Mrs. Coultts Weds Mr. Cummings at Home Ceremony; Farewell Luncheon for Mrs. Baxter; To Be Dinner Hosts.

THE marriage of Mrs. Beulah Mitchell Coultts to Mr. Marion Russell Cummings, son of Mrs. J. H. Cummings of Ithaca, N. Y., was solemnized today at 1 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Moses, in the presence of the immediate family and a few close friends, Rev. E. W. Erickson of the Haven Methodist church reading the service.

There were no attendants. The bride was charmingly attired in a costume of midnight blue tulle, with gray squirrel collar and cuffs, a squirrel scarf and a dark blue tulle hat with gray brim, which underneath had a faint tracery design of steel beads. With a corsage of orchids, gardenias and lilacs of the valley, she made an artistic picture.

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served in the dining room, where Mrs. Harry W. Hollis and Mrs. Calvin C. Carpenter presided at the daintily appointed table, which had for its central decoration a graceful arrangement of narcissi, jonquils, violets and smilax.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummings left on their wedding journey and will be at home after March 1 at 323 Lakeside Blvd.

Found Hanging in the Closet

"I tell you, Jim, I certainly was startled to go to the closet last night and find a new suit hanging there. We passed there last week and looked in the windows and saw a peach of a suit for only $39.50—just what Mayme wanted; but you know how it is nowadays, with 60c eggs and $1.25 gas, the old pay check only goes so far. Mayme needed the suit, but we couldn't see paying out the amount just now. After taking one look, I made a mental calculation, and saw where we would have to subsist on tea and toast for the next month."

"But Mayme's explanation cleared up the matter. Mrs. Brown told her of Cherry's easy payment plan, and she went to investigate, returning with the suit and enough cash in her purse to assure our having three squares a day. Their store is conveniently located on Second ave., between Madison and Spring, 307 Rialto Bldg., over Pig's Whistle.—Adv.

A TAM, A SMOCK, A TEMPERAMENT AND YOU'RE FITTED FOR ART

BY DOROTHY FAY GOULD

HAVE YOU a tam, a smock, a temperament and a smock? If you have and want to give them an airing, go down a Monday, Tuesday, Friday evening to the mysterious regions under the Women's University club, back of the Metropolitan theatre.

There the Seattle Greenwich Village celebrities are disporting themselves. The HASBEENS in picture hats and with expensive clean pads of paper draw fiercely as only those who never hope to make good can. The HOPETOBES cheerfully and recklessly smudge up their charcoal drawings of poor Venus—lovely lady that she is—patiently standing against two tatters of green curtain safety-pinned together.

THIRTY-ODD EASELS SCATTERED ABOUT

Thirty-odd easels are scattered about. Some are gathered around Mrs. Irene Ewing Davis in her bright red smock as she gives advice on quaint toy posters. Some surround the lady Venus, where Paul Gustin and Alonzo Victor Lewis point out the secrets of rendering her perfections in mere black and white. Others seclude themselves behind the mysterious partition where all windows are heavily covered over with thick brown paper to exclude the too curious eyes once seen gazed to the apertures while "Life Class" was going on.

The poor model sits rigid and frigid beside an electric heater while being sculpted by a lady in a blue smock, and while being painted or drawn in charcoal by eight or ten others. On the wall hang charts of information for the architectural students.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquors. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lary feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "log" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c

Do You Know a Baby Sick With Constipation

Tell the mother to give half a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

NO thoughtful mother with children in the house will risk being without a good, reliable laxative. It will save many a serious illness, many a doctor's visit.

When the baby cries and is fretful, when the boy has no appetite and won't play, when the girl is listless and feverish, when there are complaints of headaches and colds, the mother can suspect constipation. Give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the small dose prescribed on the bottle, when you put the child to bed, and with morning the ailment will have disappeared.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a popular compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. It acts gently and mildly, and children take it without objection. A sixty-cent bottle is enough to last an average family many months. The ingredients are endorsed in the U. S. Pharmacopoeia, and last year American mothers bought over eight million bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from druggists. It is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, and few cautious families are ever without it.

TRY IT FREE

Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 615 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois. Even if you don't need a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.
