Swiss Singers Give Pleasing Concert

Last evening at the Metropolitan theatre, F. Zimmermann, lyric tenor, and Mme. Marcelle Grandville, soprano, appeared in concert. Their program contained a varied assortment of Swiss, French, and German folk songs, many of the selections being compositions by Mr. Zimmermann. Both artists are noted for their singing of folk songs and yodels, and the audience which greeted them last evening at their first appearance here was an enthusiastic one. They have pleasing voices which blend well together. An unusual feature was the last half of the program given in their picturesque native costume.

High Set Psyche Knot Latest Style in Hair-Dressing

The day of smoothly dressed, neatly netted hair, is past in Paris. Waves and short curls about the face, and the high set Psyche knot made of finger puffs, as shown in the illustration, comprise the latest thing in hairdressing, especially for evening wear. In many instances a large circular comb is thrust into the hair as a support of the Psyche knot, which is dressed so softly that without other security than ordinary hairpins it would be in danger of falling.

STEINWAY

The Instrument of the Immortals

In those homes where the positions of the Immortals are known and loved and kept living—where fine music is daily food for the soul—there you will find the Steinway. It is but natural that this, the piano of the Immortals—the choice of such men as Liszt and Wagner and Gounod—should be also the choice of those who know and love and cherish their music.

Whenever you are ready to choose your Steinway, whether today or next year, we shall be here to serve you.
