Story & Clark Instruments Are World Famous

It is hardly necessary to elaborate on the superior qualities of the Story & Clark instruments, as they have been before the public since 1857, about 64 years. In all those many years their sole aim has been to produce the highest type of instruments both as to tone and durability, also as to rare and beautiful case designs. Everyone can come and inspect these wonderful player piano bargains with the complete assurance that they represent all that is good and best, combining the most modern and exclusive features in player piano construction.

Liberal Terms
Even though these player pianos are being offered at hundreds of dollars below even the pre-war price, we do not ask you to pay cash. Make a substantial down payment and we will try to arrange terms on balance to suit you.

Store Open Evenings

In order to give all an equal opportunity and to enable those who cannot call during regular business hours to inspect these bargains, we will keep our store open each evening until 7 o'clock during the coming week.

LARSON LOSES A POINT IN TRIAL

Fails in Main Attack on State Charges

TACOMA, May 10.—By a ruling of Superior Judge Askren today the defense in the trial of Ole S. Larson, former president of the failed Scandinavian-American bank, was defeated in its main point of attack against the state charges that Larson, as president, borrowed $10,000 from the bank illegally.

The court denied the demand of the defendant to introduce into evidence the cashier's report of a meeting of the bank's board of directors December 10, 1920, when the board, it was claimed, ratified and approved the cashier's notation of the $10,000 loan.

The contention of the defense was that altho Larson borrowed the money on September 25, 1920, the subsequent approval by the board made it legal.

Judge Askren, in his ruling, interpreted the law as requiring approval by the board prior to the making of the loan.

How Anderson's Watch Got Among "Effects" Is Still the Mystery

Out past Georgetown sped the sheriff's car. A thief was harassing the countryside. Thief catching is one of the best things Deputy Sheriffs Herbert Beebe and Frank Anderson do.

It was late Saturday night. Dark. The roads were slippery from rains. Piled up on a bridge they found a wreck. Two gentlemen stood beside it, looking disconsolately upon the ruin of what had once been a big, fast touring car.

AND HER PINK TOES WERE IN THE COOL WATERS

And under the bridge sat a handsome woman, dabbling her pink toes in the cool waters of the creek. It was an unconventional scene, to say the least. Beebe and Anderson stopped, got out and made some inquiries. It struck them that the two men and the woman might be intoxicated.

"Come," called Anderson to the lady. "Fish-uh," she demurred, playfully. She waded out and disposed herself upon a rock in the middle of the stream.

Further parleying availed nothing. Anderson waded out and carried her ashore, sat her down in the sheriff's car, helped Beebe put the two gentlemen in, and the party headed for Georgetown.

There the three wreck victims were parked in the Georgetown jail, where Deputy Sheriffs Bill Sears and "Bud" Loveall came and got them later. Beebe and Anderson sped back to run to earth the pilfering thief.

WATCH FOUND AMONG WRECK SURVIVORS' THINGS

"That's funny!" exclaimed Night Warden Jimmy Malone. He picked up a watch from a bundle of "effects" that Sears and Loveall had brought in with the three wreck survivors to the county jail.

"Whose is it?" Malone asked.

HUSBAND GREASES SKIDS FOR WIFE TO GET A DIVORCE

Making the road easy for his wife to obtain a divorce, Richard Bradshaw wrote on the bottom of a bill of complaint filed in superior court by Mrs. Bradshaw Monday afternoon, "The above is all true." The wife charges her husband with non-support, desertion and other serious offenses.

Freezing Weather Cuts Fruit Crops

WASHINGTON, May 10.—An alarming shortage in apples, pears, peaches, plums and cherries is feared by the department of agriculture, due to late freezes.

If prices for these five fruits are not to climb above the peak of the war period, farmers and other fruit growers must do the following, government agricultural experts said:

Nurse along what trees were spared in the stricken area. Increase the crops in the areas that escaped the freeze. Permit no fruits to go to waste for lack of care or picking. The principal damage was done in the central portions.

3 1-2 Billions in Annual Tax Bill

WASHINGTON, May 10.—America's annual tax bill will be fixed by congress at $2,500,000,000 if plans of leading members of the house ways and means committee go thru. They would like to reduce the per capita taxation to $30 for every man, woman and child in the country, or $3,000,000,000, but with continued larger appropriations they admit it is doubtful if it can be done.

It now appears certain that no sales tax will be enacted at this session, according to several leaders.
