Winter Ball Smart Affair

One of the most notable events of the holiday season was the Winter Ball, given last evening at 106 W. Roy st., by a group of twenty prom- inent hostesses.

It was a veritable "Winter Ball," depicting a winter scene, with sil- vered foliage and a frieze of icicles on the walls; fir trees with their burden of frosted cones were ar- ranged at intervals around the room, and in the center a marble fountain playing, set in the midst of snow and ice. The lights glittered thru icy panes in lantern form, from which fell long icicles.

Throughout the evening English troubadours produced an old-time holiday effect by the singing of carols. The supper room was gay with a brilliant canopy and the fruit- laden buffet was very attractive.

The twenty hostesses were those of the other four balls: Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Keith Logan Bullitt, Mrs. John Henry Ballinger, Mrs. Archibald Stewart Downey, Mrs. John Eddy, Mrs. Edward I. Garrett, Mrs. Joshua Green, Mrs. Robert Green, Mrs. Lang- den Henry, Mrs. Paul Mandell Henry, Mrs. Daniel Kelleher, Mrs. William Hunter McEwan, Mrs. Alexander McEwan, Mrs. R. D. On this, his second con- cert tour of America, he is repeating everywhere the spectacular success of his first visit a few years ago and receiving enthusiastic ovations from his audiences.

Motsewitch is said by critics to be remarkable for the effortless beauty with which he performs, and this facile mastery of his instrument holds his hearers fascinated.

It is warming and sustaining, for it has genuine food value, and may be safely indulged in any hour of the day for it is stimulating only in the sense that pure food is stimulating.

Campfire News, Notes and Gossip

The first decade of Campfire has passed. We all know what those ten years gave to the girls of America. As our eleventh birthday approaches over 150,000 Campfire girls in every state in the United States and in 17 foreign countries are united in our Campfire program, but this is not enough. There are thousands and thousands of other girls in America who would enjoy Campfire and have written to us that they wish to start Campfires. And now, on our eleventh birthday, we are all uniting in giving to these other girls the hikes, camp- ing and the meetings which we know they will enjoy.

Our slogan—"The slogan for this work is to be 'double your work, double your health, double your love, double Campfire.'"

The plan—During the month of March, 1923, every Campfire girl, no matter where she is, will invite one other girl to become a Campfire girl, will teach her our law and help her to make her own beautiful ceremonial gown.

All over the country, every Campfire guardian will be helping one other woman in her work as a Campfire guardian. There will be a grand council fire during the month of March in every locality in which there are Campfire girls. At this council fire honors for the year's work will be awarded, a message will be read from the national president, Mrs. Oliver Harriman, and all the new members will be welcomed in and initiated into Campfire.

A Camping Fund for Crippled and Blind Campfire Girls

Every year, Campfire girls wish to contribute to a special birthday fund which is given to some cause in which our girls are interested. Last year Campfire girls contributed $1,600 to the relief of the Russian children, giving the money to Anna Pavlova.

This year the Campfire Girls are planning to give this fund to the summer camping committee of crippled and blind Campfire Girls who are in institutions.

Perhaps someone wonders how these girls can go camping. The idea of giving this fund to these camping trips came to us because of the brave little camping trips which have already been carried out. They are not camping trips of the same kind which our girls who are well and strong undertake. For the most part they are trips to some farm house where the girls can receive the necessary care, but they do in- clude nature work and enjoyment of the great outdoors, even outdoor cooking. It is in these to which our birthday fund of 1923 will be given.

Off to the Ocean

How the days fly! At this rate, summer and the trip to the ocean will be upon us. Everybody wants to go, but the burning question still remains: Who are the 15 girls with most pep and enthusiasm and ambition and perseverance? Lohequa knows who some of them will be. For girls who missed the first an- nouncement, the conditions of the contest will again be stated briefly.

The 15 Campfire Girls receiving the greatest number of subscriptions to Evergyrl's magazine by March 15 will be taken on a trip to the ocean, either spring vacation or the week after school closes in June. Renewals count as new subscriptions. You may receive them from your Campfire sisters, ask parents of girls not in Campfire to subscribe, or business men and women. Every adult should know something of this interesting organization, and in no better way could he learn than by having a mes- sage go to his home every month. Let your motto be, "Evergyrl's for Everybody," and then sell it. When a girl turns in five subscrip- tions to Lohequa, she is put on the list of girls working for the trip and the race begins. Lohequa will tell you in all fairness that although Seattle has turned in over 300 subscriptions in the last month, no one girl has turned in over five. The opportunity is yours! Sub- scriptions need not be held until five are received. Turn them in as soon as they are given you. Lohequa keeps a record. Some Campfire groups are all working for one mem- ber. What is your group doing?

1923 Keep-a-Health-Chart Year

This is a resolution! A Campfire girl suggested it and Lohequa in- dorsed it heartily. All girls and guardians trying to keep a health chart for the year 1923 are asked to register their names at Lohequa. Thus far the list contains the follow- ing: Lohequa staff, Polly Brown, Helen Gaur, Lorene Beard, Mrs. Marguerite Marzoff. Start the day

scribes to Entertain January 1

Every good Campfire group has a scribe who is alive! (By their scribe ye shall know them!) It is her duty to send in to Lohequa weekly writ- ten reports. The reports should cover the following points briefly: Name of group and guardian, what happened at the last meeting, what plans you have for the next meeting, what things you are doing as a group (working for Needlework guild, making for Lohequa, or business or entertaining children, etc.), names of scribe. Make your reports peppy. Learn to know news when you see it. Tell the things that are a bit different. Oftimes your reports are not printed. There are two important reasons. One is that you have not made them. The other is lack of space in the paper. Don't blame Lohequa. Every report sent in is typed and sent on for publication. Don't get discouraged, but keep on writing them. Lohequa needs to know what you are doing.

The regular monthly meeting of group scribes will be held the second Saturday of the month at 10 in the morning. The January meeting is a special one and will be held at 2 in the afternoon, at which time the scribes will hold a reception and exhibit for all the girls and guardians in the city. They promise a program. An exhibit of craft articles will be held and "delicious refreshments will be served." You really can't miss it. Exhibit at Lohequa! Can you make a cookie? Can you make a cake? Can you make nice jellies? Or is it break your own? Perhaps you can work with the needle or paintbrush or shine. Whatever it is, you do, let Lohequa have a sample of it January 12. Lohequa would like to discover the sort of things Seattle Campfire Girls like to do best. Local honors will be awarded to girls of worthy distinction. Out of town girls are invited to compete. Have all arti- cles at Campfire headquarters Fri- day, January 11, and not later than 12 o'clock Saturday, January 12. Mark plainly with your name, age and address, name of group and guardian on each article. A program will be given to the one turning in the best exhibit.

Lohequa wishes to thank all the Campfire Girls and guardians and groups who sent greetings. From the box of holly and mistletoe to the card from the smallest fireflies, Lohequa loved them all. Thank you, and we wish you a happy New Year.

Are you meeting Mr. Lester F. Scott when he visits Seattle Campfire Girls late in January? Don't forget that clean middy and your Campfire tam. Remember that your mother and dad are invited to bear him up. Every group with 10 per cent attendance and an equal num- ber of parents will receive a local honor. Should there be such a thing as a group with every parent pre- sent! In such an event, call upon Lohequa for the laurels.

Lohequa recently received a full page of Seattle pictures from a New Zealand weekly paper. Miss Edith Kemphorne says: "Isn't it interest- ing to know that these Seattle pic- tures have been seen all over New Zealand?" It is interesting. Do you suppose she could use more?

The Guardians' association will hold its regular monthly meeting January 11 at 7:30 at Lohequa. All guardians are urged to be present. The Canvass Campfire Girls of East Seattle under the guardianship of Mrs. Marie Huber will give a short play.
