BEAUTY CULTURE HINTS

There is real common sense in just noticing whether the hair is well kept to judge of a woman's neatness, or good taste. If you are one of the few who try to make the most of your hair, remember that it is not advisable to wash the hair with any cleanser made for all purposes, but always use some good shampoo. You can enjoy the very best by getting some castor oil from your druggist, dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. Dandruff, excess oil, and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.—Advertisement.

Bad Check Suspect Swindled Grocer?

Alleged to have victimized George H. Heigosen, grocer, 1925 First ave. A. P. Smith, alias Pat Smith, who, police say, is a bad check artist with a criminal record, is in the city jail Tuesday. He was arrested by Detective D. J. McLennan and J. D. Dooon on a warrant charging him with first degree forgery.

Stupid Titles: "White and Unmarried," "Why Trust Your Husband?" "Deception," "Passion" and the unforgivable one, "Male and Female."

Walter McGrath will be leading man for Anita Stewart in "The Price of Happiness."

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chubblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable. 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $3.00

An Unfailing Way to Banish Hairs

(Beauty Notes) Ugly hairy growths can be removed in the privacy of your own home if you get a small original package of delatone and mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the hairy surface. This should be left on the skin about 2 minutes, then removed and the skin washed and every trace of hair will have vanished. No harm or inconvenience can result from this treatment, but be sure you buy real delatone.—Advertisement.

Bill Hart Has Fine Role in "O'Malley of the Mounted"

Bill Hart has one of the best roles of his screen career in "O'Malley of the Mounted" at the Strand this week. He is seen in the role of a member of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police.

IN his latest photoplay, "O'Malley of the Mounted," now showing at the Strand, Bill Hart has perhaps the best starring vehicle of his screen career. It is a story of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police of Canada, and from start to finish there isn't an actionless scene in the play.

There are many remarkable scenes in the picture and those who like to see Hart in one of his big stunts will not be disappointed. Eva Novak, who supported the star in "The Testing Block," has the leading feminine role.

CLERMER Captain Kidd tactics are obsolete. Then what sense, capricious Ardita asked herself, to this pirate who was loving it on her yacht so highlandedly? It turned out that the dashing corsair was commissioned to make her love him—and he succeeded with a vengeance. Just how this desperado accomplished the feat is told in "The Offshore Pirate," a rollicking comedy-drama, featuring pretty little Viola Dana at the Clermer this week.

BLUE MOUSE Have you ever found yourself wondering what happens to those friendless girls in iron-souled New York, starving for sympathy and companionship and ready to dare all for a moment's happiness? Ember Edwards, the leading character in "Without Limit" at the Blue Mouse this week, is such a person. She gets drunk and then awakes to sobriety to find herself married to a coward.

LIBERTY Is your life beset with obstacles? Do you have troubles, worries and setbacks? Do you envy the fellow who lives on Easy Street? Then take heart, for you are among those who gain the joy of success.

COLONIAL "Some One in the House" is the title of the screen drama at the Colonial. It is an adaptation of the Broadway stage success, in which a society crook plans a daring theft of gems. His skillful maneuvering of many obstacles until he has obtained his object, only to find that love is too strong to conquer, make it a feature of fascinating thrills.

REX Madge Kennedy, the delightful little comedienne, is playing at the Rex this week in "The Highest Bidder," a new Goldwyn picture.

MISS KENNEDY plays the role of Sally, a young girl who falls in love with a good-looking millionaire. This chap, Lester by name, returns Sally's affections, but his romance is almost wrecked by a designing adventuress.

The third episode of the serial, "The Son of Tarzan" is shown on the same bill.

W. E. Mulligan, publicity man, was showing Colleen Moore a good time in New York. He spent 70 cents for their combined lunches. That was in one of those places where you drop nickels in the slot to get your chow.

Old Folks Need Blood-Iron Phosphate

Often Makes Them Look and Feel Twenty Years Younger

Young, strong and vigorous at seventy would be the rule and not the exception if you only kept your nerves strong and your blood rich in iron. If you want to cover your frame with solid flesh, if you want the courage, strength, health and endurance of twenty or thirty years ago, go to Owl Drug Co. or any other druggist and get a package of Blood-Iron Phosphate and take one tablet with each meal. Nothing that we know of will so quickly and surely restore your nervous energy and vitality—so positively supply that iron which makes rich, red, strength-building blood. So positive are we that Blood-Iron Phosphate will make you feel and look younger, stronger and more vigorous that we authorize Owl Drug Co. and all other druggists to refund the purchase price in full to anyone who is dissatisfied. Get a three weeks' treatment today; it costs only $1.50—a week—and note how quickly you begin to feel better, how much better you sleep, how your appetite improves, and, best of all, the gradual return of that strength, endurance, energy and joy of living you used to feel twenty or thirty years ago.—Advertisement.
