Miss Sweeza to Entertain With Picnic Supper at Haller Lake; Honor Guests at Luncheon; Bridge Luncheon as Farewell Compliment.

MISS VERNITA SWEZZA will entertain with a large picnic supper party at her attractive home on Haller lake Saturday afternoon, August 27, as a pre-nuptial compliment to Miss Margaret Bell. The affair will also give the hostess opportunity to bid farewell to a group of her friends before leaving Sunday to spend a year in study at the Parsons School of Design and Applied Art, in New York city.

Invitations have been limited to fifty friends, members of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, who are motoring from Olympia, Tacoma, Mount Vernon, Everett and Seattle for the festivity.

Progressive Luncheon
Mrs. Charles R. Williams, Mrs. S. L. Whipple and Mrs. Charles Parker will entertain with a progressive luncheon Tuesday afternoon, August 23, complimentary to Miss Alice Watkins of Denver, who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Huntington, and Mrs. Harry Packard, who will leave with Dr. Packard early in the fall for Persia. Places will be marked for thirty intimate friends of the honor guests.

Mrs. Parish Plans Bridge Luncheon
Honoring Mrs. Paschall W. Smith, who is leaving Thursday for a visit of several weeks in Denver, Mrs. Howard Wells Parish will entertain with a luncheon of thirty covers at her residence tomorrow afternoon. Bridge will be the later diversion. Mrs. H. F. Jahn, Mrs. John G. Pierce and Mrs. B. L. Gates will be absent.

Bridge Supper as Divertissement
Complimenting Miss Alice Wetmore, of Santa Barbara, Cal., the house guest of Miss Margaret Chinn, and Miss Mary Lea Flaken, who is sailing next week to visit her brother in China, Miss Harriet Baxter will entertain with a bridge supper at her home tomorrow evening.

Miss Chinn Hostess at Attractive Bridge Tea
Entertaining in honor of her house guest, Miss Alice Wetmore of Santa Barbara, Cal., and Miss Carlene Crangle of Minneapolis, Miss Margaret Chinn was hostess at her home this afternoon.

Three tables of bridge were in play, with a large number of friends calling at the tea hour, when Miss Mildred Farrar, Miss Emily Jerome, Miss Harriet Baxter and Miss Virginia Sheahan alternated at the urns, assisted by the girls who were entertained at bridge. A lovely basket of flowers in the brown and golden tones centered the pretty tea table.

Bridge Luncheon Will Honor Mrs. Hines
Mrs. J. Claude Moore will entertain with a luncheon at her home Saturday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. James Shackelford Hines, of San Francisco. Bridge will be the later diversion.

Luncheon at Sunset Club
With covers placed for fourteen guests, Mrs. Fred Hudson Baxter entertained with a luncheon at the Sunset club this afternoon.

Mrs. Phillips Hostess at Two Charming Teas
Honoring her mother, Mrs. De Witt C. Nellis of Topeka, Kansas, and her sister, Mrs. Harmon Ryus of Los Angeles, Mrs. Albert Charles Phillips was hostess last week at two charming bridge parties, followed by musical teas. The musical selections were given by Mrs. Bruce F. Morgan, Mrs. Adan Beeler, Mrs. Harmon Ryus and Mrs. Romaine Elliott Lawson. At the tea hour, Mrs. Mayo, wife of Rear Admiral Henry T. Mayo, U. S. N., Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary, Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Harry Whitney Treat presided at the prettily decorated table.

Mrs. Hall Luncheon Hostess
With Mrs. James Shackelford Hines, of San Francisco, as the honor guest, Mrs. John Lee Hall will be luncheon hostess at her residence Tuesday afternoon. Twelve guests will be entertained.

Delightful Tea Given Today
Mrs. John Richard Connor (Dorothy Jenkins) entertained with a delightful tea at her new home, 2447 Second ave. W., this afternoon, complimenting Miss Vernita Sweeza, who is leaving Sunday for New York.

Miss Tremper Married in New York
Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Tremper announce the marriage of their daughter, Bertha, to Mr. Eric von der Goltz, son of Dr. and Mrs. von der Goltz, of New York city. The marriage was quietly solemnized Friday evening, August 12, at 8:30 o'clock, in Grace church, New York. Mr. and Mrs. von der Goltz will be at home in New York after September 1.

Miss Wallace Will Wed September 7
Miss Norma Wallace, whose engagement to Mr. James M. Bell was announced last spring, has chosen Wednesday, September 7, as the day of her wedding. The service will be read by Rev. James W. Price, at 8:25 o'clock in the evening, at the home of the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Clara Louise Wallace, who will attend her sister as maid of honor, and the best man will be Mr. James Marion Collins. A reception and dance will follow the ceremony.

Widow, Victim of Incendiary Is Given Help

Bravely facing the future with a smile, Mrs. Heva, whose home was fired by a burglar early Saturday morning, is busily engaged in making a new home for her five children.

Homeless and penniless, their entire home and its contents destroyed, Mrs. Heva is confident that "everything will turn out right some day."

Early Saturday a burglar entered Mrs. Heva's home at 959 W. 64th st. and fired it, after stealing all she had, $28, and filling a sack with tabacore, which was found in the yard.

Two weeks ago her young son, Jack, 19, was struck down by an auto and is still in the hospital. Another son, Johnny, 13, is a cripple.

Two other children, Irene, 16, and Robert, 13, are dependent on their mother. William Heva, 18, is employed on a fishing schooner in Alaskan waters.

"I want to thank the readers of The Star for the help they are giving me," said Mrs. Heva Monday. "I'm going to make a new home. I've rented the basement of a house at 847 W. 64th st. now and I've just got to have a home for William when he comes back."

The fund for Mrs. Heva today stood as follows:
Sain, Groff, Star police reporter ..... $ 5.00
Anonymous ..... 2.00
Mrs. M. L. Lundquist, 1981 ..... 1.00
Harvard N. .... 5.00
A Friend ..... 2.00
Mr. and Mrs. O. .... 2.00
Mrs. J. W., 410 W. 91st. .... 1.00
A Reader of The Star ..... 1.00
Total ..... $18.00

"Find enclosed $1. The 'Widow's Mite,' and may many others be added to it, is my prayer," writes the last contributor.

"I certainly hope the people will wake up and do more for her than they did for the Pickering family," adds another.

LOW-DOWN BURGLAR CLIPS GIRL'S HAIR WHILE SHE SLEEPS

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 22.—The burglars' union ought to take his card away from one of their members. He's the meanest man on the Pacific coast.

Or at least Miss Madeline Holmes thinks he is.

Aside from entering Miss Madeline's room last night and stealing several valuable articles, he snipped off both her long braids with his pocket knife.

Going to bed last night with beautifully flowing old-fashioned tresses, Miss Holmes awoke this morning with her hair bobbed in the latest Greenwich village style.

BABE IS KILLED BY ITS MOTHER

"Rather Dead Than Live in Poverty," She Says

CLEVELAND, Aug. 22.—"I smothered the baby with the bed clothes. I would rather have him dead than grow up in poverty."

This was the statement Monday night by Mrs. Mary Soltis, 26, when she was arrested on a charge of murdering her week-old baby.

Cynthia Grey

Woman Could Forgive Father of Her Children for Grievous Wrong—But Could She Trust Him?

Dear Cynthia Grey: About 10 years ago I married at the age of 21 years. For three years my married life was all I could ask for. When my baby girl came, things changed. My husband seemed to forget entirely that I existed. Two years later I became the mother of a baby boy—still his whole life and attentions centered in our girl.

Then he started going out evenings. My boy and I were neglected, but not my girl. He seemed to forget that we needed clothes, and that I would appreciate a little "pin money." Please remember that all this time he was making a salary of $225 per month. I begged and pleaded with him, but he became worse instead of better.

I heard rumors of his attentions to other women. I didn't say anything to him, but investigated. All of this time I still loved him in spite of his treatment.

I finally had sufficient proof of his unfaithfulness. I told him I would forgive and forget if he would do differently. But he left me with a six-months baby girl on my hands. He didn't contribute a penny to wards the support of myself and three children. I divorced him and was given the custody of my children. Two years and a half later I married my employer, a man number of years my senior, and he adopted my two little girls and in less than a year died, leaving them with enough to take care of them the balance of their lives.

Myself he did not forget, leaving me our beautiful home and a monthly income sufficient to care for same, besides a neat little life insurance.

My love for the father of my children has never died. I admired my second husband, respected and was proud of him, but could not care for him as I did my first. He was everything a woman could ask for, lavishing upon me all that money could buy, and also his everlasting love.

Now I am back to my former home, where I was first married. I have taken my children to see their father's parents and so doing have again met their father. He asked permission to see his children once a month. He is their father still and I could not refuse. He and I met only as strangers, passing the time of day, etc. Six months have elapsed since I first saw him on my return to this city. His parents tell me how he has repented. He asked me again to marry him, if not for my old love for him, for the sake of the children.

Now, dear Cynthia Grey, what shall I do? I love my former husband but can I trust him? Will he treat me as he once did? This time he is begging me and pleading with me instead of the way with him. I want to do what is right by my children. It is of them only that I am thinking. They are his as well as mine. He was unfaithful to them while I have been a true mother, supporting them for four and one-half years.

Will you put my letter before other mothers and wives, and ask their opinions?

We have plenty to take care of us. It is simply a question of my duty as a mother. Shall I deprive them of their father, who claims an equal right, or not?

PERPLEXED MOTHER.
It is impossible to judge what one man will do by what others have done, so perhaps the experience of wives and others who have known three similar circumstances could be of little or no help to you. We are individuals and act largely upon impulse, and luckily we are not all of the same temperament. The principal thing you must consider is whether your former husband is sincere in his wish to make amends for his past mistakes. One thing is patent—he hasn't an equal claim on local man time."

WAS AN AUTO, NOT A BOMB

THEATRES
HIGH CLASS MUSIC OFFERED AT PAN
Presenting excerpts from grand opera, which are well sung and appropriately costumed, the Pantages opera company of eight gifted singers are giving Pantages audiences some fine music this week. The act is presented by Miss Mildred Perkins. Of course, Joe Whitehead, programmed as "A Fool There Was," is one of the comedy hits of the bill, just as he always is, with his singing, foolery and dancing.
Another act, sharing the comedy program with Whitehead, is the Homewyse company, in singing, dancing and athletics.
The Clemons-Belling Co. offers an amusing novelty, in which there are some well-trained poodles and a trick mule.
The Ara Sisters, wearing beautiful costumes, prove dancers of high merit.
King Sauls is an artist who offers a novelty act that pleases. The Pantagescope shows a Charles Murray comedy and a Pantages news weekly. Murray in person will be a feature of the bill next week.
