THE EYES
 Like many other delicate and priceless things, require the utmost care and attention. Straining the eyes by reading and writing without proper glasses will wreck both the eyesight and the health.
HAVE YOUR EYES EXAMINED My scientific method of strengthening and correcting defective eyes without the aid of drops, and my prescription glasses are endorsed by an army of appreciative patients.
 If you complain of weak or blurred sight, headache, nervousness, brain fatigue, letters run together when reading, etc., call immediately and consult with me. If you do not need glasses I will tell you so, and advise you how to conserve your sight. But if you do need them, after a careful and intelligent study of your case, I will furnish such prescription glasses as will be of great benefit to you.
 Charges moderate, consistent with skill employed.—Advertisement.

DOES a prison really reform a criminal? Or does he go out and sin again after his sentence has been completed? Or if he has been wrongly accused, if he is innocent, what will a prison sentence do to him then?
 "John Smith," the photoplay at the Liberty this week, starring Eugene O'Brien, tells the story of a prisoner at Sing Sing who is sent out on probation. He secures a responsible job in the city. Then comes a big charity ball. John Smith attends. Money is stolen and things look bad for Smith. It takes a reel or two of exciting incidents to get things straightened out for the ex-convict, but the picture ends with a bright future looming ahead of John Smith and a pretty young girl he has learned to love.

COLUMBIA
 A flapper extraordinary is the heroine of "Her Night of Nights," the Universal comedy drama which will be shown for the last time tonight at the Columbia. She is a product of the city and her social activities have an alarming tempo, but she is still human enough to fall in love with a "country fellow" who isn't at all her type.

WINTER GARDEN
 Looking stalwart and handsome in regalia of an English army captain, Earle Williams is seen as the hero of "The Man From Downing Street," a story of the British secret service in India, which is now showing at the Winter Garden.

STRAND
 A simple but strong dramatic story furnishes the theme for the picture play, "One Clear Call," on view at the Strand for the week.

COLONIAL
 Local screen lovers who remember the delightful picturization of Sewall Ford's famous "Torchy" stories, in which the inimitable and irrepressible Johnny Hines portrays the "office boy hero," will be pleased at the news that Johnny has gone in for a series of feature length productions. "Burn 'Em-Up Barnes," an automobile race story, by Raymond L. Schrock, has been selected for Johnny's debut in full length starring vehicles, and is now being shown at the Colonial.

 Assisting this popular and youthful star in his characterization of a rich young man whom Fate compels to become poor that he may appreciate the wealth he is striving for its possession, are such sterling players as Edmund Breese, George Fawcett, Betty Carpenter, J. Barney Sherry, Matthew Betts, Dorothy Leeds and Julia Swayne Gordon.

Boy Wonder at Coliseum

The Coliseum is hardly big enough to hold the crowds who want to see little Jackie Coogan in his latest picture, "Trouble." The clever little chap displays great histrionic talent as a little orphan lad whose best and only pal is his dog "Queenie." Comedy, pathos and drama have been cleverly woven together in this offering.

In the supporting cast are such players as Robert McKim, Joseph J.
 Dowling and little Mary Jane Irving.

STABBED IN HOTEL FIGHT
 Severely cut and stabbed in a mysterious encounter in the White House hotel, Second ave and Washington st. early Monday, Louis Iverson, 33, waiter at the U. S. restaurant, was taken to city hospital.

A police raid, following the stabbing, resulted in the arrest of Mrs.
 Elizabeth Doyle, proprietress, on a charge of running a disorderly house.
 She is held without bail. Police say a man is also sought in connection with the affray. Iverson's wounds are not dangerous.

Episcopalian Meet to Be Here Aug. 30
 Thousands of Episcopalian men and boys are turning their eyes toward Seattle in anticipation of the 27th annual national convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, to be held here from August 30 to September 2. The invitation to hold the meeting in Seattle was extended two years ago at the brotherhood's convention in St. Louis by Bishop Frederic W. Keator and C. M. Lovsted, who represent the diocese of Olympia on the national council of the brotherhood.

THE PUBLIC is invited to attend a meeting of the King county general commission in Room 407, County City building, at 1:30 p. m., August 1, when a request to change the grouse season will be considered.

"Eczema broke out on the palm for a free sample. I could see an improvement so purchased more, and when I had used one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of
