CANADIAN EXCURSIONS

If you are going to Eastern Canada this winter, it will help you to read and act on this Important Information.

The Best Route for comfort and quick time is by way of St. Paul and Chicago—through the States.

The Best Railroad is the Burlington, because its accommodations are excellent, its track smooth and connections sure.

Reclining Chair Cars are run on all Burlington Route trains, and no extra charge is made for seats. They are more roomy and comfortable than similar cars on other lines. Uniformed porters are in attendance to insure the comfort of travelers.

Leaving St. Paul.—Burlington trains leave St. Paul 8:15 a. m. except Sunday, and 8:05 p. m. daily, arriving at Chicago in ample time to connect with the most convenient trains for Canadian points.

The Out.—The price of a ticket to Montreal—or and place west of that city—and return, will be only Forty Dollars.

Tickets can be purchased of your home ticket agent, who will cheerfully give rates and information. Patrons should ask for and see that their tickets read via the Burlington Route, between St. Paul and Chicago.

Date of Sale.—December 3 to December 31, 1900.

Limit of Tickets.—Each ticket is good for return within three months from the date of sale.

Extension of Time can be arranged for with the Canadian ticket agent at your destination, upon payment of a small extra charge.

East of Montreal, to points in Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, the rate will be something above $40.00. The extra rate can be ascertained by applying to your ticket agent.

Our Agent.—Mr. A. L. Eidemiller, our Traveling Passenger Agent, will be at the Clarendon Hotel, Winnipeg, or Hotel Dacotah, Grand Forks, N. D., until December 21st. Application can be made to him for any further information needed.

The dance last Saturday night was a great success, there was a large number present notwithstanding the severity of the weather.

The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by coughing, is requested to call on—and get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It always gives relief. J. A. Elner.

It is said that a certain party had better look a "little out," for if Mr. Stiles should happen to catch them in his chicken house he would be apt to hurt their feelings.

Mrs. Matt Baker is reported quite sick, we have been unable to learn the nature of the disease, but hope for her a speedy recovery.

Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says, "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. Wamberg & Jacobson.

The Pioneer is pleased to note that Mrs. M. A. Milligan has been reappointed postmistress for another term of four years. This will make the administration solid with the patrons of the Hope post office, and at the same time is a fitting reward for quick and effective service in handling the large mails which pass through this office.

Help is needed at once when a person's life is in danger. A neglected cough or cold may soon become serious and should be stopped at once. One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures coughs and colds and the worst cases of croup, bronchitis, grippe and other throat and lung troubles. Wamberg & Jacobson.

There is one business place here of which Hope can be justly proud; few towns of its size can boast of the equal of Kraebel's photograph gallery. A little over a year ago when Harn bought one of Norcott's old cameras and began to make life miserable for the passers-by no one supposed that he really intended a serious study of the art of photography, yet today his pictures rank far ahead of any work previously done in Hope, and compare favorably with the work of some of the leading artists in the large cities. His gallery is equipped with the latest and most improved instruments, and the pictures shown in his exhibition window from time to time testify as to their durability. We hope to see a continued appreciation of his work.

As the long winter evenings are now upon us, the question arises, "How shall we spend the time until the busy season opens once more? Each individual, no doubt, will be willing to affirm that he can pass the time in a manner entirely satisfactory to himself; but this manner may be barren of profitable results both for the individual and for the town. What we need is something that will bring into play the energy and talent supplied so abundantly to our citizens, but now lying dormant. Nothing could be more profitable for the people generally than a good old-fashioned Lyceum—a modern Literary society with forty or fifty folios of Constitution and by-laws, which the members enthusiastically swear to support, and then kick over the traces the first time they are put upon the program—but a good lively debating club where the true spirit of overcoming in argument prevails. By arousing concerted action in a matter of this kind, a great deal can be accomplished for the improvement of the town. The Pioneer begs leave to suggest that W. D. Washburn, L. C. Day and Dr. Stephenson look this matter up and ascertain what the feelings of the citizens are, and report in time for the next issue of the Pioneer.

Watch the Ship Subsidy bill now pending before congress. If passed it will pave the way for the election of a Democratic House of Representatives in 1902. The people, or a majority of them, swallowed the Puerto Rico tariff all right, but this last proposition is a trifle too rank.

Moody seems to be the right man in the right place—as editor of the Hope Pioneer.—(Fargo Forum.)

We have never had the pleasure of meeting the distinguished editor of the Forum, but we shall call him Major, same as the other fellows do. What we would like to know is this, Major; do you not commend us for deeds omitted rather than committed?

W. J. Bryan, in an article in the December number of the North American Review, tells all about how it happened. He ascribes the great Republican victory to three causes, viz: a large campaign fund, war and better times. The Democrats, he says, gained in the east and lost in the west, they also gained in the large cities, but lost in smaller towns. The latter statement shows the true cause. In 1896 so great was the general dissatisfaction that the lower classes in the large cities, though democratic by tradition, voted for a complete change of administration, without regard for politics. In 1900, they were easily whipped back into line, after four years of good times. In the smaller cities and country towns dwell a large percentage of the independent voters, who are influenced more by the questions at issue than by party affiliation, and somehow they couldn't be caught with the "Par amount issue" of Imperialism.

GRACE GRAY - - - CHARLES BOISE, REAL SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS GIVING

We are too Prone to Measure our Christmas Gifts by the Yardstick of Intrinsic Value.

"Our hearts are usually very much larger at Christmas than our purses," writes Edward Bok of "The Christmas that remains," in the December Ladies' Home Journal. "The desire is to remember everybody that we know. But our means do not generally allow us to do it. So we often pass entirely by at Christmas, people to whom a simple 'Merry Christmas, and nothing more' would mean a word of cheer and light-heartedness. Because we cannot give what we would like to we think that we should not give at all. The truth is, whether we choose to acknowledge it in so many words or not, that we have grown so commercially and so artificial-minded in this country that thousands of us are prone to measure our Christmas presents by the yardstick of intrinsic value, or by what the recipients will think of them. We seem to have entirely lost sight of the fact that we can always give something. And if we give that something we would really come closer to the real spirit of Christmas giving. A few cheerful words filled with that expression of strong good will, that is like sweet perfume, have a meaning that only a few realize. There is nothing so pleasant in this world as the feeling that one is remembered, and this a few written words will often convey more strongly than a gift. Yet we invariably put 't' s' git' first. Our remembrance must take some form, we think, other than a mere verbal or written expression. And that is the artificial within us, not the natural. We seem to refuse to believe that it is the simplest things we do that have the greatest influence. It is the simplest Christmas that remains."

Do you want robust health with all its privileges and pleasures? Wine of Cardui will give it to you.
