

FRANCIS DUE TO START GAME

It's about time that Manager Kenworthy start young Ray Francis on the mound. The youthful portside has been finishing up games in grand shape, and has been showing a lot of stuff. He looked particularly good against the Oaks. He showed a good fast ball, a fine hook and a swell change of pace. His one failing in the past has been a wild streak, but his control has been good lately.

Joe Dalley has been having a hard time getting by since the team came home, being rapped off the mound three times and losing his other start. Joe should come around in time, but Francis has been showing more stuff and is entitled to start a game, which would leave Dalley for relief work until he "finds himself" again.

Southpaws are going pretty well in the league so far this season. For the Fittery, of Sacramento, the present league leader, is a portside, and is hurling great ball. Alton, of Oakland; Schorr, of Seattle, and O'Doul, of San Francisco, are considered among the aces of the early season, and they're all pitching sweet ball.

CUNNINGHAM IS GOING GREAT
Right now Billy Cunningham is playing the finest brand of baseball that he has shown since he came to Seattle, a few weeks ago. For the first time in his Seattle sojourn, William is hitting the ball hard in the pinches. And Bill is playing a great game in the field and his throwing well, too. He has put a lot of ginger into his playing, and if he keeps it up he can't be called off that left field job by a million miles.

SMITH SHOULD MAKE LOCALS
If Jimmy Smith, who is slated to fill the shortstop berth for the Seattle team, lives up to expectations and advance reports, he should just about "make" the Seattle team. Bill Stump simply can't make the grade at shortstop. Just on the critical plays Stump kicks the apple all over the lot, and then, too, he's too slow on double plays around the keystone bag. Kenworthy isn't any too fast around second himself, and he needs a fast man to work with. The Duke's hitting is not the only thing that keeps him in the Coast League, but he can get by on the keystone bag with a fast man to work with, because he's steady all the time. Wistertill is a steady man on third, but he can't cover much ground, and a fast shortstop would help out the third-base side of the diamond immensely. Smith is due to join the club in San Francisco about May 25.

WHERE CARPENTIER WILL TRAIN

These outbuildings on the 48-acre Matthews estate, L. I., will be converted into gymnasiums for Georges Carpentier, challenger for Jack Dempsey's heavyweight title. Carpentier's United States representative, Jack Curley, has leased the entire 48 acres for the training period. The site is surrounded by beautiful estates owned by New York millionaires.

KELLY AND RUTH IN GREAT RACE

BY TOM OLSEN
No two figures in the baseball world are more in the public eye than Babe Ruth of the New York Americans and George Kelly of the New York Nationals. Both men have achieved popularity for the same reason—their ability to pound out home runs.

Ruth has been in the public eye for a longer time than Kelly, a former Victoria North western leaguer. Kelly has achieved fame and is achieving it because of the race he is putting up with Babe Ruth for the major league home run honors.

Ruth has knocked 10 home runs and Kelly has pounded out eight round trippers.

Ruth's home run wallop has been responsible for 14 runs made by the Yankees. Kelly's four home hits are responsible for 19 runs made by the Giants.

The fact is evident that Kelly's hitting, along with that of his teammates, is helping the Giants more than Ruth and his teammates' hitting is helping the Yankees.

When Babe pounded out his homers this season, there were only four men on the sacks ahead of him. When Kelly made his circuit clouts there were 11 Giants ahead of him.

Five of Kelly's home runs were made on the Polo Ground in New York. Kelly has three home runs on the Polo Grounds this year. Kelly and Ruth both made two at Philadelphia.

The eyes of all of the baseball world are watching the records of these two great men. All of the Northwest are watching with pride the work of George Kelly, a product of these parts.

PREP DUAL MEETS ON TOMORROW

Three good ball games should be dished up when the prep ball teams play the first of the return games this afternoon.

Ballard, collar champs, play Broadway, the league leaders. Ballard pepped up considerably in their last game and bumped Queen Anne out of first place. Franklin and Lincoln will tangle on Columbia playfield. The Quakers won the last time that these two teams met.

Queen Anne and West Seattle will play on the Mercer playfield. All if the games are slated to get under way at 3:30.

MISS STIRLING MEETS CHAMP

LONDON, May 13.—Miss Alexandra Stirling, America's hope for the women's golf championship, will face a titanic task in the very first round of the championship at Turnberry, Scotland, starting May 20.

The American girl was paired with Miss Cecil Letch, the British champion, for the first round in the draw today.

The two famous stars were expected to have their battle in the final round, but the fates of the draw will put one of them out at the start.

MARATHON CHAMP STICKS TO PLUMBING

NEWARK, N. J., May 13.—Frank Zuna, new record holder of the 25-mile marathon, is back fixing pipes and boilers and training to run again.

Zuna never misses a day at his plumbing job except when away running marathons.

The champion runner was born in Newark. He learned the plumbing business at Summit, N. J., 15 miles from here.

Those 15 miles between Summit and Newark made him a great runner.

Zuna used to run back and forth to work, rain, shine or snow.

STICKS TO PLUMBING

"I'll stick to the plumbing trade," says Zuna.

"There's nothing remarkable about me being able to run 25 miles faster than anybody else.

"I've trained a long time.

"I don't drink or smoke. I've usually in bed by 9 o'clock. I've been running seven years.

"I run 15 miles twice a week when training to run in a marathon."

Zuna recently won the Boston marathon, setting a new record time for the 25-mile race with 2 hours 18 minutes 57.3 seconds.

IGNORES STYLE

Zuna leads a very Bohemian life. He never wears a collar, or tie.

His running coach, Harry Coates, says that Zuna has never talked 300 words about running in the seven years he's been training him.

He follows instructions to the letter.

His trophy case is the floor underneath his bed where his numerous prizes, won in marathons, are stored.

During the war he was a cook in the 27th division.

He won the A. E. F. cross-country championship and also the marathon from Versailles to Paris.

Just now Zuna is training to run in the marathon race from Windsor Castle to Shepherd's Bay, London, in June.

He is 27, weighs 150 and is 5 feet 10 inches tall.

Mails are jammed with letters requesting tickets to the Demp-Carp show. There's only room for 50,000.

SEATTLE MEN REST IN FOURTH PLACE

Seattle's Siwashas are resting in the first division today as the result of their pair of wins registered over the Oakland club yesterday at the local baseball orchard. The first tiff went to the locals by a 3 to 1 count, the tribe winning the game in the fourth by bunting hits off "Buz" Ariett, good for four runs. Bob Geary hurried acceptably for the locals, altho he was very wild.

The Siwash tribe started off strong in the second game, piling up an 8 to 2 lead in the first two frames, but the visitors pounded Joe Dalley hard and jumped into the lead in the sixth by a 9 to 8 tally. But those Seattle pitcher murderers were not to be denied, and before the awful seventh was over eight tallies had scampered over and the Oaks were licked, 15 to 9.

The box scores yodel for themselves. Here they are:

Babe Ruth Gets His Tenth
DETROIT, May 13.—"Babe" Ruth pounded out his 10th home run of the season here yesterday with Detroit. The four-baser was made off of Dause.

George Kelly Gets His Eighth
NEW YORK, May 13.—George Kelly made his sixth home run at the Polo grounds this year and the eighth of the season against St. Louis here yesterday.

Billy Cunningham kept up his great work with the stick. He rapped out two singles in four trips in the first battle and a single and a double in the second tussle.

Billy Kenworthy also batted thru with some great hitting. He slapped out three doubles and two singles in the two games, hitting two doubles in that fat seventh.

"Buz" Ariett doesn't look like the same pitcher that he was last year. The boys hit him freely in the first game.

Tab Spencer took a toe hold in the seventh, and laced a beautiful triple to center. It was one of the hardest hit balls of the day.

When Wistertill tripped on his first trip to the plate, in the first game, it made his hits for him in six trips. He hit safely five times Wednesday.

Joe Dalley hasn't been fooling the enemy any. He was cracked hard yesterday, and nearly lost the game for the locals after they gave him a five-run lead.

Oakland used four pitchers in the second game, but they all looked alike to the home fans.

Honus Mitts argued so strenuously over a pitched ball in the second game that Mal Eason told him he had played enough baseball for one day.

It looks like Alton, the prize southerner of the Oaks, will mount the hill for the visitors today, with Ernie Schorr, Seattle southpaw ace, due to pitch for the home talent.

The enemy got but five hits off of Geary in the first game, but he walked six.

Oakland turned in four double plays against Seattle in the first tiff.

DUNN DEVELOPS GREAT PLAYERS

ALTIMORE, Md., May 13.—Jack Dunn, Baltimore Oriole boss, like Connie Mack, of the Athletics, is a star developer of young ball players.

He has sent up some of the most brilliant performers the diamond game has known.

The average fan would naturally conclude that Dunn employs a wonderful scouting system. He has no scouting system.

The only scouts who beat the brush for promising Orioles are the personal friends of Dunn—men in all walks of life. Dunn has them in large numbers.

"I'm always hearing of young players," says Dunn. "Sometimes it is a traveling man who tips me off to a youngster who is burning them up in some small league or an independent team. If upon investigation the youngster looks good, I send him a contract. That's all there is to it."

COSTS MAJORS FORTUNE
For this same service big league ball clubs spend thousands of dollars a year.

They employ veteran baseball men—men of brains—who scour the woods and sandlots for youthful talent. And not always do they succeed in such measure as does the Baltimore man.

Jack is a great believer in amateur and semi-pro ball.

He lends every encouragement to the formation of leagues among the youth of the city. And he watches their ranks closely.

But he doesn't agree with John McGraw and Fred Mitchell on the schooling of youngsters of mornings.

TWO SPONSOR
Wistertill and McGraw have gone on record in favor of conducting baseball classes during the forenoons when the club is at home.

"I haven't found it pays," says Dunn.

"It takes too much of the manager's time. To do it right one should have a man with nothing else on his mind. Then he might discover talent now and then.

"But I don't believe the time and expense would justify such a course in Baltimore."
