HERE AND THERE

William D. Sommervell, employed for three years past by the Maryland Roads Commission, has been put in charge of survey work by the Sussex County Commission.

Mrs. Alice Hoey, of Dover, has received notice of the marriage of her son, Lieutenant Granville B. Hoey, and Miss Isabel Craven Merriman, of Kittes Point, Me., by Bishop Fiske of the Central New York diocese, in St. Georges Church, York Harbor, on August 23.

For the first time in the history of the Delaware City M. E. Church, a children's choir was heard on Sunday night of last week, rendering solos and choruses with fine effect.

Rev. Herbert F. Randolph, pastor of Grace M. E. Church, Wilmington, has declined to engage in Y. M. C. A. war work in France.

John Cannon, Jr.'s, right leg was broken on the left one bruised when the cope of a flask fell upon him last Tuesday in plant B of the Manganese Steel Company's works in New Castle last Tuesday.

Physicians have hopes of the recovery of little Elizabeth Mayer, of Dover, who was accidentally shot by a playmate on August 30. The bullet was removed from her back on Wednesday and she bore the operation well.

Horace D. Eskindge called as an alternate in the first draft contingent from Sussex County for Camp Dix at Wrightstown, N. J., notified the local board that it did not suit him to leave home at present but would appear for a later draft. His perfect frankness convinced the board of his ignorance and his case was passed over with a warning to heed future orders.

Two automobiles owned and driven by J. H. C. Legg, of Centreville, Md., and James Logriehead, of Chester, Pa., colliding head-on along the Philadelphia pike near Wilmington on Friday night were badly wrecked but the occupants escaped injury.

The closing down of the projectile plant of the New Castle Construction Company threw out of work many residents of that city, Wilmington, Port Penn, Delaware City and other points.

Colonel A. R. Boyle, a former well-known resident of Dover, died in Seward, Alaska, on July 17, aged 70 years.

John Wills, of New Texas, near Oxford, Pa., died at Union Hospital, Elkton, last Monday, from concussion of the brain caused by a fall from a ladder while repairing a windmill near Leslie.

William H. Biddle, an honorably discharged member of Company E of Elkton, First Maryland Infantry, has been appointed a special railroad officer at Elkton Station.

Joshua Clayton of Elkton, has been designated as States Attorney for Cecil County, during the absence of Major Charles B. Finley, of the First Infantry.

Andrew Woodall, one day last week, found in the woods on his farm, a mile north of Elkton, an abandoned automobile. The tags were missing and nothing was found to indicate its ownership.

The automobile of William Mahan, of Elkton, and one driven by a resident of Govans, near Baltimore, collided on a small bridge on the North East road last Monday night. Mahan's car was ditched and damaged.

Harry Luce, Frank Perry and Elmer Matthews, of Baltimore, were more or less cut and bruised when their automobile, driven too rapidly on a curve in the road, near Charlestown, was upset on Wednesday. They were treated at Union Hospital, Elkton. The car was badly damaged.

Mrs. A. F. Sturgeon fell at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Bunce, in Elkton, on Wednesday, dislocating her shoulder and breaking her collar bone. Some hours later Mrs. Bunce fell, breaking a small bone in her foot.

The marriage of Miss Sarah Estelle Smith, daughter of Mrs. William J. Smith and Mr. Irwin T. Kepler, Secretary-Treasurer of the Elkton Banking and Trust Company, is set for Saturday afternoon, September 15, in Elkton M. E. Church.

$6.50 TO $10.00—CAN YOU AFFORD TO PAY LESS

For years and years Regal Shoes have stood for unusually leather—strong of body, fine in grain. That is what has given them their superior wearing qualities.

Today such leather can be used only in shoes costing $6.50 to $10.00. Yes, we could get shoes to sell at a dollar or two less, but you would not find real economy in wearing them.

Men pay more attention to values than they used to. They find that shoe dollars go further in a high type shoe like REGALS—$6.50 to $10.

A special model for your foot in the size you should wear.

Parents should come in and see the wonderful line of

GOOD BOYS' SHOES

we are selling at $2.75 to $4.50 a pair.—They wear.

CHANGE HATS!

The first of September is the time most men lay aside the straw or panama and are gratified to select NEW FALL HATS from such complete displays as are shown at The Snellenburg Store.

These hats are more than new. They are the embodiment of grace of line, beauty of color and excellence of quality.

$2.00, $3.00, $3.50

Particularly striking in handsome effect are the hats of lustrous, soft silk finish and the medium rough texture.

STETSON HATS, $4.00 AND $4.50

Ask to see their new feature hat, the "Stetsonian" at $5.00.
