

A WOMAN FOR MAYOR!

WHY NOT?

"Woman's Place"

It's "Woman's Place" to take care of the home. Certainly. Man's, too. But "Home" cannot be construed to mean merely the physical confines of the family dwelling.

It reaches out further, into the highways and byways. The children of her home go to school. The breadwinner of the home must also pay taxes. If things are not cheerful elsewhere, it reflects in the home.

Let us have more cheer—more joy—more laughs in life! And if a woman mayor can bring it about, why not a woman at the city hall?

If there must be taxes, it should be taxes on Old Man Gloom!
The distribution of joy should be free—UNTAXED!

And another thing—
A WOMAN'S SMILE IS AS GOOD A CAMPAIGN ASSET AS ANY MAN'S HANDSHAKE!

"FUN — LAUGHTER — HAPPINESS IN EVERY HOME"—That's the best issue in any election—and it's an issue that ought to elect the right woman as mayor.

The Screen

TODAY'S PROGRAMS
LIBERTY—"The Ne'er to Return Road" and "Doubling for Romeo."
CLEMMER—Priscilla Dean in "Conflict."
WINTER GARDEN—Emmett Dalton in person.
BLUE MOUSE—Horse Peters in "The Man From Lost River."
COLISEUM—Norma Talmadge in "The Wonderful Thing."
STRAND—"The Iron Trail."
COLONIAL—Herbert Rawlinson and Catherine Calvert in "You'll Find It Everywhere."
REX—"Heat" Gibson in "Sure Fire."
OAK—"The Good Bad Wife."

LIBERTY
They say every comedian wants to play "heavy"—he's sure tragically, not comedy, is the thing he can do best.

Wallace Beery was like that. Once he was in musical comedy. Even with Raymond Hitchcock. Nothing heavy about a role like that. Then he turned villain. He nearly cracked his bedchamber mirror practicing frowns and scowls. His ambition was to look as villainous as possible and still keep out of the hands of the police.

Now he has made a reputation for himself as a bad man of the film. Picture fans all know him for his vivid work in such unenviable roles as a bad Indian, a hunted crook, or a swaggering bully.

Beery fairly lives on the hisses of the crowd.
This week he is playing the role of an escaped convict in "The Ne'er to Return Road," a clever drama, at the Liberty.

CLEMMER
"Conflict," the drama starring Priscilla Dean at the Clemmer this week, rings true to its name from beginning to end, for it is brimful of the excitement, suspense and uncertainty which go to make a good picture.

The story deals with a young girl, Dorcas Remalle, who is forced from a life of ease and luxury to one of unhappiness and uncertainty.

WINTER GARDEN
Emmett Dalton will be seen at the Winter Garden only two days longer. He is appearing in person as well as in the feature photoplay, "Beyond the Law." Dalton, who was once a member of the famous Dalton gang of bank robbers, served 18 years in the Kansas state prison and was then pardoned by the governor. Since his release he has been doing everything possible to prove that no one benefits by crime.

BLUE MOUSE
Many of the scenes in "The Man From Lost River," in which Horse Peters is starring at the Blue Mouse this week, were taken in the government forest reservation at Lake Huntington, in the Sierras, and one of the most powerful incidents shows the gigantic trees felled by the many lumberjacks in the picture.

COLISEUM
Julia Royt, who portrays the role of Catherine Mannerly Truesdale, in "The Wonderful Thing" at the Coliseum this week, is one of the younger ranking matrons of New York and Newport society. She is the daughter of Julian W. Robbins and the wife of Lydie Hoyt, son of an old Knickerbocker family, a Yale graduate, clubman and former deputy commissioner of New York city.

NOW PLAYING AT STRAND

Harlan Knight and Betty Carpenter in "The Iron Trail," the pictureization of Rex Beach's stirring drama, which is being shown at the Strand this week. The action of the story is laid in the wilds of Alaska.

COLONIAL
Herbert Rawlinson, the handsome actor who is playing with Priscilla Dean in her latest picture, "Conflict," now showing at a local house, is also in "You Find It Everywhere," the new photoplay at the Colonial this week. Rawlinson co-stars in this feature with Catherine Calvert.

"You Find It Everywhere" is from a story by Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson, which recently appeared in The Saturday Evening Post.

REX
Heat Gibson is right at home in the role of the daring cowpuncher, the hero of "Sure Fire," a Western drama at the Rex this week. This clever young star is in real life a regular cowboy of the plains.

He won the gold belt at Pendleton, Ore., in 1912, as the champion cowboy of the world. He carried off a peck of prizes at the Los Angeles Rodeo last year.

BEBE DANIELS COMING TO THE BLUE MOUSE
The story of "The Speed Girl," which opens at the Blue Mouse theatre Saturday, concerns a fascinating little feminine daredevil who becomes a motion picture star and specializes on stunts. Interesting scenes showing the heroine at work in the studios give the audience a glimpse of the actual working of the day of a star. Bebe Daniels portrays the singular role and a sparkling comedy drama is the result with zip and pep in every foot of the film.

"The Sheik" played to 112,625 in one week's run at the Rivoli and Rialto, New York.

A SLOW-MOTION THRILL.
A current slow-motion reel shows Snowy Baker, Australian horseman, being thrown from his horse in a close-up. The rearing and plunging of the horse and the unseating of his rider reduced to a speed by which every movement of muscles can be seen furnishes a greater thrill than if the accident were flashed across the screen in normal action.

A TRIBUTE TO LLOYD
Five thousand theatres are playing the reissues of Harold Lloyd's old one-reel comedies. There are few stars who could command a place on the screen with their old pictures. Bebe Daniels and Snub Pollard appear in these old Lloyd films. That adds to their attraction.

300 House Members Is Plan of Measure
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—A constitutional amendment fixing the permanent membership of the house after 1923 at 300 members was introduced into the house just before the session ended yesterday by Representative Campbell, republican, Kansas.

The amendment also provides that members be elected every four years instead of every two years as at present. The proposed amendment provided for a reapportionment of the house membership in 1920, and every 31 years thereafter and also whenever a new state is admitted to the Union.

THIRD OF ARMY WAS ILLITERATE

Intelligence Test Results Are Given Out

BY W. G. McMURCHY
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Surgeon General M. W. Ireland, U. S. army, has made public the results of the intelligence tests to which the officers and men of the army were subjected during the draft period.

It was found that out of 1,566,911 men examined, 4,700 had the intelligence of a child under 7, 7,375 were intellectually between 7 and 8, 14,814 between 8 and 9, and 18,879 between 9 and 10.

It was found that 31 per cent of the 1,566,911 were illiterate, and of these illiterates it is estimated that half were native born Americans. This half, of course, includes the Southern negroes.

On the so-called intelligence test, the highest mark possible was 212. On this scale only 1 per cent of the officers and men examined rated above 165. Another 1 per cent were between 155 and 164, 3 per cent between 140 and 154, 7 per cent between 120 and 130, nearly 10 per cent between 100 and 119, 6 per cent between 90 and 99, 7 per cent between 80 and 89, nearly 9 per cent between 70 and 79, 10 per cent between 60 and 69, nearly 10 per cent between 50 and 59, nearly 12 per cent between 40 and 49, nearly 12 per cent between 30 and 39, 9 per cent between 20 and 29, 4 per cent between 10 and 19, and 13 per cent scored 9 points or under.

Asks Public and Press Co-operate

Closer co-operation between the press and the public was urged by John H. Miller, president of the Associated Editors of Chicago, before the Kiwanis business men's club at the Hotel Washington Wednesday. Newspapers exert more influence in moulding public opinion in our large cities, and have more power for either constructive or destructive work than is generally believed, declared the speaker.

Widespread building activities, which the press of the United States can expedite by proper publicity, will revive in great measure the general business depression, in Miller's opinion.

SO WEAK SO NERVOUS

How Miserable This Woman Was Until She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toomsboro, Ga.—"I suffered terribly with backache and headache all the time, was so weak and nervous I didn't know what to do, and could not do my work. My trouble was deficient and irregular periods. I read in the papers what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to give it a trial. I got good results from its use so that I am now able to do my work. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends who have troubles similar to mine and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. C. F. PHILLIPS, Toomsboro, Ga.

Weak, nervous women make unhappy homes, their condition irritates both husband and children. It has been said that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous dependency, "the blues," irritability and backache arise from some displacement or arrangement of a woman's system. Mrs. Phillips' letter proves that no other remedy is so successful as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
