that body last Tuesday. Before entering the jury room Mayor Brown said: "I am thru talking about Chauncey Hawkins. His slanders are only an annoying detail in the day's work. Every person, and every newspaper, in Seattle, knows that when he says Seattle is the most wide-open town in the country that he is not speaking the truth. From now on I'll have nothing to say about Hawkins. As far as I'm concerned he is a dead issue. Let the newspapers help him in his publicity campaign if they will. In the future I will not comment on anything he may say."

Legion Post Plans Big Entertainment

A big vaudeville entertainment will be staged at the Metropolitan theater Friday night by Maple Leaf post, American Legion, for the benevolent fund of the post.
