On the Ball Diamond.

The Northsiders vs. the Southsiders, at Hope, N. D., Aug. 1, 1900, the following laughable event is said to have actually taken place while a pretty little fly was in the air:

Sullivan, (second baseman): "Can you get it Jacobson?"

Jacobson, (shortstop): "O! yes, yes, dead easy Sullivan, you just stay where you are."

Sullivan: "All right Jacobson, if you think you can get it—why all right—but if you think you can't—why I can."

Jacobson: "Sure I can; just watch me. Stay right where you are Sullivan, and watch second base—I will take it in and toss it over to you and we'll make the prettiest triple play you ever saw. Don't say a word Sullivan—just keep away."

Sullivan: "All right Jacobson, if you think you can get it—look out for that hole in your hand."

All this time the poor little innocent pop-up was suspended in the air—patiently waiting to be "TAKEN IN"—by Jacobson—as many of us have been.

The Pioneer.

Harvest help is scarce all over the state despite the fact that good wages are offered. Owing to the short crops few men came this way.

Wheat threshing has commenced in the Red River valley counties and the yield is very poor, in some localities as low as three bushels per acre. The quality is excellent.

Gov. Roosevelt is billed to make several speeches in the state this fall. During September he will visit Fargo—according to the Fargo papers.

Devils Lake is advertising a big base ball tournament for Aug. 9, 10 and 11. Grand Forks, Cooperstown, Grafton and Devils Lake. Big prizes.

The majority of the crop reports of the northwest appearing in the eastern papers are still too high. No doubt the real estate men and grain merchants would like to make it appear big; but there is no disputing the fact; crops throughout the northwest are too poor to speak about.

For Sale.
All of block 39, except lot 12; and lot 3, in block 40; Hope. James D. Brown.

For Whooping Cough.
"Both my children were taken with whooping cough," writes Mrs. O. E. Dutton of Danville, Ill. A small bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar gave such relief that I used a 50 cent bottle, which saved me doctor's bill." Nothing else so good. J. A. Elnor.
