

Marshall Neilan's splendid Western drama, "The Country That God Forgot," opens at the Rex today.

Mary Charleson (Mrs. Henry Walthall, who was seen here recently at the Metropolitan with her talented husband in "Choctaw") has the leading feminine role, while Thomas Santschi of "The Spoilers" fame is the hero. George Fawcett is also in the cast.

Former Christie Comedy Girl Makes Rapid Climb to Stardom

Scene from "Prisoners of Love," a pretty romantic drama, in which Betty Compson is starring at the Coliseum this week. Betty hails from Salt Lake City, Utah. She began her stage career in vaudeville, and her first venture into movies was with the Christie Film company, a little over a year ago. From comedies this dainty little actress graduated to a real dramatic role when she was chosen for the character of Rose in George Loane Tucker's "The Miracle Man." Her work created much enthusiasm, which resulted in a big contract with the Goldwyn company. She is now a full-fledged star.

An Unfailing Way to Banish Hairs

(Beauty Notes)

Ugly hairy growths can be removed in the privacy of your own home if you get a small original package of delatone and mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the hairy surface. This should be left on the skin about 2 minutes, then removed and the skin washed and every trace of hair will have vanished. No harm or inconvenience can result from this treatment, but be sure you buy real delatone.—Advertisement.

Don't Suffer. E-Z Tooth Filler Will Kill That Pain and Torture.

Toothache Pleads Move Out Quickly

Toothache stands no more chance of lasting after "E-Z Tooth Filler" is applied in the cavity than a hunk of ice has of lasting on a hot stove. It melts away, just as the ice does, and just as quick.

Best of all, though, it's more than a mere temporary relief. When put in the cavity, it seals it air-tight and hardens quickly. The ache stops and stays stopped, while "E-Z" acts as a regular filling until you get ready to go to a dentist for a permanent job.

It is not merely a temporary relief either, but a real filling for the cavity which will last for weeks or months. Anyone can use "E-Z Tooth Filler." It takes but a moment and costs only 30¢.

"E-Z Tooth Filler" is for sale at drug druggists at a bottle, or sent direct upon receipt of price by the Chas. A. Bertram Drug Co., 3471 Madison Ave., Chicago.
