DAIRY SPECIAL COMING

Date Set For Appearance at Linton. Everybody Push the Project.

The big demonstration meeting will be held at Linton Monday, October 9th, from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m. A dozen of the best beef and dairy cattle from the North Dakota Experiment Station will be used in demonstrating and bringing out pointers in the selection and breeding of the leading types of beef and dairy animals.

The demonstration will cover the selection of cows for maximum milk production, bulls for grading up a dairy herd, good beef cows, good feeder steers, good beef bulls, the feeding and care of both dairy and beef cattle. In the discussion these points will be brought out in some detail. The place and value of livestock on the farm will also be taken up.

The stock that will be used in the demonstration is composed of splendid types for illustrating the points to be made. Miss Ormsby Queen holds the official state record for the Holsteins. The Jersey cow, Roxanne Maid, holds the state record for the breed. The Guernsey, Shorthorn, Hereford and Aberdeen Angus will be represented by good animals that illustrate breed and type.

Thomas Cooper, director of the North Dakota Experiment Station, will be in charge of the meetings. He will be assisted by W. H. Peters, Animal Husbandman of the North Dakota Experiment Station; Frank Sanford, who has made a great success with beef cattle; and John Christiansen, one of the most successful dairymen west of the Missouri river.

The Northern Pacific Railroad will furnish a special train to transport the speakers and the cattle which will make possible holding more meetings in the same number of days than is the regular trains had to be depended on. D. E. Willard will have charge of the train.

If the weather permits the meeting will be held in the open, otherwise, it will be held indoors. Men, women and children are invited to come to the meeting.

This is an unusual opportunity for seeing the breeds and types of cattle illustrated with fine specimens of the different breeds. The lectures and demonstrations will be made by men who are expert cattlemen and familiar with the conditions of North Dakota.

This meeting comes at a time, too, when many are thinking of changing from all grain to some livestock farming. This meeting will be a good place to learn the values of the different kinds of stock. The right kind of a start will make for the most rapid progress in the livestock business.

Fort Yates Facts.

Pioneer, Sept. 29.

Jan Howard has been offered the position of disciplinarian and band leader at the Loop Indian School, Loop, Arizona, and is considering the proposition.

School will open next Monday over at Winona, and will be held in the J. J. Huse building. The school house over there was destroyed by fire about a month ago, and it is too late to erect another building this fall.

Casper Burgad, the new townsite butcher, who has been laid up at his home in Strasburg with a bad hand in which blood poisoning set in, has nearly recovered and brought some beef cattle over the first of the week. The shop is not yet open.

J. Peterson, of Hazelton who is working with D. D. Bidwell the bridge contractor, was in town the first of the week and stated that they had just completed the new bridge over Battle creek on the Cannonball road north of Fort Yates.

Henry White Eyebrow, who is charged with having stolen five or six horses from various Indians at different points on the reservation during the past two months, and who was arrested last Wednesday at the farm school and escaped from the policeman in charge of him, is now in jail at Mandan. Tuesday Superintendent Covey received a message from the sheriff at Mandan that White Eyebrow had been picked up there by the police while drunk, and wanted to know what action to take. Mr. Covey gave instructions to hold him there and A. C. Wells, farmer at Cannonball, was ordered to go up and make complaint before proper authorities and he will be given a hearing some time this week before the U. S. Commissioner there and will undoubtedly be held to the next term of federal court. White Eyebrow has led the authorities a merry chase during his checkered criminal career and by the time the court gets through with him he will no doubt have a long time ahead in which to reflect over his many misdeeds.

The Northern Produce Company of Bismarck will buy all your poultry. Write them for prices and coops.—Adv.

State's Attorney H. C. Lynn was a business visitor from Linton Saturday, having come up to be present at the Ferguson-Grenz suit in which the latter demanded that the former pay a fine for beating him up. Chas. Ferguson was given a five dollar fine with costs attached. While here Mr. Lynn was also requested to look into some of the alleged foot-legging cases.

Bishop Werhle, of Bismarck, and Mr. Frank Jaehn, of Huron, S. D., president of the Frank Jaehn Construction Co., are in the village this week to get the splendid new Catholic church started. The Jaehn Construction Co. has the contract for the edifice and Mr. Jaehn started out a crew of men excavating for the basement yesterday. It is planned only to dig the basement and lay the foundation this fall, as it is getting too late to do much of the brick work unless furnaces to warm the brick and mortar are used, but this would add a great deal to the expense of the building. Early next spring, however, the building will be continued and completed. The edifice will be a handsome building and when completed will cost the local parish in the neighborhood of $15,000. It will have a full basement finished off to be used for socials, church meetings, etc., and the main structure will be of Hebron pressed brick. The interior finish is to be of fir stained with oak. The new church will be located on the corner next south of the Presbyterian church, and will be a very handsome addition to our thriving little city.

Another conclusive evidence that Hazelton and vicinity are growing and enjoying prosperity is the fact that beginning with the first of October the Hazelton postoffice will begin operating as a third class instead of a fourth class office.

Miss Sarah Porter returned from Sykeston Saturday evening in response to a telegram announcing her father's death. She will return to her school the latter part of the week. Miss Mary Porter also returned home, arriving Monday.

Dr. Monteith, Leroy Irvine, E. L. Semling and Victor Bechtel motored to Bismarck Monday afternoon and on the return trip Dr. Monteith drove a brand new Buick six, a recent purchase made through the local agents, Lenhart & Irvine. It will pay you to get a little ill just to see Doc. slide up to your door in his new shiny wagon.

Dewey Geil, who was injured a week ago while working in an elevator at Timmer, went to his home at Linton the first of the week. His injuries were not as serious as was first supposed. He was hit on the head with a falling timber.

Too much booze of the squirrel variety caused several unpleasant altercations between the imbibers and much disgust on the part of citizens during the week. A determined effort will be made to quell incidents of this kind in the future.

The village board held a lengthy session last evening and adopted a set of rules and by-laws to govern the meetings. Also a dozen or more ordinances were drawn up and given their first reading. # We Add Equipment

As fast as the profits of the office will permit. The money the Record makes is spent or invested here. Our living is purchased from the local stores and business houses. All surplus goes into local investment. We pay our debts.

Every effort is made to give each subscriber his money's worth for a dollar and a half. We curry favor from no man at the expense of our editorial policy. A newspaper is a semi-public institution, and its voice should ever be raised against corruption and kindred evils.

This Is Our Recently-Installed Linotype

It was purchased at an expense of $2,600 to provide more news, later news and better print for the benefit of our patrons. Due to the efforts of a few gentlemen who depend upon political jobs for their living—and to whom a controlled newspaper is a vital necessity—a third effort is being made to nurse along a second newspaper in a field only large enough to support one. This has resulted in slightly retarding our proposed program of improvements. It has also resulted in a double burden of advertising expense for many of our business houses, several of whom have been practically forced to quit using advertising space by the added expense, or to show partiality.

Not Later Than Next Season

We expect to have a new printing press and to print eight pages, all home print. In the mean time, we wish to thank all those who by their support have made it possible for us to remain independent of the gang that proposes to rule or ruin locally.
