

MINERS AND POLICE IN HOT BATTLE

Struggle in West Virginia Coal Fields Is Renewed With Killings

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., May 13.—Guerrilla warfare continued along the Tug river here today. The fighting between miners' strikers, state police and county sheriffs, which opened at dawn yesterday, reigned in Marietta, Spriggs, Hawk and Auburn, according to meager reports reaching here.

BODY IS LYING ON THE STREET
One man was dead and four wounded, according to latest advices here. Wire communication with the fight area has been cut since the battle started and definite information was lacking.

C. W. Smith, of Auburn, was killed as he stepped from a train here, according to word received here. No attempt has been made to reach the body, which is lying in the line of fire.

Superintendent Lindsey, of the Auburn Coal Company, sent word here that he had dispatched a messenger to the warring factions proposing an armistice. He asked that firing cease immediately.

Capt. J. R. Brockus arrived today from the battle zone. He said his men had been hemmed in between two fighting lines, and their position was precarious. He managed to withdraw the troops in groups of two by maintaining a constant fire.

MINING CAMPS ARE FIRED ON
Harry Staten, former magistrate and prohibition officer, was shot down while in front of his house in Spriggs, six miles from Williamson.

The warfare, which extended up the Tug river six miles to Auburn, and resulted in four West Virginia mining camps being fired on by miners hidden in the hills on the West Virginia and Kentucky sides of the river, followed.

Flares of rifle and revolver fire from the hills were plainly visible here last night.

The sound of the shots occasionally were heard as new volleys were let loose.

The battle died down toward dawn today, after the all-night skirmish, but later started afresh.

Captain J. R. Brockus, with a handful of state police, has not been heard from since he started for the mining colonies in the hills on the West Virginia side of the river.

Deputy sheriffs were dispatched to slay the police force. Little fear for the safety of authorities was felt, however.

ADDITIONAL POLICE BEING RUSHED IN
Additional state police are being rushed here from Willis Branch and other West Virginia points.

Reports were circulated that federal troops from Camp Sherman would arrive within the next few days. The main fight was between miners who have been on strike since industrial warfare was declared a year ago and the strike breakers. State police were fighting both sides.

Troops Ordered to Mine War Zone
CAMP SHERMAN, Ohio, May 13.—Orders were received today for federal forces here to be prepared to move into Mingo county, West Virginia, to quell guerrilla warfare.

Major General Reed, commander of the fifth army corps area, notified Colonel Herman Hall, commander, to hold the 19th infantry regiment in readiness. The regiment's strength is 575 men and includes rifles, trench mortars, howitzers, motor and medical sections.

Trains were waiting to transport the troops on a moment's notice.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Following the cabinet meeting today, Secretary of War Weeks announced he had directed Major General George W. Reed, commander of the fifth army corps area, to investigate the gun fighting in the Mingo county, West Virginia, coal regions.

Go Ahead With N. W. Tourist Publicity
Directors of the Pacific Northwest Tourist association decided at Vancouver, B. C., Thursday to inaugurate their tourist publicity for this year. The action was taken in the expectation that the state of Washington will raise its full quota by subscription within the next few days.

Oregon and British Columbia have met their share of the expense by legislative appropriation. Washington is within a few thousand dollars of the necessary $27,500 by subscription from business men.

Architect School to Display Work
The work of the architectural school at the University of Washington will be inspected by city architects today from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 9 p. m. There are 200 students in the school, which has been in existence seven years.

COLONEL IN THE ARMY IS FIRST ON LIST NAMING SLACKERS
CHICAGO, May 13.—The first name on the "slacker list" made public here yesterday was William Sutherland Bacon, a colonel in the army.

Bacon volunteered as a private in 1917 and was assigned to the chemical warfare service. He was a lieutenant colonel when honorably discharged.

The colonel's mother-in-law, Mrs. George M. Blossom, said "some one ought to apologize to William."

Bacon is now connected with the bond department of the National City bank, New York.

Caldwell Is First to Buy Campfire Tags

Mayor's Daughters Sell 'Em to Hizzoner

Bright and early this morning when His Honor, the Mayor, started for the office, he was waylaid, buttonholed and separated from two times by the girls decked out in Indian togs, shown in the above picture.

They are the mayor's attractive young daughters, Anne and Eleanor and both are Camp Fire girls.

Thus the tag campaign for the Seattle Camp Fire girls was launched.

The real tag sale, however, won't start until Saturday morning.

The tags will be 10 cents each, no more, no less. And the proceeds will be used to fund the Camp Fire girls' summer home on Vashon island.

Seattle is one of the greatest Camp Fire centers in the country, there being 1,800 Camp Fire girls here.

Camp Fire is declared to be one of the greatest factors for good now in existence. It teaches girls love of the home and trains them for all that's good and wholesome.

In the Camp Fire circles are being moulded the future mothers of America.

They do want to build up that camp. It means everything to them.

Urges Tax-Cutting Body Be Appointed
Immediate appointment by the city of two representatives and by the county, port district and school district No. 1 of one representative each, in accordance with the decision at a recent meeting of public officials, to devise means of reducing taxation, was urged by Port Commissioner W. T. Christensen Thursday in a letter to the tax-laying bodies affected.

The representatives thus appointed are to report to a joint meeting of the bodies they represent, May 25.

A 200 POUND STEER

Will Be Roasted in Dr. Loughney's Human Bake Oven

SATURDAY May 14th

Doctors, nurses and any one interested, are invited to see this remarkable demonstration of the tremendous heat generated in the human bake oven. The steer will be cooked under the same temperature and under the same conditions as the heat is applied in treating human beings, except that the human body is wrapped in less than one-quarter inch of toweling during the "baking" process.

After the steer is cooked, in the afternoon, it will be served in a barbecue to all present.

Dr. Loughney's office is at 405 Olive st., Waverley Apartments, corner Fourth and Olive.

LLOYD GEORGE IS FRIGHTENED

Says Poles Threaten Peace of Europe

LONDON, May 13.—The peace of Europe is threatened by the Polish insurrection in Upper Silesia, Premier Lloyd George told commons today.

"I am frightened," he declared, "at what may happen if confidence is not restored."

"The Polish invasion is a complete defiance of the treaty of Versailles," the premier declared.

"Unless stern justice is meted out immediately it will be fatal to the peace of Europe."

George said there was no reason why the allies should object to Germany's using her forces to keep order in her own province.

"That would be simply fair play," he declared.

The premier's approval of Germany's use of her forces in Upper Silesia marked a grave divergence of opinion with the French.

France is on record as disapproving a German expedition into that region. She answered Berlin's proposal of such an expedition with the statement that it would be a violation of the Versailles treaty and would be considered an act of war.

Terrorism Is Feared in Upper Silesia

By Carl D. Groat

OPPEIN, Upper Silesia, May 13.—Unrestrained terrorism in Upper Silesia was feared today. Polish followers of Adalbert Korfanty, lacking supplies and funds, are getting out of control.

Thus far the Poles have acted as organized military bands. If not held under control, it was feared a reign of outlawry would be instituted.

A general strike of German workers became effective here following a German protest to General Lerond, French commandant, over "French unfairness."

Lerond was asked by the German plebiscite representative to tell the truth regarding Polish claims that an armistice has been arranged, with the Poles retaining possession of three-quarters of Upper Silesia.

"It's a swindle," Lerond declared. "No such armistice has been arranged."

Despite Lerond's denial, the Warsaw wireless repeated the claim yesterday.

Proclaim Silesia Region Independent
COPENHAGEN, May 13.—The independence of Upper Silesia will be declared today by Adalbert Korfanty, Polish leader, according to dispatches here.

Korfanty, former Polish plebiscite commissioner in Upper Silesia, directed the armed expedition into that region and the seizure of more than half the country. The operation was much the same as the occupation of the Vilna region by General Zeligowski. Altho Germany won most of the region by plebiscite, the Poles hope the allies will give them the occupied portions.

FRIGHT KILLS EDMONDS MAN

Sees Youth Fatally Injured and Drops Dead

Frightened by the screams of a youth, pinned beneath an overturned tractor, H. W. Depue, 70, of Edmonds, had an attack of heart trouble Thursday afternoon and died before assistance arrived. Fred Bacon, the youth, was possibly fatally injured.

Bacon, 20, an expert tractor operator, was using the machine in clearing a site for the Edmonds Spring Water company's $25,000 gillnet reservoir when it fell backward upon him while he was trying to make a slight upgrade.

His screams, which frightened Depue, died away in a few seconds as he became unconscious. He did not regain consciousness Thursday night. Internal injuries are feared, although no bones were broken.

Steam Roller Runs Away; Driver Killed
Instantly killed when his clothing caught in the drive shaft of the ponderous machine Thursday afternoon, the body of John Inman, 54, was carried more than two blocks on top of the steam roller he had been piloting.

Inman, who had been employed in the park department for the last 11 years as steam roller engineer, had just finished some work on the Madrona Park boulevard when his clothing caught on a set screw on the main shaft drive.

His body was pulled up on top of the boiler and his skull crushed. Carrying the dead body, the pileless machine lurched over 200 yards down Lake Washington Blvd. and then plunged down a 10-foot embankment at the foot of E. James st.

Inman was alone on the roller at the time. There were no witnesses to the accident.

Inman lived alone at 223, 24th ave. S.

MORE LAID OFF IN STRIKE HERE

Pacific S. S. Co. Employees Lose Their Jobs

No shipping board vessels sailed from Seattle Thursday, and none was scheduled to sail today.

More employees, the total now being nearly 200, were laid off by the Pacific Steamship Co. in Seattle and Tacoma.

The steamships West Juggo, Wheatland, Montana and West Inn, the latter having just arrived from the Orient, will be sailed on schedule time with full nonunion crews, if the strike is not over, their operators declared Friday.

The steamship Willsoke, altho a shipping board vessel, is unimpeded by the strike. Her crew was signed on at New York for the return trip at the old rate before the strike began. The Willsoke is at Tacoma, loading for the return voyage.

The unions and the ship operators were apparently no nearer an agreement Friday than before. While the strikers indicate that the wage cut might be accepted by them, they firmly hold to their demand for one-time pay.
